LOCAL

Business in the trial justice's courts has been lively of late.

The cry is still unchanged. Go to Wallace Cannon's to buy cheap goods.

Mr. F. DeMars moved next door to Mr. Boliver's on Thursday last.

A profane meeting has been going on at the Methodist Church.

Bracelets at parties are very fashionable, especially borrowed ones.

Our friend E. T. R. S. is a sly coon, but let him take care that we don't get a joke on him shortly.

Representatives Reedish, Luncan, Morgan and Simons were in Town on saturday.

Jerry Thomas keeps a neat little grocery near the Railroad, and sells goods cheap.

The late warm weather caused trees to begin to bud out like in the Spring of the year.

Did you ever hear of a game of chicken that had to be run down before he'd fight.

J. H. Fordham, Esq., is energetically at work organizing a brass band. We wish him success.

Mr. Andrew Jackson is having a dwelling put up on Broughton street next to Muller's old stand.

Cornelson's store is to have an iron front, which will be a fine improvement.

The night for Columbia does not get here of nights 'till nearly 4 o'clock. Rather an unreasonable hour that.

A considerable change took place in the weather during the week, and we now have use for heavy covering of nights.

A fatality seems to hang over Orangeburg in the frequent fires that occur there.

Trying to do business without advertising is like walking at a pretty girl in the dark; ye may know what ye are doing, but nobody else does.

Hon. J. W. Moseley was out exercising Molly Darling on Thursday afternoon last. She is a beauty, and carries herself with considerable grace.

The Treasurer is now the most important man in the County. Taxes must be paid, and the proper man is in the office to collect them.

"Cursed if the darned thing ain't a going!" was the surprised remark of an Orangeburg county Granger, who cussed the teeth of Mr. Riggs' circular saw a few weeks ago.

The Legislature will reassemble on the 18th inst. What particular work that body will devote itself to we are not advised. It is to be hoped, however, that there will not be over legislation done! We have more laws now upon the statute books than are carried out.

The Rev. John Honor will preach at the Lutheran Church in this place on to-morrow. He is an eloquent divine, and we bespeak for him a large audience.

Public hotel is being renovated by Mr. Edward Slater, who proposes to keep a first class house when he gets the building sufficiently improved. Success to him.

What in the world are street lamps for? Ours are never lighted at nights, and they are certainly in the way in the day time.

The crowd in town on saturday was very large, and made up of all classes and conditions. The day passed off quietly, however, and at night things simmered down all right.

Thb. Hohl W. H. R. bought a coffee box up here on Monday last, but we'll bet a big lump of sugar that he won't tell his Branchville friends what was in it.

If you want a first class five cent cigar, call on Sherrod Reeves, at Dr. Duke's. They can't do excellent for the price. We have smoked them and speak thereof we know.

Mr. John Danner, at a fine wicker chaise pipe on Christmas day while out riding, the finder of which will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same at this office.

Florida had been in market several days for sale. It will not be long now before our fishermen will commence to catch them in the Edisto.

Mayor Boliver showed a praiseworthy spirit by employing a guard at the expense of the town to watch the furniture which was carried from Clafin University.

"She stoops to conquer" was written before pin-back dresses came in fashion. We did not know there were so many elegantly formed young ladies in the land until now.

Why is it that we cannot have a market? Is the fault with the town council? Orangeburg ought to be able to boast of an institution of the kind, for nearly all of her citizens are fond of beef.

Cornelson has a Pirunga scouring brush which is just the thing to take up dirt. It waters the floor, cleanses it of filth, dries it, and leaves it as bright as your face. Call at Cornelson's and get one.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is particularly recommended for children. It cures Coughs, Colds, Croup, Sore Throat, and Whooping Cough. Is pleasant to the taste and acts like a charm. Price, 25 cents.

Mr. Doyle's carriage shop caught fire on Thursday last, during the conflagration at the Clafin University, but was fortunately saved from any damage, as the flames were extinguished before they had made much headway.

We know one of our county officers eating raw beef a couple of days ago. F. DeMars was witness to it, and said "That man's a radical, sure." We asked Frank to explain his meaning, but he wouldn't.

Mr. J. P. Mays was hit upon the head by a piece of furniture thrown from an upper window of the Clafin University while that building was burning, but we are glad to say, not seriously injured. Mr. Mays is always a hard worker and fires as fast as a gun.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Wm. Vince, which sad event occurred at his home in this place on Wednesday evening last. His funeral services were performed the following afternoon at the Presbyterian Church.

Albrecht sells the finest beef steaks ever offered in this market. If the town council could be persuaded to establish a market here and put Mat at the head of it, there would never be a scarcity of good fresh beef in Orangeburg.

There was a great deal of electioneering on saturday last. There was hob and nobbies on all sides. It seems that the campaign is to be opened early this year, a sign which we deprecate very much, as the people should be let alone to put their farms in order for the approaching planting season. Those who have to live by the sweat of their brow should be let alone for a while yet. It is too early to agitate politics, and we trust the sensible country people will frown down any such effort.

