CENTENNIAL GROCERY.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS ago the quiet and unpretending citizens of this place did not dream that a century hence I would open the completest.

GROCERY STORE

That was ever established in the interior of South Carolina. Nor did they think of the mighty destiny that was wrapped up in the future for Orangeburg. It was to become one of the centres of trade and industry, but the homespun maiden and the unkempt bachelor of the long ago, had no prophetic visions of the fact. But

Truth is Stranger Than Fiction.

And on the 21st of August, 1876, on Russel Street, next door to Dr. Hydrick's Drug Store, in the Town of Orangeburg, I established

THE CENTENNIAL GROCERY.

My friends were invited to examine my stock and after a thorough inspection passed the following

RESOLUTIONS UNANIMOUSLY.

Resolved, That the people of Orangeburg who are fond of good things to eat, are under obligations to P. W. Bull for the consideration he has manifested towards them in the establishment of his SPENDING GROER Y, and for the low figures at which he has marked them.

Resolved further, That his fine Sugar, Coffee, Lard, Bacon, Hams, Molasses, Rice, Grst, Butter, Mackerel, Oysters, Lobsters, Canned Fruits, Tinware, Tobacco, Cigars, Candies, Raisins, Jellies, &c., are the best ever offered for sale in this place.

Goods delivered anywhere in Town free of charge
