

OUR HEARTS, DEAR GIRLS, ARE WITH YOU STILL.
Volunteer's Song—Att.—Russell's Native Song
 BY J. W. JOHNSON.
 We're far away in foreign land,
 Responsive to our country's call,
 A little but a gallant band,
 Fair Freedom's sons and brother's all,
 Our pleasant homes, our kin and friends,
 At thought of thee our bosoms thrill,
 While Memory her magic lends,
 Our hearts, dear girls, are with you still.

New forms and faces meet us here,
 Unlike the loved ones left behind,
 Strange voices fall upon our ear,
 But none with tone so sweet and kind,
 The dark-eyed beauty's eyes in vain,
 Affection's lonely void to fill,
 For you we only wear the chain,
 Our hearts, dear girls, are with you still.

No holiday pursuit is ours;
 The burning sun, the chilling dew,
 The battle—where the death-storm showers,
 We, cheerful, suffer all for you;
 Weak no guardon but your praise,
 Go where we may and come what will,
 Forever, as in bygone days,
 Our hearts, dear girls, are with you still.

CAMP NEAR MONTEREY, Dec. 2, 1846.

NOT A PERFECT GENTLEMAN.
 No perfect gentleman will yawn in Church, if he can avoid it; and if he must yawn, whether in or out of Church he will be very shy about it. Nor will he lie down in his pew. He never, in Church or out of it especially in the company of the ladies, puts his feet as high as his head. This last is an act of great vulgarity.

No perfect gentleman will pick his teeth at the table. It is very offensive. Nor will he use his nose in company, as if playing second to a bugle. A decent man may chew tobacco; but the unfortunate habit constitutes no part of his accomplishments. A well informed man may use profane language, but the degrading practice will be a black deformity, which will greatly mar gentility.

We have seen persons having their fingers amply furnished with gold rings and at the same time still more extravagantly decorated with ten heavy dirt rings, under their finger nails. As emblems of latitude and longitude, they might be appropriate for the profession of a sailor; but with gentlemen in the ordinary pursuits of life, these black meridians had better be dispensed with.

A person who has never used a tooth-brush from his infancy, and whose teeth are, consequently, thickly coated with filth, is not a perfect gentleman. Should such an one ever be cast over board at sea, and a whale should swallow him, he would not be permitted to remain three days and nights, as did Jonah! The loss of teeth is not a fault, but a misfortune; but the neglect of those, we have, until they become so foul as to be unfit to be seen, is a gross fault, and an abominable offence.

A perfect gentleman does not wipe his mouth upon the table cloth, nor spit upon the carpet.—The spitting upon a hot stove may be excused in a tobacco chewer, because the exquisite flavor of roasted spittle greatly contributes to the enjoyment of a polite company.

We shall say nothing at present of the longhaired gentry, nor of mustaches and whiskers, further than that these articles seem to be the chief bull-work of the faith, the main ram-part of the respectability of a self-important few who do not intend that their brain shall be dwarfed by a profuse luxuriance of bristles.

"God's excellency, his wisdom, his purity and love, seemed to appear in everything; in the sun, the moon and stars, in the clouds and blue sky, in the grass, flowers, trees, in the water, and in all Nature, which used greatly to fix my mind. I often used to sit and view the moon for a long time, and in day spend much time in viewing the clouds and sky, to behold the sweet glory of God in these things, in the meantime singing forth, with a low voice, my contemplations of the Creator and Redeemer."—Jonathan Edwards.

DROWNED.—The friends of Capt. Alfred Patton, who lately left this port in the Barque Dudley for New Orleans, will deeply regret to learn that on the 25th inst. while laying in that port, he met a watery grave. He was leaning over the stern of his vessel to ascertain the draft of water she was drawing, and lost his balance, meeting the melancholy fate announced above.—Capt. P. has been a trader to this port for the last ten years, his urbanity of manners and correct deportment had won for him the esteem and good opinion of all who had any dealing with him. He has left a widow and two children to mourn their irreparable loss.

THE KILLED IN BATTLE.—It appears, from a communication from the War Department, made to the Senate, that of the 152 non-commissioned officers and privates who were killed or wounded at the battles of Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma, 72 (about half) were foreigners by birth, viz: 43 Irishmen, 17 Germans, 5 Scotch, &c. These battles were fought entirely by regulars. Among the volunteers the proportion of foreigners is much smaller.

An itinerant preacher, out west, declares that the miser, when he dies, and attempts to fly up to heaven, will find a bag of gold tied to every feather of his wings; the weight of which will sink him to perdition.

THE BRADFORD SPRINGS FEMALE ACADEMY.

The exercises of this Institution will be resumed on the 15th of January, 1847. The interest manifested towards his enterprise, has induced the Principal to purchase the establishment, and he is now engaged in making extensive improvements on the buildings and grounds.

The location, after having undergone the test of more than a half-century, as a place of resort for health, certainly needs no new commendation. And the writer, (having a very strong consumptive tendency,) from his own experience during the last very severe winter, believes that the dryness of the atmosphere renders this one of the best winter, as well as summer residences, that can be selected in the Southern country. As regards health, economy, and freedom from the influences that often retard the progress of young ladies in villages and towns, this Institution presents peculiar advantages; to which may be added, refined and intelligent society in its vicinity.

It is the purpose of the Principal to build up an institution in which a thorough, and, at the same time, accomplished education may be obtained; and regarding all education as radically defective, which does not aim at the formation and training of the moral character according to the spirit and precepts of the Gospel, he will endeavor to educate the hearts as well as the minds and manners of his pupils and to prepare them for becoming useful and intelligent members of society.

Delicacy forbids the Principal to speak of the competency of himself and Mrs. DeBose to conduct such an Institution, but he pledges himself that the Teachers engaged, are of the first order in their departments.

A Chapel has been opened, and the young ladies will enjoy the advantages of regular religious services every Sabbath.

The scholastic year will consist of ten months. A vacation of two weeks will be given from the 1st to the 15th of May, and the exercises close on the 27th of November.

TERMS FOR TEN MONTHS.

Board and Tuition, including Fuel, Lights and Washing, $150 00
 Music—Piano or Guitar, including Vocal Music and use of Instruments, 50 00
 Drawing and Painting, 30 00
 Modern Languages—French, Spanish, German or Italian, 40 00
 The terms, except the furnishing of Stationery, will be the same as they have been during the present year.

Instructors.

Rev. J. J. DUBOSE, Mrs. M. E. DUBOSE, ISAAC AULD, M. E. MISS MARY HORT.
 Dr. AULD will deliver a course of Lectures on Chemistry during the year, and a complete chemical and philosophical apparatus will be provided for illustrating by experiments, the subjects of his Lectures. Instruction in Vocal Music will form part of the exercises of the school, but neither for this, Chemistry, nor Latin and Greek, will there be any extra charge.—The charge of $150 will cover all the expenses of a pupil, unless she receives instruction in Instrumental Music, Drawing, or the Modern Languages.
 N. B.—Each young lady will be expected to have her name distinctly marked on every article of her clothing, and also to furnish her own towels.
