

Sumter Banner.

W.M. J. FRANCIS, Proprietor.

The

"God-and our Lative Land."

TERMS .... Two Dollars Per Annun In Advance. in a balan

STATOSE OFT TO LEVICE

VOL. V.

. 12

SUMTERVILLE, S. C. APRIL 16, 1851.

Two Dollars in advance, Two Dollars

and Fifty-cents at the expiration of six months, or Three Dollars at the end of the

CPDIPIDE 33

No paper discontinued until all arreara-ges are paid, unless at the option of the Proprietor.

IT Advertisements inserted at 75 cts. per square, (12 lines or less,) for the first and half that sum for each subsequent insertion. OF The number of insertions to be marked on all Advertisements or they will be published until ordered to be discontinued, and charged accordingly.

TODe Dollar per square for a single insertion. Quarterly and Monthly Adveriscments will be charged the same as : single usertion, and semi-monthly the same as new ones.

All Obituary Notices exceeding six lines, and Communications recommending Candidates for public offices or trust-or puffing Exhibitions, will be charged as Advertisements.

UPRev. FREDERICK RUSH, is a travelling Agent for this paper, and is authorized to receive subscriptions and receipt for the anne.

Dilsosllany.

Labor-Saving washing Fluid.

'Quails,' the queer correspondent of the Boston Museum, who is dodging about the country, picking up and inventing all sorts of good things, relates the following laughable story.

a Vermonter in a stage coach: 'Well, gentlemen, I live in the of ----: 'taint no matter, where I live the story is just as good without white clothes, and all I could find of flourishing villages in the Statehave a wife and one child, and have to the tub, and pours her all in! rocking-chair a crying, and me for the last year boarded a young Lord! but 'twould have done you physician, who will probably one day good to heard it sis!

this part of my story: so, as I was for about a minute, I takes up an old going to say, about a year ago, my wife did'nt enjoy very good health, and it came very hard for her to do the washing, although our family of minutes, and then takes hold of e'a course, wasn't very large, inasmuch with my hands to string 'can out on the fence. s I at that time, didn't have the a store to talk the matter over, and I was as mad as a scratched hitten. says the merchant to me, says he - | but I finally thought I wouldn't walk I have got a dozen bottles of a patent broom-handle and let 'em di can and make your clothes just as clean as things never cooled to the last minute, new, by just stirring them up in and every time a drop of the pesky a tub with a stick, and letting 'em hang on a line to dry.'

the wood-shed, and pokes it up on a gentlemen that this customer wasn't high shelf among a lot of old beer bottles and blacking boxes, and went that time, for in less than forty whistling around the house just as if nothing had'nt happened.

'Saturday night I went to market just as usual; and Sunday we both went to church in the forenoon, and stayed at home and talked about our future prospects in the afternoon; but I kept a keeping still about the fluid, and I did nt let on but what I expected she would do the washing the next morning just the same as ever. But I did nt sleep much that night. I kept a thinking about stirring up that tub of ciothes, and getting 'em out to dry before daylight -Once I got into a short dese, and dreamed I was swimming across a deep river of washing fluid, and the this morning while you were asleep, rocks at the bottom and both sides. were all petrified shirt bosons and pillow cases, and there was an old washerwoman on the banks of the river, who kept a stirring on us woke up about five o'clock; for 'twas is one of her garments, by ginger! about half between daylight and dark, the tarnal thing burst in two! right and I could just see the leastest through the middle; one half holding streak of light in the world, among on to the stick, and t'other half the clouds around the tops of the falling back into the tub! Although green mountains. I turns over and I was suffering from my burnt hands, looks at my wife, and she was sleeping and was as mad as a Green Mountain carefully slides out o'bed, hurries on had done, I couldn't a kept from slavery agitation. Under this fallamy clothes, and in less than ten laughing that moment, if I'd a died cious, and at this bur, fatuous antic-State of Vermont, and in the village minutes had the old wash-tub filled for it. clear to the top with all of wife's being located: so, as I once before my own. I pours in about a pailful. doctor to dress my hands, and then stated, I live in the State of Vermont and a half of clean rain-water, and set down and had a good crying spell. -in one of the largest and most then goes out in the wood shed, takes The doctor inurried into the room.

down the bottle of fluid, walks back and after seeing wife a sitting in the or another be master of his profession, and is new, for aught I know; but he be urght a cless where he possible drags and a dift that's sartain! But that's neither here nor there, at water, and streaked it off to bed.

