MISCELLANEOUS.

Haynau Defending Himself.

Gen. Haynau is in Paris, where he has met so many rebuffs that at a dinner party one day, when a French officer complimented his military skill, he made a speech in reply, saying in the course of it:

"I had intended to leave to history the task of doing me justice, but I am thankful to you, sir, for giving me this opportunity of contradicting an infamous calumny. It is quite true that a female was flogged. The Countess ——, on the abdication of the predecessor of my Emperor, in order to express her joy, had a figure representing him dressed up, and with her entire household went through the farce of interment, with the most outrageous insults to that illustrious personage.

"The captain chef d'escadron, who was in the place, hearing of the affair, arrested the countess, and ordered her to be flogged. This is true; but I declare, on the honor of a soldier, (sur mon honneur comme militare,) which I hold sacred, that when this occurred I was at a distance of sixty leagues from the place, and when I heard of it I expressed disapprobation of the conduct of that officer, and placed him under arrest."

"After some further explanations, Gen. Haynau observed that he had been spoken of as a severe and harsh man. He would admit, he said, that he had shown severity, but it was in the conscientious performance of his duty. He was at the head of brave troops, ardently devoted to their sovereign, and it became him to act with energy as the best means of bringing to a close a war in which they had so many difficulties to contend with. 'I regard a war,' he added, 'as the greatest scourge that can be inflicted on humanity, and consider that a severity which is likely to hasten the triumph of one of the contending parties, is the best sort of humanity that can be practiced.' He then alluded to the charge that had been brought against him of having, in cold blood, ordered at one time the execution of eighteen persons.

"These persons, he said, were condemned by the military tribunals, after a [illegible] had nothing [illegible]. He [illegible]

SPIRIT RAPPINGS.

[illegible] Milcham, a widow [illegible] Cincinnati, and the mother of [illegible] children, was taken to the insane [illegible]lum, last week, in consequence of [illegible] the spirit [illegible] communication with the other world, and thus put Mrs. M. in correspondence with her deceased husband, in heaven. She became intensely interested in the rappings, and held, as she was led to suppose, frequent interviews with her husband, until finally she became deranged. The Commercial says that among her other mental vagaries, she imagines the spirit of her husband occupies her body, that her own has departed to give place to his, and that if she could discover his mortal remains she would be enabled to endow them with life, by returning to him the soul which, though properly his, now animates her.

A GANG OF JUVENILE HOUSE-BREAKERS.—During the past summer, while the families of many of our citizens were out of town, a number of houses, which had been left closed up, were robbed. Among them, three dwellings were forcibly entered and ransacked in an outrageous manner.—These were the mansions of Mr. William Ryan, Logan Square, Rev. Lyman, Coleman, in Rittenhouse Square, and John Welsh, Jr., Esq., Spruce street. A boy was caught by Mr. Welsh's man, one evening, leaving the premises. This led to the taking of two other boys into custody.—From information obtained from these youngsters and others—one in the House of Refuge—it was ascertained that a very bad youth from New York had enticed them into crime, and shared with them a part of the proceeds. The youth referred to planned and executed the robbing of all three of the houses above mentioned, appropriating to himself the most valuable portion of the plunder obtained. He fled to New York, to which city he was pursued by officer Magargee, of the Marshal's police. The officer, however, was unable to ferret him out, and the New York police are yet on the look out for him. A few of the stolen articles were recovered by officer Magargee, and restored to the owners.—Phil. U. S. Gazette.

A MAN BURIED ALIVE.—An Irishman who died suddenly on the Rail Road, was buried at Wheeling on Tuesday. Those who attended the funeral, after lowering the coffin into the grave, returned to their homes, leaving a man to fill up the grave. It appears that after throwing in a few shovels full of earth he was alarmed by singular noise as if kicking and struggling in the coffin, so that he ran away. Coming up with Mr. Fitzimmons he told what he had heard, and both immediately returned, raised and opened the coffin, and found the man turned on his face and his person warm. The Gazette says that if the coffin had been opened when the commotion was first heard, the man might have been saved, and that he died solely from suffocation.

Wisdom is the olive branch that springeth from the heart, bloometh on the tongue, and beareth fruit in the actions.

EXPORTS OF THE COUNTRY.—The official statement relative to the commerce of the United States, laid before Congress, present an exhibit which demonstrates that the South furnishes a large proportion of the wealth of the country. The amount of cotton exported for the year ending June 30, 1851; was $112,315,317; tobacco $9,219,251; flour $10,524,331; corn $1,762,549.

The following table exhibits the amount of domestic produce exported from the several principal commercial States of the Union, from July 1, 1850, to June 30, 1851:

New York,	$68,104,542
Louisiana,	53,968,031
Alabama,	18,528,824
South Carolina,	15,316,578
Massachusetts,	9,857,537
Georgia,	9,158,879
Maryland,	5,416,798
Pennsylvania,	5,101,969
Florida,	3,937,901
Virginia,	3,087,444
Maine,	1,517,487

The total amount of domestic produce exported was $196,689,718.

The above extract from the statistical tables show that four States of the South—Louisiana, Alabama, South Carolina and Georgia—export $97,000,000, being about one-half of the whole export of the whole export of the country. The tables referred to also show that England in that period purchased of cotton, tobacco, and grain some $87,000,000.—Carolinian.

