PROSPECTUS OF THE

Southern Agriculturist,

A JOURNAL OF RURAL AFFAIRS, MECHANICS, MANUFACTURE, POMOLOGY AND HORTICULTURE.

EDITED BY A. G. SUMMER.
WM. SUMMER, Horticulture and Pomological Editor.

The subscriber will publish at Laurensville, S. C., on the 20th January, 1853, the first number of a new Agricultural Journal, the Editorial management of which will be under the charge of

COL. A. G. SUMMER.

Who will be assisted in the Horticultural and Pomological Department by MR. WM. SUMMER, of Pomaria.

It will be printed on fine paper with new Brevier Type—large octavo double columns and will contain 32 pages. No advertisement will be admitted in the body of the work, but such will be published on a cover, if desired.

It will be the aim of this journal to supply useful original and selected matter, on all subjects connected with the Agriculture of the Slave-holding States—Rural, Taste and Improvement—The Mechanical and Manufacturing interests, &c. The Pomological and Horticultural departments will be devoted to the dissemination of correct information respecting those plants and fruits adapted to garden and orchard culture in the South. The development of valuable native fruits, which are scattered over the country, and information respecting foreign sorts which have been successfully cultivated in this climate, will interest Pomologists throughout the South; and a mass of information, tested, by experience, has already been prepared for its pages by the editor of this department.

The fine style in which the "Agriculturist" will be printed will be an inducement to all who are engaged in rural improvement, to contribute to its pages; and individuals throughout the Southern country are invited to lend their aid in every department.

Cuts of implements, machinery, farm buildings and fixtures, animals, fruits, &c., will regularly adorn its pages.

Dry Goods for Cash.

W. G. BANCROFT & CO.

253 KING STREET,

Charleston, S. C.

WE have in conformity with the spirit of the times adopted in our business the system of low Tariff and Cash Prices, and offer to the city and country retail and wholesale trade every variety of goods in our line—PRINTS, MUSLINS, SILKS, BOMBAZINES, SHAWLS, LINENS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DRESS GOODS—of all kinds—GLOVES, HOSIERY, &c. &c. We shall be constantly receiving the latest and most fashionable styles of goods, and it is our determination that our stock in point of Styles and Assortment shall be unsurpassed, and in cheapness of price unequalled by any in the city of Charleston. We have made this change in our system of business from our preference to the small but more certain return of the NIMBLE SIXPENCE, rather than that of the slow shilling, and in the belief that the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages it offers to purchasers. Our business will be conducted so as to ensure their entire confidence, and we appeal directly to their judgment. Through our connections in the various markets of Europe and of this country we possess the ability and the will to offer extraordinary inducements to the Consumer, the Planter, and the Merchant.

Further Notice.

To all whom it may Concern:

AS no one may be deceived or have cause of complaint. The subscriber gives notice that he will invariably and without any manner of distinction, during the term of his Sheriffalty strictly adhere to the following Rules:

That any and every description of property levied on, must accompany the Deputy to Sumterville, or a good bond for its delivery on the next sale day.

That every levy so made, will be disposed of on the second sale day after levy, unless settled.

That all the Executions in the Office must be settled in some way, or stayed before Court, as he does not intend to be ruled and gulled by false promises. Those unsubstantial and unsatisfactory promises will not save the Sheriff and securities from ruin, truth is truth and he intends to do what he says.

Executive Department,

COLUMBIA, 19th January, 1853.

The Managers of Elections in each Congressional District throughout the State, are hereby required to open the Polls at their respective places of Elections, and to hold an election for Representatives in the Congress of the United States, on the Fourth Monday in February next, in conformity with the writ hereunto appended. In obedience to a resolution passed at the last sitting of the Legislature, a writ of Election will be sent to each place of Election, in each Congressional District throughout the State, and in the event of those writs not reaching their destination, it is deemed advisable, by the Executive, to issue this general notice, to remedy such contingencies as may occur.

JOHN L. MANNING.

The State of South Carolina.

To all and singular the Managers of the General Elections, for each Congressional District throughout the State:

In pursuance of An Act of the General Assembly of this State, passed on the 16th December, A. D. 1852, you are hereby required, after giving legal notice (and being duly qualified) to proceed to hold an election for a Representative in the Congress of the United States, for each Congressional District, on the 4th Monday in February next, and the day following, at the same places and to be conducted by the same managers, of and in the same manner as the election of members of the State Legislature; and after having determined on the persons duly elected, you do certify the same according to law, under your hand and seal to the Governor, at Columbia, by the first Monday in April next, on which day the votes will be counted, and thereafter the elections declared.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the State, in Columbia, this 20th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and in the 77th, year of the sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America.

By the Governor,

JOHN L. MANNING.

BENJAMIN PERRY, Sec'ry of State.

January 25th, 1853 13—1d

The State of South CAROLINA.

To the Managers of Election for the Election District of Clarendon:

GREETING.

WHEREAS, the seat in the Senate of the State, for the Election District [illegible] become vacant by the [illegible] from Jas. L. Manning, to the office of Governor of the State, and the acceptance of the same. And whereas, by the Constitution of South Carolina, it is provided that a writ of election shall be issued by the President of the Senate, for the purpose of filling the vacancy thus occasioned, for the remainder of term for which the member so vacating his seat by accepting the office of Governor, was elected to serve.

Now, therefore, you, and each of you, are hereby required, after due advertisement, and with strict regard to all the provisions the constitution and laws of the said State, touching your duty in such case, to hold an election for a member of the Senate for the Election District aforesaid, to serve for the remainder of the term which the said John L. Manning was elected to serve; the polls to be opened at the various places of election within the said Election District of Clarendon, on the fourth Monday of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, by the various sets of managers for those places respectively; the managers for all the places of election aforesaid to meet at Samuel Harvin's on the Wednesday following, count the votes and declare the election.

This writ, together with your returns of the election to be held under it, you have before the Senate at the next meeting thereof.

WITNESS, the Honorable R. F. W. Allston, President of the Senate, at Columbia, this sixteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and in the seventy-seventh year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America.