'Susan, hadn't you better get up

'Ho, hu-u-m,' says she, rubbing her o winking, as if she was half asleep.

'Yes John, I guess I had; but how

'Oh, sometime,' says I, blowing my hands and digging my legs with my toe-nails all the time to keep from groaning! 'but get up now Susan, do, breakfast, and I've got to go out of

'If that's the case,' says she, 'I'll

'You may depend upon it, gen-and put your clothes to soak?'

long have you been awake?'

business."

certainly hurry.'

very slow in his movements about seconds I was there, and says I-'What's the matter, Susan? What's the matter?'

'Why. do look here,' says she, somebody has put all of my best clothes in this tub, and then put something on them, which has entirely ruined them." 'Ila ha, ha!' says I, 'well, Susan, suppose I might as well own up to the joke at once, for my hands ache so that I can't hold in any longer. It's nothing but washing fluid and it cleans the clothes without any rubbing, and it's well it does, for no pair of hands in this world could stand to do the rubbing. I got up and done up the whole washing, and hung part of 'em out on the fence to

'While I was saying this, wife she took a little stick, and in trying to up with a long pole. I reckon I lift out of the tub one of her-or that which he pretends to get from as sound as a dead salmon: so 1 catamount, at what the infernal fluid the end and termination of the anti-

> "Wife took a peep at the clothes on the fence-called up the young walking the room and groaning like a vision, and its spirit howed down un-

"Nothing particular, surs 1, only "Nothing particular, surs 1, only "ve burnt up all the clothes on the house and both of my hands with a bottle of thendering washing Huild. tha I've been experimenting with."

and says he-'Where's the bottle?'

"Out on the door step,' says I. "The doctor went and hocked But, entiemea. pleasure, nor honor of being a father; believe I dropped that ere pile o'duds the bottle, and then went out in the -but as I was saying, it came mighty | mighty sudden!-bilin' water wasn't a | woodshed and took a peep at the old hard for wife to do the washing, and circumstance to 'em. and afore / beer bottles and blacking boxes, and, it always made her sick for a day or could get my hands in a pail of fresh after sweating a little to himself, would have afforded full, complete, two afterwards; and as I was trying water! I thought my soul I should came back into the kitchen, and says and adequate securities for the future. A union of the South, under the guid .We'l you have immortalized yourself and no mistake, and you 'There aint no necessity for having up my wife with my bellering, but shall be known hereafter as the a washerwoman, now,' says he, 'for hang out the bilin' duds with the old Washing Fluid Experimenter.' What in the thunder are you labor-saving washing fluid, that'll dry on the fence; but the plagay laughing at?' says 1. 'Why,' says he, 'your bottle fluid spattered on my hands or face, it burnt worse than a half a bushel basket full of live coals. I soon got fired of that sport, however, and be- I've had on hand these six months." fore I had got out on the fence half of Gentleman, I'm a man that don't of Jefferson, Madison, Taylor of Carwhat was in the tub, I just washed off use profane language only in extreme oline, Tazewell, Randolph, and their thrashing.'

Virgina We lay before ourreaders the resolutions adopted in the House of Delegates of the state d Virginia, upon the subject of its relations with ans, terrified by the danger, had forthe federal Government, and the saken their country, or submitted to remaining states of the South. The resolutions tell the country a fact mournfully and disastously apparent, 'that diversity of opinin exists among the people of that echanonwealth in regard to the wisdo, justice and constitutionality of the measures of the late Congress of ne U. States, known as the 'componise measures.'

