Hampton's Government

Is receiving all the taxes needed to keep it going and to supply with food the inmates of the Lunatic Asylum, Penitentiary, etc., but the question is, will the people of this county receive supplies sufficient to do them unless they call on

JONES & WANNAMAKER?

Times, it is true, are hard, but the noble and sturdy sons of old Orangeburg county should see to it that the

INNER MAN

Is taken care of. And to this end the above named firm is bending all their energies. With an abundance of Flour, Sugar, Coffee, Lard Bacon, Hams, Canned Fruits, Meats, Oysters and barrels of Whiskey that will hold a head for twenty four hours, they hope to be of some service in the war against Starvation. CENTENNIAL GROCERY.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS ago the quiet and unpretending citizens of this place did not dream that a century hence I would open the completest.

GROCERY STORE

That was ever established in the interior of South Carolina. Nor did they think of the mighty destiny that was wrapped up in the future for Orangeburg. It was to become one of the centres of trade and industry, but the homespun maiden and the unkempt bachelor of the long ago, had no prophetic visions of the fact. But

Truth is Stranger Than Fiction.

And on the 21st of August, 1876, on Russel Street, next door to Dr. Hydrick's Drug Store, in the Town of Orangeburg, I established

THE CENTENNIAL GROCERY.

My friends were invited to examine my stock and after a thorough inspection passed the following

RESOLUTIONS UNANIMOUSLY:

Resolved, That the people of Orangeburg county who are fond of good things to eat, are under obligations to P. W. Bull for the consideration he has manifested towards them in the establishment of his SPLENDID GROCERY, and for the low figures at which he has marked them.

Resolved further, That his fine Sugar, Coffee, Lard, Bacon, Hams, Molasses, Rice, Grst, Butter, Mackerel, Oysters, Lobsters, Canned Fruits, Tinware, Tobacco, Cigars, Candies, Raisins, Jellies, &c, &c., are the best ever offered for sale in this place.

Goods delivered anywhere in Town free of charge
