TOWN COUNCIL.

This body meets every second Tuesday after the first Monday of each month, for the transaction of regular business.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE. Orangeburg Division No. 24, meets every Monday evening in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.

LOCAL.

A new fence has been put up in front of Maj. Whaley's office.

Mr. Albrecht has recovered his setter dog.

The Rev. J. Bachman Haskell will preach in the Lutheran Church on tomorrow.

Hon. T. C. Andrews has been commissioned a Trial Justice for this county.

Bishop Haven was in Orangeburg during the first part of the week. He was the guest of the Rev. Dr. Webster.

Read advertisement of in the matter of James O. B. Clancy, bankrupt, copied from the Lexington Dispatch.

Mr. W. H. Perry cleared a silver coin the other day, over a century old, having been made in 1774.

It is reported that Congressman Reilly is likely to be the candidate of the Republicans of this State for Lieutenant Governor.

No wonder the people have confidence, when the best physicians are prescribing Dr. Bull's cough syrup in all cases of cough, cold, etc.

Mr. Frantz Briggmann sports the finest buggy ever seen in Orangeburg. It was built in this place by Mr. P. Doyle.

Mr. Riggs' residence caught fire on Thursday last on the roof near the chimney. It was discovered by Mr. Ernst Mentzel and put out by that gentleman.

A little plan has been hatched in court circles to elect a little admiration clique, and thereby keep warm that bonanza we spoke of sometime ago.

J. Wallace Cannon maintains his reputation right straight along. His store is crammed with dry goods, shoes, hats, groceries, crockery and tin ware.

The advertisement of Messrs. Briggmann & Renneker, alluding to the connection of their house with President Grant, will explain itself.

Major Willoughby, an experienced and favorably known journalist, is in Orangeburg as the guest of Dr. Webster.

The advertisement of the Enterprise Club Saloon occupies a conspicuous place in to-day's paper. P. W. Bull & Co. promise to keep everything there that is good for the inner man.

ANOTHER CHANGE-

As was recently announced, the McMichael House has changed hands, and will hereafter be conducted by Mrs. A. P. Norris.

THE NEWS AND COURIER-

Must be excused for writing on the growing of jute, and Beecher, and Mrs. Tilton for the next three or four months.

The case against the parties who shot Shirlock some time ago, came up before Trial Justice Giraradenu, for a preliminary hearing, on Monday last.

The following from Mr. G. A. Neuffer, handed to us by our friend Albrecht, may be of interest to many of our readers:

Twenty-seven flour mills in the city of St. Louis, Mo., manufactured during the year 1865, 1,424,821 barrels flour.

Exports during the year, 2,480,877 barrels. Large quantities of this flour was shipped by rail to the Gulf and South Atlantic States.

The store at the railroad, kept by S. E. Tobin & Co., has been replenished with all sorts of nice things for the people.

THE LOST CAUSE-

A magnificent picture 14x18 inches in size, printed on heavy plate paper, beautiful in design and artistic in execution.

Address John Burrow & Co., pub's. Bristol, Tenn.

August Fischer is a jolly good fellow, and likes first-rate to make things jolly around him. The "devil among the tailors" was recently introduced here by several enterprising gentlemen.

A LITTLE DIALOGUE-

Sneezer—Captain you must consent to run for the office I suggested to you the other day.

but that I will retain my office, for I know how to pull wool over the eyes of both parties pretty well.

Captain—Oh! I'll run. I want office too much to decline. But to put ourselves safe beyond all contingencies that might arise, wouldn't it be wise to see to it that a senator favorable to our schemes be elected?

Sneezer—You bet I've got that fixed. My man will go to Columbia; and, moreover, he will not do so without leaving a written pledge with me.

Captain—Enough said. I understand you. The Senator is to be our tool when elected. Good day! But say, Mr. Sneezer, you must keep on talking for me.

Sneezer—Pshaw! man, the conventionites will want favors from me. Those they will get in proportion as they follow my orders.

Captain—There's no hell if you ain't a trump! God bless you, Sneezer! Good bye, again.

OBITUARY-

Another of earth's sweetest flowers has faded, the light of another bright star has been veiled in darkness.

The following lines appropriately express the feelings of the bereaved parents, to whom we extend our warmest sympathies:

Take away the empty cradle, Put the play things out of sight, Take those little shoes and hide them, Lest they break my heart to night.

Take that little chair now vacant, Where she used to sit and play, In her innocence and pleasure, Whiling happy hours away.

Let me kiss but once the ringlet, Severed from her Angel Brow! Just before she smiled and left me— Take it, for I'm weeping now!

"Sir," asked an attorney of a witness testifying in a case of assault and battery, "Have you ever been in this court before?"

"Yes, sir," replied the witness, "I have been here often."

"Ah, been here often, have you?" said the attorney, in a triumphant tone. "Now tell the court what for."

"Well," replied the witness, slowly, "I have been here at least a dozen times to see you, to try and collect that tailor's bill you owe."

CUT THIS OUT, It May Save Your Life.

There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them.