In this, and the furber fact that the elections of Virginiaare approaching. and that neither paty seems willing to introduce new capial into the party contest-are we toread the riddle of these unintelligible ind unmeaning resolutions.

Virginia 'sympathes with South Carolina,' and we suppose the remaining Southern States,' in the feelings excited by the unwarrantable interference of the nm-slaveholding states, with their on.mon institutions,' but will have to counsel, cooperation, nor communication with them on the subject of a remedy. 'She cherishes the hope,' which all men beside have abandoned, that these measures of thepromise will be ipation, the old common wealth -no, not the old commonwealth, but about one hundred of herboliticians-send

The House of Desgates is unfit to act. Its energies no palsied by di-un abij memened and Solor of the Southern States, and become socks to reduce their spirit to the low level of submission to acknowl-The doctor looked at my hat is, edged injustice, and of seeking security in the delusive dreams that they are now involved in no danger.

This view of her position will be aught with mischief--incurable mischief-to the Union and to the South. The Southern States would all have concurred in a result which the sum.'

assert an opinion, however invid ous it may be to many. If the Athenithe Persian King, there would have been no resistance by sea. The Spartans, descried by their allies, would have died with honor or yielded from necessity, and all Greece have been reduced to the Persian voke. The Athenians were thus the deliverers of of those States, which yet were faithful to themselves: and next to the gods, they were the true repellers of the invader. Even the Deldark distance of the park. phic oracles, dark and ominous as they were, did not shake their purpose, nor induce them to abandon Greece.' The Delphic oracles, in the darkened counsels of the Virginia resolutions, have come; we shall see with what effect upon the unterri-

----CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN MOROCCO. following account of a case of capital punishment :--- In my last I believe I punishment here was attended with A Moor of the village of Sharf had The Sultan heard the complaint, acand summoning the plaintiff into his resence, delivered the following de-

We grant you our perrision, to We grant you our perrission to the structure of Up er to succumb than resist: 'And here' ( if you would see it rightly. Under ) be effected, it would be foolish in mo says the father, 'I feel compelled to the blue cloudless azure of the heavens, studded with its glistening star eyes, the traveller westward sees its elegant proportions sail out into" exquisite relief above the long line of Knightbridge Barracks, like a delicate caprice of an evening frost, gracefully disclosing its chase beauties to its own chaste moon. Approach nearer and a hundred moons and the 'broken light of stars' smile Greece. They animated the ardor at you through the web of iron network, and a silver glitter, chequered by the arms of intervening trees, floats outward till it loses itself in the 10 We extract the following little story from Miss Bremer's "Northern Loves and Legends :

"Certainly you have observed how strangely, sometimes, the clouds, at morning and evening, group themfied and heroic people to whom they are addressed.--Mobile Tribune. up by it, and you have themelt up by it, and you have thought,

sometimos, 'if this should be represented in painting, people would say -A late letter from Tangier has the it is unnatural; it is not oue !' So, even, is human life. We often find nature, though not to every day nathe following singular circumstances. ture. For example, if any one should tell that, once, a first kiss was given shot with a pistol, in the market at by a young, modest lady, publicly, Tangies a fellow villager whom he and in a public square, to a young suspeced of intimacy with his wife. | man that she saw for the first time, Earth and Water to the Federal Monarch, and advis South Carolina started immediately for Meyuinez, dies, and young gentlemen and old whore the Sultan was then residing, gentlemen, would, with one voice. call out, 'it is not true; it is impossible.' Well, I entreat your attention to the was making headway. knowledged the justice of the demand following little story, for whose trath

A ELRET HIT:

lady with her was her governess .-

beauty, and for her goodness and looked upon with great admiration by

The poor student, the hero of our story, who was looking intently at that pure and angelic face, exclaimed,

as if by inspiration, "Well, I think I could have it." "What." cried his friends in a chorus, "are you crazy ?

