Dry Goods for Cash.
W. G. BANCROFT & CO. 253 KING STREET, Charleston, S. C.
We have in conformity with the spirit of the times adopted in our business the system of low Parish and Cash Prices, and offer to the city and country retail and wholesale trade every variety of goods in our line—PRINTS, MUSLINS, SILKS, ROMBAZINES, SHAWLS, LINENS, CLOTHS, CASIMERES, DRESS GOODS—of all kinds—GLOVES, HOSIERY, &c. &c. We shall be constantly receiving the latest and most fashionable styles of goods, and it is our determination that our stock in point of Styles and Assortment shall be unsurpassed, and in cheapness of price unequalled by any in the city of Charleston. We have made this change in our system of business from our preference to the small but very certain return of the NIMBLE SIXPENCE, rather than that of the slow shilling, and in the belief that the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages it offers to purchasers. Our business will be conducted so as to ensure their entire confidence, and we appeal directly to their judgment. Through our connections in the various markets of Europe and of this country we possess the ability and the will to offer extraordinary inducements to the Consumer, the Planter, and the Merchant.
February 8th, 1853 15-16

We are authorized to announce Col. JACOB F. BELSER as a candidate to represent us in our next State Legislature.

Executive Department,
The State of South Carolina.
To the Managers of Election for the District of Clarendon:
GREETING.
WHEREAS, the seat in the Senate of the said State, for the Election District aforesaid, has lately become vacant by the election of the Hon. John L. Manning to the office of Governor of the State, and his acceptance of the same. And whereas, by the Constitution of South Carolina, it is provided that a writ of election shall be issued by the President of the Senate, for the purpose of filling the vacancy thus occasioned, for the remainder of term for which the member so vacating his seat by accepting the office of Governor, was elected to serve.
Now, therefore, you, and each of you, are hereby required, after due advertisement, and with strict regard to all the provisions the constitution and laws of the said State, touching your duty in such case, to hold an election for a member of the Senate for the Election District aforesaid, to serve for the remainder of the term which the said John L. Manning was elected to serve; the polls to be opened at the various places of election within the said Election District of Clarendon, on the fourth Monday of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, by the various sets of managers for those places respectively; the managers for all the places of election aforesaid to meet at the residence of the said John L. Manning, at Sumterville, on the Wednesday following, to count the votes and declare the election.
This writ, together with your returns of the election to be held under it, you are to deliver to the Senate at the next meeting thereof.
WITNESS, the Honorable R. F. W. Allston, President of the Senate, at Columbia, this sixteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and in the seventy-seventh year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America.
R. F. W. ALLSTON, President of Senate.
