South Carolina Railroad. OFFICE HOURS AT ORANGEBURG DEPOT. From 8 o'clock A. M. to 2 1/2 P. M. From 3 1/2 o'clock P. M. to 6 P. M.

LOCAL. Services in the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening. The weather has been cool and cloudy with a slight sprinkling occasionally.

Our town is more lively now than for some time past. Cotton is coming in daily and the merchants are smiling as can be seen.

The Rev. A. P. Norris, by special request, will preach at New Hope Church near Rowesville, to-morrow, 24th instant, at 11 o'clock.

The New Court House will soon be completed. It is one among the handsomest buildings in the State. The contractor deserves the praise of our citizens for the workmanlike manner in which it is being finished.

Mr. C. R. Jones is just from Charleston with new goods of every description, in fact he has everything that is necessary to the farmer and his good wife. Call on Charlie and examine his goods and prices.

We invite special attention to the advertisement of Rickenbacker & Taylor. These gentlemen are young men of energy, and of wide popularity. They have a store that everybody ought to visit, and buy their groceries from.

Messrs. Briggmann & Crook has one the finest fitted up establishment in this place, and well filled with dry goods, groceries and liquors which they are offering at very low figures. The public will do well to call at the above establishment before making their purchases.

A protracted meeting will commence in the Methodist Church of this place on to-morrow morning. Rev. Wm. Martin, P. E., of Columbia will preach morning and evening. The meeting will continue during the week with Rev's A. J. Cothran and J. O. Wilson of S. C. Conference to assist. The Sunday School Missionary Society will meet to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, when addresses will be made. The public generally and children especially are invited to attend.

Mr. W. E. Lewis advertises that he will buy cotton and pay the highest market price, also that he has a first class stock of goods on hand which he is offering at extremely low figures. Give him a trial and he will satisfy you that he means what he says.

How Tight They Wear Them.

The extremities to which fashion has advanced in London in female attire are really deplorable. A lady on whose truthfulness I can depend, confides to me the following particulars: She was asked the other day to inspect the wedding trousseau of a young lady of high rank. The dresses were very numerous and beautiful, and every accessory of attire was in the height of fashion, if not of good taste.

"Oh," said the milliner, with a smile of pity, "ladies wear none nowadays. They wear these instead." And she pointed to three complete suits, not of armor, but of chamois leather.

It is only over chamois leather that the skirts from Worth can be strained tight enough. At Bristol, the other day, the Mayor gave an entertainment to the Lord Mayor of London, and the occasion seemed so important that one lady guest sent to Paris for her dinner dress. It was so tight when it came that she had to take off garment after garment before she could get into it at all.

At the very last drawing room in Buckingham Palace a similar catastrophe took place. A lady made her bow to the Queen a little too low for her "kicking strap," (as a man would call it, but I dare say Mr. Worth has some prettier name.) and it slipped down so far that she could not get up again.

Call at Dr. J. G. Wannamaker's and get a pamphlet and read about Dr. Clark Johnston's great Indian blood syrup, the best medicine in use. Dr. Wannamaker also has the medicine for sale at wholesale and retail.

Americans are particularly subject to this disease and its effects: such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual costiveness, Heart burn, Water brash, coming up of the food coated tongue, disagreeable taste in the mouth, palpitation of the Heart and all diseases of the Stomach and Liver.

QUESTIONS FOR EVERY ONE TO ANSWER—Are you troubled with Indigestion, Constipation of the Bowels, Dyspepsia, or any disease of the Liver? Have you suffered for years and found no relief from the use of medicines? Do you have a faint appetite, and are you troubled with feelings of languor? If you have these feelings we know you have not tried the new discovery Merrell's Hepatine, at Dr. A. C. Dukes' Drug Store. It is performing wonderful cures in this and all other communities where the people use it.

It is pronounced by all as the best Liver Medicine in the world. Two doses will relieve the worst case of Dyspepsia or Constipation of the Bowels. Each bottle contains fifty doses, and a teaspoonful of this medicine in a wine glassful of water three times a day for one day, produces a most wonderful change. Where the system is run down with loss of energy and appetite, or Dyspepsia, with all its train of evil, is effecting its deadly work, this remedy, Merrell's Hepatine, never fails to bring about a speedy and permanent cure. Those who doubt the merit and virtues of this medicine and live from day to day without trying the Hepatine, have our sympathy, but can not be cured unless they take the Medicine.
