AN ENGLISHMAN'S OPINION OF AMERICA .-Mackay, in his recent work on this country, says "that America is the only power on earth that Great Britain has to dread." It is not the political or military power of the United States that the British Government has to dread, according to Mr. Mackay, but the "silent and unostentations operation of nature, and the progressive achievements of art on the continent of America."

A pleasant anecdote is related by Richards, of Dean Swift, who, when his servant apologized for not cleaning his boots, on a journey, because they would soon be dirty again, directed him to get the horses in readiness immediately; and, upon the fellow's remonstrance that he had not eaten his breakfast, that it was of little consequence, as he would acon be hungry again.

An article in Blackwood's Magazine says that at least 250,000 persons perished by famine in Ireland in 1847, in consequence of the less of the Potato crop, notwithstanding the British Government expended fifty millions of dollars in purchasing food for the population, and extensive donations were received from abroad.

WHAT IT COSTS .- Foreign capital in Engvested to the amount of $22,000,000, in con-sequence of the disturbed state of Europe during the last eighteen months.

SUB-MARINE PLACER .- We are informed by our friend of the Eastport, Express that the company formed in this city for the purpose of raising the relics of the British brig Plumper, are likely to be successful. They have been at work but a short time, and have already obtained quite an amount of specie, together with sundry other valuable articles. It will be recollected that the Plumper was lost near Point Lepruez, during the last war with Great Britain, and contained specie to the amount of $175,000 for the purpose of paying off sol-diers. Mr. Favor says he had the pleasure of seeing one large bag of the dollars on his way up .- Boston Bee.

NEW HAMPSHIRE RAILROAD.—The Granite State is working boldly in the construc-tion of Railroads. No less than 22 lines, of the length of 834 miles, are in progress; and as the expense of construction and equipment is estimated at $30,000 a mile, the total cost will be $25,000,000; a pretty good round sum for the citizens of New Hampshire to pay.

The New Hampshire Legislature at its rerent session, provided that after the second Tuesday in March next, the day of the S ate election, no liconse shall be granted for the sale of liquors, except for medicinal or mechanical purposes.

VIOLENT PREACHING .- A little boy being at a sermon, and observing the minister very vehement in his words and boldily gesture, cried out, 'Mother why don't the people let the man out of the box!" Then I entreat thee behave thyself well in preaching, lest men say, truly, this is Jack in a box."—(Simple Cobbers Boy, p, 27.

How NATRRAL .- "Have you made choice of a profession?" inquired a young lady of a gentleman, who was endeavoring to do the agreeable. "I," replied the young gentle-man, "am a journeyman shoemaker." "Good heavings!" exclaimed the lady apparently much disgusted, "I thought you wereto be a student.'

Obituary.

DIED-In Sumterville, S. C., on the afteron of the 9th inst., after a protracted illuswhich she hore with christian resignation, Mrs. ELIZA M. MILLER, consort of Dr. J. I. Miller. To see her, was to respect her - to be acquain To see her, was to respect her—to be acquainted with her, was to admire her,—to be intunate with her, was to love her. Dignified, without being haughty—serious without being austere—reserved, without being repulsive—active without being ostentations, she moved quietly steadily and usefully along the pathway of life. She illustrated in a most striking manner the passing beauty of that chief ornament of a pious female, viz.—"a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price." But she has left an earthly home for an heavenly-the church militant-for the church trium ly—the church militant—for the church trium-phaxt. Husband, parents, brothers, sisters and friends weep, but they "sorrow not as others who have no hope." It was remarked by a judicious and experienced christian friend, who saw her a little anterior to her death—"it was a privilege to be there"—what a glorious commentary upon the effects of true godiness, in the most trying hour upon earth! "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace."
