Real Life-A Pounds, Shillings, and Pence Romance.

It is some time ago-the exact date is no consequence since a teller in one of the banks in town, found, at the close of the day's transactions, that his cash was deficient to the extent of £1000. After much fruitless search, a reward of £50 was offered for the recovery of the missing sum, and by and by an anonymous letter came proposing to restore it if the reward were raised to £100. It immediately occurred to the teller to compare the disguisedhandwriting with that of every document which had passed through his hands on the day ir squestion. In the process of a comparison draft in which he thought he could trace some indication of similarity. His next step was to have the whole of the drafts o this individual, stretched over a considera-"Me period, and written under every variety of circumstances-sought out and careful ly scrutinised. His suspicions were confirmed. Being a resolute fellow, and fear ing that delay might be dangerous, he sup-plied himself with a brace of pistols, and with two friends on whom he could rely, took the bold step of going to the house the suspected party, which was reached at a late hour in the evening. On obtaining a private interview he stated blandly, that he believed some mistake had taken place thetween them on money matters, which he was desirous should be quietly arranged. In reply, he received a flat denial of any such inistake ever having occured. Find-ing that "soft sawder" would be of no avail, he altered his tactics; told him with a determined air that he was in no mood to be trifled with-that he had indubitable evidence of the money having been obtained by him; and presenting his pistols, threatened to shoot him on the spot if it were not that instant forthcoming. Thrown off his guard by this sudden and extraordinary appeal, the poor man fell into a fit of tremb ling; admitted that £100 instead of £10 notes had been paid to him, and stated that they were lying concealed in the heart of one of the walls of Crookston Castle. Suspecting that some plan to escape was contemplated, the teller was for a while scepti cal of truth of this statement, but at length hefell upon a method whereby be could test its truth, and at the same time prevent any escape—it was that of locking up his two sfriends along with the defaulter, while he should proceed alone to Crookston. He ac--cordingly set out, and reaching the old cas tle about midnight, proceeded as directed to remove the fourth stone from the bottom, in the corner nearest Glasgow; and there sure enough, between two slips of wood, o protect them from damp, lay the identical notes which had caused him so much anxiety. This incident may have a dash of the romantic about it, yet it is no fiction.

A WITTY RETORT.—Sir Astly Cooper relates a witty reply made by an Irish to a Scotch surgeon. The former asserted that cancer never occurred in women who had ever been mothers. The latter denied this, and mentioned the case of a larly who had twice been the mother of twins, and yet had cancer afterward. To this apparently conclusive evidence, the Irishman immediately replied, "Ay, by my seul, but don't you know that's an exception to the general rule! Where's the wonder in cancer following gemini!--it always does."

The great occuliarity and expellence of the control of the contr

The great peculiarity and excellence of Dr. Christie's Galvanio Curatives. consists in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by outward application, in place of the usual mode of drug-ging, and physicking the patient, till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction. They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, promote the secretions, and users do the slightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction io the United States, only three years incomore than

60,000 Persons including all ages, classes and constitions, among which were a large number of ladies, who are peculiarly subject to Nervous Complaints, have been ENTIRELY AND PERMANENTLY CURED, when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vain! when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vain?

To illustrate the use of the GALVANIC BELT, suppose the case of a person sufficied with that base of tivilization, DYSFENSIA, or any other chronic or Nerrasis Disorder. In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken, which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach, afford temporary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state, and with injured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT. Take a Dyspeptic sufferer, even in the worst symptoms of an attack, and simply tie the Belt eround the Body, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the invensible perspiration will act on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and thence back again to the positive, thus keeping we a continuous Generale, circulation throughout the system. Thus the most severe cases of DYSFEPSIA are FERMANENTLY CURED. A FEW DAYS IS AMPLY SUFFICIENT TO ERADICATE THE DISEASE OF YEARS.

PROPERTY OF THE GALVANIC BELT AND NECK application of THE GALVANIC BELT AND NECK LACE. My reply is as follows:

For about twenty years 1 had been suffering from Dyspepsia. Every year the symptoms became worse, nor could I obtain permanent relief from any course of medical treatment whatever. About fourteen years since, in consequence of frequent exponent to the weather, in the discharge of my pastoral duties, I became subject to a severe Chronic Rheumatism, which for year after year, caused me indescribable auguish. Farther: in the winter of '45 and '46, in consequence of preaching a great deal in my own and various other churches in this region, I was attacked by the Bronchitis, which soon became so severe as to require an immediate suspension of my pastoral labors. My nervous system was now theroughly prestrated, and as my Bronchitis became worse, so also did my Dyspepsia and Rheumatic affection—thus evincing that these disorders were connected with each other through the medium of the Nervous System. In the whole pharmacopecia there seemed to be no remedial agent which could reach and recuperate my Nervous System; every thing that I had tried for this purpose had completely failed. At last I was led by my friends to exagine your inventions, and (though with no very sanguine your inventions, and (though with no very sanguine hopes of their efficiency,) I determined to try the effect of the spplication of the OALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE, with the MAGNETIC FLUID. This was in June, 1846. To my cheart asronismment, in 1900 DAYS MY BYSPEPSIA HAO GONE; IN EIGHT DAYS I WAS ENABLED TO RESCENCE MY ASCENCE ON ACCOUNT OF THE BROSCHITES, AND MY RESCHALL LABORS, NOR MAYE I SINCE OSINTER A SINGLE SERVICE ON ACCOUNT OF THE BROSCHITES, AND MY RESEAURATIC AFFECTION MAS EN ACE. My reply is as follows : ENABLED TO RESUME MY PASTORAL LABORS, NOR HAVE I SINCE OSSITTED A SINGLE SKEVICE ON ACCOUNT OF THE BENCHMITS; AND MY RIGUMENT AFFECTION HAS ENTIFIELY CRASSED TO TRICIBLE ME. Such is the Wonderful and happy results of the experiment.

I have recommended the Bill on Hill of the many who have been likewise suffering from Neurolgic affections. They have tred them, with happy results, I believe, in every case.

I am, dear sir, very respectfully yours, ROBERT W. LANDIS.