Do you know ner? etc. "Not at all,"

he answered; "but I think she would

"What! in this place, before all our eyes?" "In this place, before your eves." "Freely?" "Freely." 'Well, if she will give you a kiss in that lenge was made and received in less

Our hero-my authority tells not whether he was handsome or plain-I ing that he was rather plain, but sin-time than we take to relate it.

kiss me, just now, if I asked her."- brother, with the same instrument of lonely youth, with a great love for sch death with which he was assassinated, dies, but without means of pursuing and on the same spot, and at the same them. He was poor and without hour of the day. 'But,' added the connections. Still he studied on liv-Sultan, 'why seekest thou also to be ing in great poverty, but keeping up connections. Still he studied on liva manslayer? Accept the price of a cheerful heart, and trying not to blood which is lawful unto true begrinly at him. His good to refuse your request"-and she kissed the young man publicly in the open square.

NO.25.

Next day, the young student was sont for by the governor. He wanted to see the young man who had dared to ask a kiss of his daughter in that way, and whom she had consented to kiss so. He received him with a severe and scrutinizing brow, but, sparkle in the tail arched transept, after an hour's conversation, was so pleased with him, that he offered him to dine at his table during the course of his studies in Upsala.

Our young friend now pursued his studies in a manner which soon made him regarded as the most promising scholar at the University. Three years were not passed after the day of the first kiss, when the young man was allowed to give a second to the lovely daughter of the governor, as his betrothed bride.

He became, later, one of the greatest scholars in Sweden, as much respected for his learning as for his character. His works will enduro for ever among the works of science, and from his happy union sprang a family well known in Sweden in the events, looking when related or des- present day, and whose wealth of forgave you an account of a Moorish ex- cribed in books, even, unnatural, and tune and high position in society are yet are perfectly true to reality, to regarded as small things, compared with its wealth and goodness of love:

> FROM CUBA .- The New Orleans Picayune mentions rumors of an outbreak in Cuba. One report had it that negroes on some of the plantations in the interior had risen upon their masters; another story was to the effect that a revolution against the authorities had been started and

The Delta gives an explanation It says that the runars had their . 9 known in New origio in a fait (eana, that a large number of the ots have been learly atte Vuelta Abajo, with a view of joining the revolutionary movements as soon as it breaks out. This movement has been hastened by the orders which have been issued for the arrest of the leading patriots in Havana, and oth-

'What do you charge for a bottle of it?' says I.

'Well, seein' it's you, (says he) you may have a bottle of it for seventy-five cents, though I calculate my hands and face in some cool rain cases, but if I didn't make the competers. to sell 'em generally, for a dollar a bottle.

'If sixty-two and a half cents will pained me so that I had to keep a blewing on 'em to keep from bellering, pay for a bottle, (says I,) I'll take so says 1 to my wife, says 1. it home and say no more about it.'

'Well, seein' it's you,' says he, take it along, but don't tell nobody what you paid for it, or it would ruin my business with the neighbors,' and then, says he-'After you have used it once or twice, and find that it starts the dirt as I tell you 'twill, 1'd like for you to give me a recommendation to put in the newspapers, and I will make it all right at the end of the quarter.'

'Certainly,' says I, 'if the fluid comes up to the scratch, I'll do the handsome thing by you."

'Well, gentlemen, this was on a Saturday afternoon, about four o'clock, and I took my big black bottle of fluid, put it in my overcoat pocket and started for home. Now. thinks I to myself, wife always table fix about that time! I wanted picks up her clothes Sunday night to groan like a dying horse and have and does up the washing Monday something cooling wrapped around morning, after breakfast; and so my fingers; and then again, I didn't 'twould be a good joke for me not to want to make no noise, till wife had lot her know anything about this seen how nice I had fixed things. clothes in a tub pour on the fluid, stir to fill up the tub, and in a few minutes 'em up with a stick, and then hang I overheard her say to herself, says them up to dry. 'Lord!' says I to she - myself, right in the street, as loud as 'Good heavens and earth! What lets on and shuts off the water by acknowledged. Even united, the I am talking now, 'I'll do it, by does all this mean? I never put means of a cord attached to a valve. whole navy of Greece seemed insuffi-"clock!' So when I gets home I Get up and come here, do! inst takes the bottle of fluid out in - 'I am under a strong impression, very efficacious, atmosphere in that room blue for a everything of the kind, and we've One cannot but advert to the conalways washed our clothes in the old dition of Greece and of Athens at the fashioned way ever since; and if a time of the Persian invasion, when eyes with her thumb joint, and kind man ever offers me a bottle of that we consider the position of the South infernal stuff again he has got to be and of South Carolina. Our institua smarter man than 1 am or take a tions are the subject of incessant and

