PRESIDENT GRANT

Was rejoiced when he heard that Babcock, his Private Secretary, had been acquitted of Complicity in the Whiskey Frauds, and immediately

Sent an Order to our Store

For a car load of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Canned Meats, Oysters, Lobsters and Salmon; also

For Samples of Wines, Whiskies,

And twenty thousand of the Cigars with which we have been furnishing him lately. His object in making this Large Order proceeded from a desire on his part

To Teat the Jury

Who cleared his "Babby." We have filled his Order, but have still a Large Supply of everything Good on hand. Our Prices are suited to the times. Of course we make Grant pay well for what he gets, but to all decent people we

Sell Low Down for Cash
