THE HESPERIAN HARP. A New Music Book in Patent Notes. BY DR. WM. HOUSER. Is the greatest work of the kind ever offered to the world. It contains 576 pages, and more than 700 tunes—Psalms, hymns, Hymn Tunes, Odes and Anthems, Sunday School, Infant, Revival, Camp-Meeting, Missionary, Temperance, Moral, and Patriotic pieces; Scotch, Irish, German, French and other fine Foreign Tunes. Much new music never before published; the noble old tunes that thrill the hearts of our fathers and mothers in their youth, and one of the plainest expositions of the principles of music and of musical composition ever published. It is especially suited to the taste of the South and West, (the author is a Southern man in birth and education, and all his affinities) and is adapted to the use of Schools for children, the Singing Schools, the Church Choir of every denomination, the Missionary and Temperance Meetings, the grand days of our Republic, and the social party, where good sense and the love of every thing virtuous and noble should rule the hour. Inquire of the Booksellers and Country Merchants generally, and of GEORGE A. OATES, & Co., Augusta, Ga. The author will travel and sell this work can make from $500 to $1500 a year. Address the author, Spier's Turn Out, Jefferson Co., Ga. All the South Carolina weeklies and tri-weeklies will publish this advertisement for one month, and send their bills to the author. Feb 6

SUMTER Boot and Shoe Mart. BENJAMIN FOLSOM, would respectfully inform his friends and the public that he has removed his establishment to Liberty-street, next door to W. Webb's store, where he will be happy to see them. The present state of the market will not allow him to give but a short credit, and trusts his prices, which are sufficiently low, will demand the cash. He has just received from Charleston and Philadelphia a very select assortment of gentlemen's fine Boots, for sale low for cash. An assortment of fine and superfine Gaiters, Ties, Buskins and Misses' Hosiery, together with a new article styled, Palo Alto Ties, will attract the attention of the Ladies of the District. By endeavoring to suit the taste of all he trusts to merit a further share of public patronage. Sumterville, Feb 6.