NEW USES OF IRON.—What is this so light and fanciful? The clothes-horse, surely, all iron, and so nicely wrought that you might lift it in your hand and balance it. And what is this, with its delicate wreaths of roses and beautiful figures bending in postures of grace. The fire screen? Why! is that all iron?—Every bit of it; and these fairy-like chairs, with their lithe forms, and sprightly patterns, these sofas with their scroll-work and vine leaves, these tables that seem airy enough for a sprite's parlor, are all of iron. We take up a beautiful ornamental casket from the mantel, the sprays, the curling tendrils, the buds, leaves, and roses are of iron; we lift a vase that has upon its surface the soft blending of a hundred tints, that is [illegible] Yonder is a magnificent [illegible]re—the frame so profusely gilded, so elaborate in detail, is iron; we inspect the tall mirrors, they are surrounded by a casting of iron; further up, in my lady's chamber, stand iron couches, an iron bedstead with ornaments disposed very elegantly about it; the toilet table is also of iron. Varied indeed are the uses of iron.—[Boston Olive Branch.

INTERESTING BAPTISM.—The venerable Dr. Lowell, of this city, recently baptised at his residence in Cambridge, (he being now in ill-health) a child whose parents and grand-parents he married, and whose mother and grand-mother he baptised, in their childhood. We doubt if many baptisms like this have taken place in America. They are probably more common in Europe, where, generally speaking, pastors remain settled for life, and the population, especially the peasantry, is less fluctuating than ours.—[Boston Commonwealth.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.—God has written upon the flowers that sweeten the air—upon the breeze that rocks the flowers upon the stem—upon the rain-drop that refreshes the sprig of moss that lifts its head in the desert—upon its deep chamber—upon every penciled shell that sleeps in the caverns of the deep, no less than upon the mighty sun which warms and cheers millions of creatures that live in its light, upon his works he has written—"None liveth for himself." And probably were we wise enough to understand these works, we should find that there is nothing—from the cold stone in the earth or the minutest creature that breathes—which may not in some way or other, minister to the happiness of some living creature. We admire and praise the flower that best answers the end for which it was created and the tree that bears fruit the most rich and abundant—the star that is the most useful in the heavens is the star that we admire the most.

WHAT IS A COQUETTE?—A young lady of more beauty than sense; more accomplishments than learning; more charms of person than grace of mind; more admirers than friends; more fools than wise men for attendants.—Longfellow.

You cannot repent too soon. There is no day like to-day. Yesterday is gone, to-morrow is God's not your own. And think how sad it will be to have your evidences to seek when your cause is to be tried; to have your oil to buy when you should have it to burn!

Celebrated German Bitters,
PREPARED BY
Dr. C. M. Jackson,
AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the ratification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

From the Boston Bee.

The editor said, Dec, 22nd

Dr. Koofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"Scott's Weekly," one of the best Literary papers published said, August 25—

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems.

MORE EVIDENCE.

The 'Philadelphia Saturday Gazette,' the best family newspaper published in the United States. The editor says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten as they have done their guilty race—but of a medicine [illegible] scientific and [illegible] of the faculty itself."

☞ Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing,) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the Stomach and Liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

This medicine has attained that high character which is necessary for all medicines to attain to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the marks of the genuine.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

D. J. WINN.

March 18, 1852 [illegible]

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1851, by F. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., in the clerk's Office of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Another Scientific Wonder!

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!

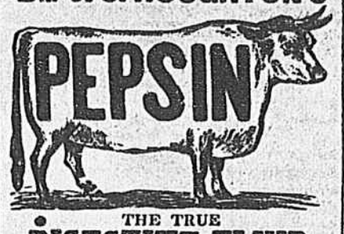
DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S



THE TRUE

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR, GASTRIC JUICE.

Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, Curing after Nature's own method, by Natures's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef, in about two hours, out of the Stomach.

Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a Complete and Perfect Substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree Curious and Remarkable.

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE!

Baron Liebig in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach.'

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding every thing else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely successfully."

Professor Dunglison, of the Jefferson College Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject. His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice obtained from the living human stomach, and from animals, are well known. "In cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

Dr. John W. Draper, Professor of Chemistry, in the Medical College of the University of New York, in his "Text Book of Chemistry," page 386, says,: "It has been a question whether artificial digestion could be performed—but it is now universally admitted that it may be."

Dr. Carpenter's standard work on Physiology, which is in the library of every physician, and is used as a Text Book in all the Colleges, is full of evidence similar to the above, respecting the remarkable Digestive power of Pepsin, and the fact that it may be readily separated from the stomach of the calf, or Ox, and used for experiments in Artificial Digestion, or as a remedy for diseases of the Stomach, and deficient secretion of Gastric Juice.

☞ Call on the Agent and get a descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of Scientific Evidence, similar to the above, together with Reports of Remarkable Cures, from all parts of the United States.

AS A DYSPEPSIA CURER,

Dr. Houghton's PEPSIN has produced the most marvellous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement; but authenticated certificates have been given of more than Two Hundred Remarkable Cures, in Philadelphia, New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to Bilious disorder, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, and the Evil effects of Quinine, Mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles Health with Intemperance.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS.

There is no form of Old Stomach Complaints which it does not seem to reach and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it gives instant relief! A single dose removes all the unpleasant symptoms; and it only needs to be repeated for a short time to make these good effects permanent. Purity of Blood and Vigor of Body follow at once. It is particular excellent in cases of Nausea, Vomiting, Cramps, Soreness of the pit of the Stomach, distress after eating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness, Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emaciation, Weakness, tendency to Insanity, Suicide, &c.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin, is sold by nearly all the dealers in fine drugs and Popular Medicines, throughout the United States. It is prepared in Powder and in Fluid form—and in Prescription vials for the use of Physicians.

Private Circulars for the use of Physicians, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his Agents, describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by Physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price, One Dollar per bottle.

☞ OBSERVE THIS!—Every bottle of the genuine PEPSIN bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole Proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copy-right and Trade Mark secured.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines.