THE QUESTION BY COLD WATER .----The New York Tribune states that a claudestine correspondence which has cen going on among the inmates of dear, or you'll be late with your the Sing Sing Prison for come time past, was discovered last week .---

town this morning on important When first implicated those engaged in it strenuously denied any agency tlemen, I was in a mighty uncomforpunishment the Tribune says: operation is seated and his legs, arms symbols (earth and water) of their and head are firmly fastened with allegiance to the Persians, including wooden clasps, so that he cannot get the whole of Breotia, except only the away from the water nor use his hands Thespians and Plateans. The more blessed fluid, but get up Monday Well, wife she hurried and dressed to break its force. The water falls timorous States imagined themselves morning, while she is asleep, put the herself and went out in the kitchen about six feet and at the rate of about safe from the vengeance of the bara barrel a minute, through a piece of barians: the more resolute were over-ance of Virginia, in the adoption of a proud, high-toned and magnanimous policy, comprehending a full view of the past and the future, might--for even this is doubtful-have ensured the stability of the confederation.

of Her present proceedings denote selfwashing fluid stands out on the shelf descrition. They will be regarded in where you put it, 1 suppose; and you South Carolina and throughout the have used up a quart and a half of South a smarked by pusillanimity -the best quality of oil of vitriol, that an indifference to and forgetfulness of the high honor and noble principles

We have characterised this vote as But I couldn't sleep a wink; my hands few moments, then 'twas because I an act of submission-as the sending didn't know how. I went and of earth and water by Virginia to the smashed up the uncorked bottle of imperial department of this governfluid, and swore eternal ennity to ment as tokens of submission unwarrantable 'attacks through the Northern States. Virginia is not afraid to say that. They are attacked from abroad, and thus beleaguered, what is our condition? We are afraid to know or to speak to one another ?

The first preparation of the Persians, says the Historian, 'did not in the matter, but a resort to the usu- produce the effect which might have al punishment of the prison-the been anticipated in the Grecian shower bath-brought forth a full States. Far from uniting against the confession. Concerning this mode of common foe, they still chefished a frivolous and unreasoning jealousy of The person who is to undergo the each other. Several reachly sent the iron pierced with quarter inch holes. whelmed with dismay. The renown The officer inflicting the punishment of the Median arms was universally means of a cord attached to a valve. whole navy of Greece seemed insuffievers, and we will guarantee you its payment from our Sharfian lands good qualities made him beloved by and two hundred mitzakel shall be his young comrades. Once he was standing with some of them in the

To this the plaintiff replied: Can | great square of Upsala, prating away that sum puchase me a brother?"

'Go thy way,' said the Sultan: 'we have heard and understood, a letter will be given you by the vizier, in which our mandate shall be written.' walked slowly over the place. It was the daughter of the governor of Furnished with the sentence of death the man returned to Tangier, and presented it to the Governor. She was generally known for her On the same day of the week and at the same hour, the muderer was brought out of prison and seated on the very spot wher he had taken his fellow villager's life, while crowds of the students. As the young men people attended to witness his death, now stood silently gazing at her as The pistol was now given to the she passed on like a graceful vision, brother of the murdered man, who one of them exclaimed : 'Well, it would be worth something to have a loaded it, went up to the criminal walked slowly round him, and said, kiss from such a pretty mouth!" 'In the presence of God and man, I call upon you to answer me truly: Didst thou slav my brother?' To this the criminal replied, 'I did.' One of the multitude now stepping forward, addressed the brother of the murdered man: 'Accept the price of blood;' said he, 'and I promise you one hundred ducats in addition, which those will gladly give ' 'Worthless words,' said the villager; and again he walked round his victim. Again he asked him the same question, and again the same reply was given. A second offer was now made of two hundred ducats; and again the villager walking around the crimnal, repeated his question, ad. in the group, and bets ran high on so ding, 'Say what thou believest; I am about to take thy life.'

