

Our Album

OF ORIGINAL AS WELL AS SELECTED SPRINKLINGS.

No. VI.

THE OLD LOVE LETTERS.

They were treasured up and hoarded, One by one, and day by day; Every letter bore its record Of the hour passed away.

JUDICIOUS HINTS FOR WIVES—Never complain that your husband pores too much over the newspaper, to the exclusion of that pleasing converse which you formerly enjoyed with him.

THE FIRST KISS. BY MISS SPANX. Nay ask me not—how could I bring My lips to rest on maiden's brow;

ADVICE TO YOUNG LADIES—Trust not to uncertain riches, but prepare yourself for emergency in life. Learn to work, and not be dependent upon servants to make you bread;

ACUTE DEDUCTION. He takes his hat, and why I would be knowing.

PHILOSOPHY OF GAMES. Life's a game at Blindman's Bull.

The mortality bills in New York shew neither an increase or reduction; but an average of fifty deaths a day in so large a population should create no anxiety particularly as there is a foreign emigration of from two to three thousand.

European Affairs.

After all the brave efforts made in Europe to establish liberal governments, the news brings the most disheartening intelligence.—Rome has surrendered to the French and the Pope will be restored to all his temporal rights.

Having been privileged for two years of meeting with you for the purpose of drill and other exercises, connected with our noble Cold Water Army. I feel happy to state to you that these seasons, have been the most joyous of my life.

Cold Water Army.

Capt. Z. P. Moses, declining a reelection to the command of the Sumterville Division of the Cold Water Army. Master W. J. CLARK, was elected to fill the vacancy, and on assuming his office, addressed his "Army" as follows:

Fellow Soldiers of the Cold Water Army: Having been privileged for two years of meeting with you for the purpose of drill and other exercises, connected with our noble Cold Water Army. I feel happy to state to you that these seasons, have been the most joyous of my life.

ARRIVAL OF THE CAMBRIA.

Seven Days Later from Europe. Another Advance in Cotton.

The steamer Cambria arrived at Halifax on Thursday. The most cheering intelligence is the continued advance in cotton, which has not only gone up one-eighth since the last steamer, but is still rising.
