Yet I am not cast down. I am weak, yet strong .-I murmur not that I no longer see .-Poor old and helpless, I the more belong, Father Supreme! to thee! O merciful One!

When men are farthest, then thou art near; When iro ads pass by-my weakness shun-Thy chariot I hear. Thy glorious face

Is leaning towards me-and its holy light Shines in upon my lonely dwelling place, And there is no more night. On my bended knee

I recognize Thy purpose clearly shown-My vision Thou has dimmed that I may see Thyself, Thyself alone. I have naught to fear : This darkness is the shadow of Thy wing,-

Can come no evil thing. Oh! I seem to stand Trembling where foot of mortal ne'er hath

Beneath it I am almost sacred-here

been, Wrapped in the radiance of thy sinless

Which eve bath never seen. Visions come and go--

Shapes of resplendant beauty round me throng-From angel lips I seem to hear the flow Or soft and holy song.

It is nothing now, When heaven is opening on my sightless

When airs from Paradise refresh my brow. The earth in darkness lies.

Break over me unsought.

In a pure clime My being fills with rapture,-waves of thought Roll in upon my spirit-strains sublime

Give me now my lyre! I teel the stirrings of a gift divine, Within my bosom glows unearthly fire Lit by no skill of mine.

Experience with Wheat and Corn.

Messes. Editors: The following is my experience in cultivating wheat and · corn :

Wheat .- When you take your wheat out of soak, put it in a box or some other place, se that it can't lose; then throw in as much ashes as will stick to the wheat. If think it answers the same purpose as lime; it does not injure the hands like lime. In the spring of 18-52 I planted the land in corn and peas that had been in wheat the year previous, I manured the poorest spots in vihe hill with stable manure; the manure was made by putting leaves in the stables and lots. I drilled my corn and planted peas in the step at the second plewing. When I gathered my corn learned all my stock, hor ses, cattle and hogs, in the field to gather the peas. The wheat was sow. ed between the 20th of November and 10th of Desember. On the poor spots where I menured with stable manure, I sowed cetton seed at the time of sowing my wheat, plowed all in together with a twister, burying all, both peavines and trash.

Corn.—I broke up my land as soon as I could, with a bull-tongue plow .-When I planted my corn I put the and run in the same furrow with the twister; plowed one time with the bulltongue, then used the sweep; altogether made fine corn.

AN EXTRAORDINARY DISCOVERY .-The attention of men of science, in Paris, has been drawn to an extraordinary discovery made in a neighboring department. A grave digger in throwing up some certh, came upon a body in a State of perfect preservation .-On examination it proved to be that of an individual buried thirty seven years ago .- He had died from the effects of a bite of a mad dog. The shroud and coffin had fallen to dust, but the body remained intact. This is the third exhumation made within thirty Beneath this stone, in sweet repose, years, of bodies the victim of hydrophobia, under similar circumstances; and it would really seem that they were beyond the reach of decomposition. The registry of death was consulted, and no mention of the embalmment of the body was found.-Republic.

generality of such documents. There is, perhaps, a greater amount of insanity in that State than in any other in the in that State than in any other in the Union among an equal proportion of the population. This is attributable, in great extent, to the mental excitement and physical exceses incident to the unsettled condition and adventurous life to which all who emigrate to the land of gold are subject. We find that of the whole number admited from May 14, 1852, to December 31. 1853, two hundred and eighty four were admitted into the asylum at Stockton, tweenty-seven were caused by disappointment, nine by loss of property, eight by fear and grief, seven by mental excitement, forty-two by intemperance, and twenty-five by bad health. is in town for the purpose of purchasing goods, was sadly taken in a few nornings since. Walking through Hayne-street to East Bay, about breakfast time, and before the fuss and flurry of the day had commenced, he came up to a very bonest looking countryman, who was walking in the same direction. They had scarcely passed the compliments of the morning, before a boy met and passed them, and as he did so, stooped to pick up something. This arrested the attention of the man who had been casually met. He inquired of the boy about it, and the boy, with some reluctance, confessed it was a pocket book; the easual acquaintance claimed it; the boy demanded two hundred dollars, as a reward for finding it; the casual acquaintance declared it was too much; he offered one hundred; they agreed at last to split the difference, when the chance gentleman discovered he had nothing less than a five hundred dollar bill. Our country merchant was appealed to in this dilemma, who happening to have within a few dollars of the amount, handed it over upon the promise that it should be refunded at the Hotel, to which he and his chance acquaintance together started. The accidental gentleman had gone but a short distance in the direction of the Hotel, however, before it recurred to him that there was something wrong about that boy, and begged our country merchant to wait a moment till he could go and see, but unluckily, as he approached the boy, the boy started he was compelled, of course, to run after him, and that is the last our friend has seen of either of them.