'That God is God, and Mahomed is the Prophet of God,' responded the crimnal.

have my peculiar reasons for believ-Scarcely were the words uttered, when the pistol was discharged. The gularly good looking at the same muzzle had been placed at the small time-our hero walked off to meet of the back, being the same spot where he had shot the man for whom the young lady. He bowed to her he was now about to die; but the aud said, My lady (min froleen,) my wretched crimnal, although mortally fortune is in your hand." She looked at him in astonishment, but arrestwounded, did not expire for some hours.

THE CRYSTAL PALACE BY MOON- tions, and related simply and truly LIGHT.-The clear nights and the what had just passed between him full bright moon, says Leigh Hunt's and his companions. The young la-Journal, have enabled us to see the dy listened attentively, and when he ginger, if I have to get up at two these things to soak! John! John! Since the lash was abolished, this cient to contend against such a foe; Crystal Palace in a new light-that had ceased to speak, she said, blushmode of punishment has been found and divided among themselves, sev- of moonlight, and certainly, like Mel- ing, but with great sweetness : If by eral of the States were disposed rath- rose, you must see it by moonlight so little a thing so much good could er parts of the Island. A humer and able number of them have retired to the mountains, carrying with them an entire company of Spanish soldiers which was stationed at San Cristobal, at the foot of the Cuzco mountains, an hour of leisure, when the attention and many deserters from the army. of the young men became arrested These mountains afford retreats inacby a very young and elegant lady, cessible to the Spanish authorities. As a proof of the secrecy with who, at the side of an elderly one, which the tyrants of Cuba make their arrests, says the Delta, we may state Upsala, residing in the city, and the the fact that the arrests referred to were made during the festivities on the occasion of the visit of several gentleness of character, and was distinguished members of our Congress to the Captain General; and yet were not known to those gentlemen before they left Havana.

.....

NOVEL INTERPRETATION .--- We heard the other day of an original and highly ingenious interpretation of a scriptural passage, which throws the acuteness of Clarke and Henry, quite into the shade. A school boy down east, who was noted among his playfellows for his frolics with the girls, was reading aloud in the Old Testament, when coming to the phrase, 'making the waste places glad,' he was asked by the pedagogue what it meant ?' The youngster paused-scratched his head- but could give noanswer, when up jumped a more precocious urchin and cried out+-'I know what it means, Master. It manner, I will give you a thousand dollars!" "And I?" "And I!" cried means hugging the girls; for Tom Ross is allers hugging 'em round the waist, and it makes 'em as glad as three or four others, for it so happened that several rich young men were can be.' improbable an event, and the chal-

IMPORTANCE OF A SINGLE VOTE-One single vote sent Oliver Cromwell to the Long Parliament, Charles Smart to the scaffold, and revolutionized England. Four votes, in the city of New York, made Thomas Jefferson President of the United States. One vote gave us the tariff of 1842, and one vote made the tariff of 1846. One vote gave us Texas, made war with Mexico, slew thousands of our people, and pur-chased California; turned thither the tide of emigration, and will change the destiny of the world.

BEAUTIFUL METAPHOR .--- The comparison of the journey of life to a transit across desort, is very felicitously expressed in the following lines from Charles Wesley ; "Here in the body pent, Absent from Meason I ream; s Yet nightly pitch my moveing tent

A day's march nearer home." A PARTY AND A PARTY AND 1. 10 38

ed her steps. He proceeded to state his name and condition, his aspira-