JANNEY'S HOTEL.

Columbia, S. C. Mr. JANNEY, in connection with Mr D. W. HARRIS and Dr. T. J. GOODWYN, having purchased that fine and commodious establishment heretofore known as the CONGAREE HOUSE, it will hereafter be designated as

HOUSE, it will hereafter be designated as "JANNEY'S HOTEL."
In announcing this to the public, the proprietors feel that it is not necessary to present in detail the inducement and advantages which the Hotel presents. Its location, its commodiousness, and the improvements contemplated by the present managers, will, they feel satisfied, afford to the travelling community and others, a Hotel in Columbia which will in every way rank among the best in the country.—Every comfort, convenience, and appendage, to the first class hotels in the United States, will be found at JANNEY'S HOTEL, and no effort on the part of the proprietors will be wanting to render it worthy of the capitol of the State.

MR. JANNEY and MR. HARRIS, so well known by the vititors; at the American Hotel, will always be found at their 1 osts, and if unremitting attention to the duties they have assumed, be any guarantee of satisfaction, they have no hesitation in promising it to their guests. We have also secured the servises of Mr. R. E. L. EWART, as book-keeper.
