DR. MYDDLETON MICHEL will commence his private course on Anatomy and Physiology, on the first Monday in November, at his Anatomical Rooms, opposite the Medical College.

Dr. Mignet, offers the following advantages to Students attending the Medical session in Charleston. A complete course of Lectures is delivered during the season on Anatomy and Physiology, the Professor illustrating his course by preparation, drawings and models. Dissections are conducted on an improved plan, consisting in interrogating each member of the class, and making him demonstrate his own dissection. The Student may hereby multiply his opportunities for acquiring a knowledge of one of the most important and difficult departments taught in the College .-Saturdays are devoted to Micro-copical

Anatomy. Examinations are held regularly every n gla on each of the several branches, giving the class the benefit of a rehearsal, in a condensed form, of the subjects lectured on by the Professors of the Medical College, so as to recall whatever may have escaped attention, and to correct errors entertained by misapprehending the meaning of the

The diseases, for which I believe it to be a sovereign remedy—decidedly superior to any thing else ever tried by me."

A. A. Gaulding, D. G. M. of the Grand Lodge of Georgia.

"I have used 'Jacob's Cordial' in my tamily, and this, with all I hear about it as a remedy by those who have tried it, induces me to believe that it stands at the head of every preparation of the kind, and I would recommend its use in the diseases for which it is compounded.

MILES G. Donains, Cashier of the Bank of the State of Georgia.

"If there is any credibility in human testimony, 'Jacob's Goristid's must stain decided and above all-other preparations for the cure of Bowel Diseases. From the mass of testimony in its favor caming in from all quarters, it finus to very far in advance, as a curative agent, of most if not all other 'patent' preparations."