The boy was overtaken perhaps, or perhaps he was not overtaken, -there is no knowing; but our friend is powerfully concious that to whatever result this race has lead them, it has carried beyond his reach his one hundred and forty-two dollars.

Horrible Butcherifs at Amov.-The I made this year fifteen bushels to imperial forces of China since their reone sown, without any other prepara- capture of Amoy, have been committing unsurpassed cruelties upon the insurgents. A letter from that city to the New-York Commerce, thus depicts the brutal scenes: "Many were put on board the Government war junks of which some sixty were manure in the hill and dropped the anchored in the stream, and after being corn on it and covered with a twister bound hand and foot, were thrown into by throwing two furrows on it and the sea, and there pierced with pikes as striking off with a board in S or 10 often as they rose to the surface of the days. I also run the sub-soil coulter water. Hundreds were taken to the jetaround the corn at the first working, and broke out the middles with the bull tongue plow. I then plowed three to strike three or more before the head times with the buzzard or sweep. My corn kept green to the ground, not-withstanding we had eight weeks drought, while others in the settle.

This was on upland. My bottom land I broke up as soon as I could, with great strips of flesh from the body and a bull-tongue, as deep as I could. I then let it alone until just before planting. I then took a one-horse twister this torture, it is said that no word of and broke it as deep as I could. I complaint, no look or expression of the also had a one horse sub-soil coulter agony they were suffering, escaped from the poor wretches, a trait of character which strikingly assimilates these Mongols with the American Indians.

Certificate from the Rev. Hartwell Spain.

SUMTERVILLE, S. C. Jan. 13th 1853.

Mr. Chas. Delorme.

Dear Sir: — Last Spring I used two small bottles of your Balsam of Life; and experienced much benefit. I took it two or three times daily, a teaspoonful at a dose in a wine glass of water. It acted on my liver, and imparted a healthy tone to all my digestive organs, relicing me of distressing headache, and many other disagreeable dyspeptic symtons. II. SPAIN.

Mr. CHAS. DELORME: DEAR SIR:—I take great pleasure in recommending your "Baume de Vie." which I have often used, and always with decided relief, when suffering from attacks of Dyspepsia. At once a stimulant, tonic and cathartic, I am satisfied it will prove eminently serviceable to all who are afflicted with Dyspepsia. Its general introduction throughout the country will be a public benefit.

To keep a supply constantly on hand, which I would not exchange for all the Anti-dyspep-tic nostrums from Maine to Texas. Yours respectfully, [Signed] JOHN W. ERVIN.

MARRIAGE. nappiness and Competence

WHY IS IT?

That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of the broken in health and spirits with a complication of assesses and alments, depriving them of the power for the coloryment of life at an age when physical health, buoyaney of spirits, and happy screnity of mind, arising from a con-dition of health, should be predominant. Many of the cattess of her sufferings at first—perhaps years before, perhaps during girlhood, or the first years of marriage—were in their origin so light as to pass nunoticed, and of course neglected.

IN AFTER YEARS,

When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our Who would we not often give to possess, in early life the knowledge we obtain in after years! And what days and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from cames simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better still,—not incurred, iferery WIFE AND MOTHER

corressed the information contained in a little volume, within the reach of all) which would spare to herself

And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind, necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that competence which his exertions are entitled, and the poisestion of which would secure the happmess of himself, wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands. In view of such consequences, no wife or mother is recussible if she neglect to avail herself of that know-edge in respect to herself, which would apare her much suffering, be the means of inspiners and prosperity to her bushand, and confer upon her children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies, with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled
