PRESIDENT GRANT

Was rejoiced when he heard that Babcock, his Private Secretary, had been acquitted of Complicity in the Whiskey Frauds, and immediately

Sent an Order to our Store

For a car load of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Canned Meats, Oysters, Lobsters and Salmon; also

For Samples of Wines, Whiskies,

And twenty thousand of the Cigars with which we have been furnishing him lately. His object in making this Large Order proceeded from a desire on his part

To Test the Jury

Who cleared his "Babby." We have filled his Order, but have still a Large Supply of everything Good on hand. Our Prices are suited to the times. Of course we make Grant pay well for what he gets, but to all decent people we

CENTENNIAL GROCERY.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS ago the quiet and unpretending citizens of this place did not dream that a century hence I would open the completest.

GROCERY STORE

That was ever established in the interior of South Carolina. Nor did they think of the mighty destiny that was wrapped up in the future for Orangeburg. It was to become one of the centres of trade and industry, but the homespun maiden and the unkempt bachelor of the long ago, had no prophetic visions of the fact. But

Truth is Strange Than Fiction.

And on the 21st of August, 1876, on Russel Street, next door to Dr. Hydrick's Drug Store, in the Town of Orangeburg, I established

THE CENTENNIAL GROCERY.

My friends were invited to examine my stock and after a thorough inspection passed the following

RESOLUTIONS UNANIMOUSLY.

Resolved, That the people of Orangeburg County who are fond of good things to eat, are under obligations to P. W. Bull for the consideration he has manifested towards them in the establishment of his SPLENDID GROCERY, and for the low figures at which he has marked them.

Resolved further, That his fine Sugar, Coffee, Lard, Bacon, Hams, Molasses, Rice, Grist, Butter, Mackerel, Oysters, Lobsters, Canned Fruits, Tinware, Tobacco, Cigars, Candies, Raisins, Jellies, &c., &c., are the best ever offered for sale in this place.

Goods delivered anywhere in Town free of charge
