thanks for the gift of this blessed book, which a kind Providence bestowed upon fallen man to teach him the way to heaven.

Brethren; may I not pledge for you that you will take it for your guide: May it be our Shield and our buckler; and following its divine teachings may we at last arrive at that haven where the wicked will cease from troubling, and where the weary, will be at rest.

SALEM CAMP MEETING .- The Camp Meeting at Salem, in Lancaster District, closed on Tuesday, the 4th instant, and was one of unusual interest. Seldom has there been a Meeting, at which better order was observed, and more permanent good affected. The accessions to the Church were about 57 white and colored and the number of conversions about 35 or 40. The surrounding section of country had been deeply interested in the subject of religion for some weeks previous. [Camden Journal.

The Charleston Courier says: "We are requested to state that Delegates to the St. Louis and Memphis Convention will be passed over the South Carolina, Georgia, and Western and Atlantic Railroads free of charge, going and returning. Tickets for which can be obtained at the Railroad office, State street."

MARYLAND GOLD MINING .- The 'tockville Journal, of Saturday last, says: "We have seen, lately, several rich specimens of gold dust from the Montgomery mines. The workmen are constantly employed, and, we learn, are getting a considerable quantity of the ore. The specimens of rock we have seen are worth about fifty dollars per ton, and the mine very rich."

Three or four colored persons, probably instigated by the abolitionists, induced Mr. Clay's body servant, Levi, to run away from him, on Saturday. It is supposed that he has gone to Boston .- [Newport News .- Levi found out, however, the hollow heartedness of the abolitionists and returned to his natives.

A WELL CONCERTED INTRIGUE!

Valuable Secret Disclosed. The welfare of the American people renders t necessary that they should be made cognizant with a very momentous and valuable secret, having an intimate connection with their pecuniary interests, the great importance of which, argently demands their most serious and deliberate attention. There can be very little doubt that there exists in the whole human family an universal distute to hear the "slings and arrows ofoutrageous Fortune," so long as they see others of the GENUS HOMO, (whether by the exercise of a more astute understanding, or the result of purely fortuitous circumstances) dwelling in marble Halls, surrounded by parasites, and revelling in luxury, case and contentinent.