The front of the new Court House is beautiful. It is beginning to assume its portions rapidly. John II. L., watches it with pride, and well he may, for he is having one of the finest jobs put up that our people ever witnessed in this County.

Constable I. C. Whitmore was aroused on Friday night of last week, about 4 P. M. by some one apparently interviewing the Geese of Mr. L. Rich, upon attempting to arrest the party, he was shot in the chest several times, until getting out his pistol he lodged a ball in the parties arm, who once gave leg bail.

Mr. T. W. Albergotti is the happiest man in all Orangeburg. He has received congratulations from all sides upon his good fortune in having born unto him a few days since a fine healthy boy. Mr. A. has thus started out manfully at the beginning of the Centennial year. May he always prosper and be happy.

Mr. Ez. Kiel has just received a full supply of Landis's seeds. The gentleman and seedsman, well known in this County that it is unnecessary for us to attempt to add anything with our feeble pen to their reputation. Call and get your supply at once, and you will have a garden worth looking at.

Hon. B. H. Hill says of ex-Treasurer Jones, of Georgia, the man whose intinulations in bonds sunk the Treasury of that State in an amount approximating some two or three hundred thousand dollars: "The reputation of Jack Jones is the reputation of Georgia."

Upon which we remark that the reputation of the Empire State must be at a very low ebb.

Bridal tours are going out of fashion, and the young man can enjoy the first blissful days directly with the eyes of his father and mother-in-law.

If that is so, our young men had better make up their minds to remain single, for there is not much bliss to be found in hearing the cacklings of the old rooster and the old hen. There's no honey moon there; certain.

Without Cornelson, what would our farmers do? And without Mr. George Brunson as a o e of his helps what would become of his customers? Mr. C. has become the sine qua non of the prosperity of the planter, while Mr. B. is the rule mecum of all the good and accommodating. If you want bargains just drop in at Cornelson's and sing-out for Brunson, and we bet you'll go home satisfied.

The following named persons were installed last Monday night as officers of the Sons of Temperance of this place:

- A. B. Walker, W. P. E. S. Hubbell, W. A. Nora Neuffer, R. S. C. P. Brunson, A. R. S. T. R. Malone, F. S. T. A. Elliott, Treas. G. O. Ayers, Chap. C. C. Neuffer, Con. Corrie Wannamaker, A. C. G. A. Neuffer, I. S. J. J. Howell, O. S. W. A. Edwards, P. W. P.

Time for Action— On Monday, while Mr. Daniel O' Cain was in Orangeburg, a party of colored men visited his residence, two of whom caught his wife and held her face to the wall, while the others rifled the house of money, quilts, clothing, jewelry, etc., and departed on their way rejoicing. These outrages are getting so frequent in this County that the time, in our opinion, has come for our people to arouse themselves to action. No man's home is safe now from depredations from these villains, and we think one of them at least should be caught and made an example of.

Personal— Judge Thompson H. Cooke spent Tuesday last in our Burg. His errand was one of a purely business nature, but notwithstanding this fact, the Judge's friends got a chance to enjoy his society at brief intervals, and found him the same clever and entertaining gentleman that he was before he wore the judicial robes. Judge Cooke is, to use an expression of the Union-Herald, under its old regime, "one of the boys," and can always count upon Orangeburg county standing by him. He is likely, we understand, to represent this State in the National Convention which will nominate our next President. No better man could be selected. He is hearty and it our sprightly Sprights of the News don't keep on good terms with him, we intend to send him—well! we meant to say, that we intended to think mighty hard of him.

The following Grand and Petit Jurors were drawn by Jury Commissioner Larkins on Monday last:

- Grand Jurors—W. P. Seegers, Ned Saxton, J. H. Forest, Henry Milhous, R. S. Gleaton, Isaac Reed, Wm. Sigmond, B. H. Davis, J. J. DeWitt, J. D. Staley, Isom B. Parker, J. A. Westberry, Frantz Briggmann, M. G. Garrick, Geo. Void, A. D. Goodwyn, Ben Middleton and Frank Hart.

Petit Jurors—W. C. Mack, Sam'l Rowe, W. H. Murphy, E. T. R. Smoke, W. B. Mack, J. C. Harmon, Peter Houser, John Carmichael, Page Thomas, Tom Sanders, F. J. Bayck, Dan'l Bein, John McLeod, Sam'l Stromm, Friday Crum, J. M. Whetell, Daniel Nelson, J. P. Bolin, Joshua Huff, John H. Axon, Geo. R. Smoke, J. C. Inaberg, Irady Kerison, Albert Lee, Ephraim Carmichael, Jordan Washington, Robert Thomas, Caleb Davis, Albert Brown, Emery Wright, Bill Ed, Wesley Cheesboro, Primcor Corley, G. W. Hatley, H. F. Sully and Thomas Allen.

We hope the Sheriff will see to it that the above jurors are summoned, and not, as has too frequently been the case, wait to make up the Grand and Petit Jurors on the day that Court meets from the by-standers.

