The Proprietor has fitted up several comfortable bedrooms for that express purpose and having incurred the first heavy expenditure on this line of road for the comfort and accommodation of travellers, he hopes, by the continued and untiring zeal on the part of the Managers of the establishment, to secure a continuance of that liberal patronage bestowed on him for the last ten months. He could refer to hundreds from the North, South, East and West, as to the claims of his House, but prefers persons giving him a personal visit.

Dyspepsia Can Be Cured!
PAULDING COUNTY, DULLES, GA.,
August 26th, 1854.
MR. CHARLES DEFORME,
DEAR SIR: For several years past I have been severely afflicted with sick headaches, and after trying every thing I could think of, and receiving no benefit whatever, I at last gave myself up as a confirmed dyspeptic. But hearing of your preparation, "The Balsam of Life," I concluded to give that a trial also, and procured two bottles from your Agent Dr. T. A. Dargan, of Darlington, S. C., and from the time I began to take it, I have not had a single attack of headache, and now feel in hopes that even the two bottles have made a cure of me. But fearing that I may have a relapse, I have determined to continue it longer, and I enclose you $10.00 for which you will please send as many bottles as is customary for that amount. By your own Respectfully yours,
JOHN J. GREEN.
