Whipped without knowing it.—The following anecdote, as to the conduct of the Mississippi Regiment of Volunteers, at the battle of Buena Vista, we find in the New-Orleans Picayune. "It is stated, upon what may be considered good authority, that Gen. Taylor, in giving an account of the battle to Lieut. Col. Randolph, of the Virginia regiment, said that 'if there had been only regulars in the battle of Buena Vista he would probably have lost the day, as the Mississippi regiment of volunteers was whipped three times without knowing it; that when borne down by overwhelming numbers they fought on just as if nothing uncommon had happened to them, and by dint of endurance and a wonderful alacrity in ripping up the next man to them, they retrieved the fortunes of the field.'"

Correspondence of the Herald.
Gen. Tom Thumb's charabanc with penes, driver, and footman to match, for two days past, has been flourishing in Pennsylvania avenue, to the utter astonishment of the natives, and the great delight of the children. The General is to be here on Monday, and will not only visit the White House in state, but proposes, also, a friendly call upon Hon. Dixon H. Lewis at his lodgings; in which case we shall have the juxta position of the smallest and largest gentlemen of their age in the United States, Tom Thumb weighing some fifteen pounds, and Mr. Lewis about five hundred, so that it would take some thirty-three such Lilliputians as the General to weigh down the distinguished and weighty Senator from Alabama.

CAPT. KIDD'S TREASURE.—The search with the diving-bell for the sunken treasures of Capt. Kidd, the renowned pirate, has been renewed on the North River, and in the course of two days last week, silver and jewels to the amount of an hundred thousand dollars was fished up from the wreck of Kidd's vessel. Query, whether the lucky finders cannot be indicted as receivers of stolen goods?

THE BRAVE KENTUCKIANS.—The Louisville Courier learns that immediate steps will be taken to have the bodies of M'Kee, Clay, Vaughan, and other Kentuckians, who fell at Buena Vista, removed to that State for interment.

A good story is told, it is said, by Mr. Secretary Marcy, about the shipment to Vera Cruz of the mortars and shells for General Scott. There were forty of the mortars to be sent. Ten were sent by the Tamaroo, and the remainder by other vessels. The ten by the Tamaroo arrived and were used. The others did not arrive. The Secretary says the reason is that the Tamaroo made the best of the way, but the other vessels were paid by the day and took a plenty of sea room.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
This medicine prepared by a long experienced and skillful physician, tested and approved by a great number of intelligent, discriminating and respectable persons in various parts of the country, is now received and used with entire confidence and with great success by those afflicted with pulmonary complaints. It is also recommended as a valuable medicine for other diseases, such as colds, coughs, and particularly diseases whose tendency is to consumption. Should its efficacy continue as it has thus far been proved in various obstinate cases, it will indeed be a most invaluable medicine.

Recommended by the editors of the Southern Journal of Medicine and Pharmacy, and prescribed and recommended by most all respectable Physicians of Charleston and the surrounding country.
This preparation (by adding the Queen's Delight, &c. to the Sarsaparilla,) combines in a more perfect degree than any known remedy, tonic, and alterative powers, and is highly recommended by eminent Physicians. It is prepared in consequence of the recommendations given by Dr. H. R. Frost, Professor of Materia Medica in the Medical College of Charleston, S. C., in his work on Materia Medica, and concentrated by a process of the subscriber's to render it more convenient for administration, and with the exception of the addition of mercury which may at all times be added when necessary.
For the composition of this Preparation, and the Medicinal Properties of the Queen's Delight, Physicians are respectfully referred to the 5th and 6th Nos. Vol. 1, of the "Southern Journal of Medicine and Pharmacy."