An amusing incident ocured near the Court House steps on saturday last. Cannon's buss, while making its way through the dense throng which blocked up the thoroughfare on that day, formed an object of fright to an old horse that some one of the many auctioneers was to sell, and caused him to commit an assault, without just cause or provocation, upon the pinder basket of an unoffending old mauma. It was done in this wise: As the buss was nearing the animal in question, its owner attempted to lead him out of the way, and in the direction of a certain auctioneer. The horse resolved not to go and commenced backing, which he did until the buss ran between him and his owner. At this moment, Cannon's driver cracked his whip, which so confused the alarmed animal that he forgot to turn round, doubled quicked backwards, until he reached the temporary pinder and break stands on the edge of the side walk, when he fell down, seating his pinder paris comfortably in a basket full of pinders. The mauma and hucksters beat a hasty retreat, and left the old bay to get up at his leisure, which he did after throwing all the pinders out of her basket with his tale. That horse could never be broke to pull in Wallace Cannon's buss.

Clafin University Burnt Up— On Thursday last about 2 o'clock, P. M. the alarm of fire was sounded throughout our streets, and in a very short time our fire companies were at their posts of duty, and made haste in repairing to the scene of conflagration. The news that the Clafin University was burning spread like wildfire, and in a very short time nearly every man in town had deserted his business, and engaged with our noble firemen in their laudable efforts to render assistance to those whose property was in danger. The fire caught in the top of the University, where a spark from a chimney is supposed to have been blown and blown up. This fact alone rendered it impossible for our firemen to reach it, and all they could do was in the way of saving furniture, sash, blinds, &c. The Agricultural College, which stood near the University, caught fire despite all efforts to save it, and was consumed also.

The scene during the progress of the fire was indeed a wild one. Teachers, students and servants could be seen running to and fro in excited confusion, while the flames were fast reducing by ashes the edifice which was the support of the one and the hope of the other. Chairs, bedsteads, bureaus, beddings, &c., were thrown wildly from the windows by our venturesome firemen and citizens, who did all in their power to rescue the property from the yawning mouth of the fire, which seemed eager to reduce everything to ashes that came in the way of its mad fury.

The insurance on the building is about nine thousand dollars, which is a beggarly sum compared with the value of the property destroyed. There is but one expression among our white fellow citizens in regard to the matter, and that is one of genuine regret that Clafin University no longer exists. It can no longer be said that they harbored unkindly feelings toward that institution of learning, for we never saw them work with more willingness, or display a greater degree of heroic action than that which characterized their conduct on Thursday last.

It is to be regretted that the fire came at this time, however, as the University was in a most flourishing condition. The number of teachers and students put out by it is pretty large. We learn that Dr. Cooke, the President of the University is staying with the Rev. Dr. Webster. It is not known whether efforts will be made or not to rebuild.

Remember This.

Now is the time of the year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, Coughs, Colds, and fatal results of predisposition to Consumption and other Throat and Lung Disease. BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP has been used in this neighborhood for the past two or three years without a single failure to cure. If you have not used this medicine yourself, go to your Druggist, Dr. A. C. DUKES and ask him of its wonderful success among his customers. Two doses will relieve the worst cases. If you have no faith in any medicine, just buy a Sample Bottle of Boschere's German Syrup for 10 cents and try it. Regular size Bottle 75 cents. Don't neglect a cough to save 75 cents.

J. N. ROBSON, 68 EAST BAY, COMMISSION MERCHANT AND DEALER IN FERTILIZERS.

CHALISTON, S. C. November 1, 1875. Having been engaged for twenty years in the Guano Trade with eminent success, I deemed it advisable to introduce Fertilizers under my own name and guarantee. I have made arrangements to have prepared a Guano under my inspection and control, called ROBINSON'S COTTON AND CORN FERTILIZERS. This Guano is of the highest standard. It contains, among other valuable ingredients, three per cent of Ammonia, one and a half per cent of Potash, and fourteen per cent of Available Phosphate. It also has been prepared for me a COMPOUND ACID PHOSPHATE of the highest standard. These Fertilizers are compounded of the purest materials, and are manipulated and tested under the supervision of Dr. St. J. Ravenel, of this city, who has given a warrant for their high character and adaptation for our soil. I offer these Fertilizers to Planters on the following favorable terms:

ROBINSON'S COMPOUND ACID PHOSPHATE. Cash $4 per ton; on time, $5.00. Cash $28 per 100; on time, $33.

Planters ordering immediately will be allowed to the first of April to decide which they prefer, cash or time. An order for a car load of eight tons will be sent free of dravage, but for a less amount $1 per ton will be charged. On orders for large lots from Grangers or dealers, a liberal discount will be allowed. I take this occasion to return my thanks to those who have so largely patronized the Fertilizers hitherto offered by me, and in soliciting their favorable attention to another, I pledge my best efforts to merit a continuance of confidence by keeping the highest standard of Fertilizers adapted to cotton and corn.
