ing Principle of the Gastrie Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, at a Stimulating Agent of the Stomatch and Intes-tines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial Digesach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial Diges-tive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a Complete and Perfect Substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils or Indigestion and Dyspepsia are remove; just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE!

Baron Liebig in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An artificial Digestive Fluad, malogous to the Gastrie, Juice, may be readily prepared from the nuccous membrane of the stendard of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the Luman stomach."

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastrie Juice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding every thing else to fail, had recourse to the Gastrie Juice, obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely successfully."

Professor Dunglivon, of the Jefferson College Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Phys-

Professor Dunglivon, of the Jefferson College Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physicology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject. The experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastrie Juice obtained from the living human stomach, and from animals, are well known. "In cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

Dr. John W. Draper, Professor of Chemistry, in the Medical College of the University of New York, in his "Text Book of Chemistry," page 3-6, says,; "It has been a question whether artificial digestion could be performed—but it is now universally admitted that it may be."

It is particular excellent in cases of Nausea, Vomiting, Cramps Soreness of the pit of the Stomach, distress aftereating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness' Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emaciation' Weakness, tendency to Insanity, Suicide, &co. Dr. Houghton's Pepsin, is soid by nearly all the dealers in fine drugs and Popular Medicines, throughout the United States. It is prepared in Powder and in Fluid form—and in Prescription, vials for the use of Physicians.

Private Circulars for the use of Physicians, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his Agents, describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not as crevered, no objection can be reised against fluids by Physicians in respectable standing and recular practice. Price, One Dollar per bottle and Dealers in the second.
