THE HARLEE HOUSE.

Sumterville S. C. Nov. 1 1854. This House, situated immediately on the Wilmington & Manchester Rail Road and at very nearly a central point between Wilmington N. C. Charleston S. C. and Augusta Ga., is still open for the reception and accommodation of the travelling public, and affords the tired traveller an opportunity to lay over a night on the tiresome journey between the points above alluded to. The Proprietor has fitted up several comfortable bedrooms for that express purpose and having incurred the first heavy expenditure on this line of road for the comfort and accommodation of traveller, he hopes, by the continued and untiring zeal on the part of the Managers of the establishment, to secure a continuance of that liberal patronage bestowed on him for the last ten months. He could refer to hundreds from the North, South, East and West, as to the claims of his House, but prefers persons giving him a personal visit. W. S. MITCHELL, Proprietor. B. MITCHELL AND LADY, Managers. Nov. 8, 1854

Dyspepsia Can Be Cured!

PAULDING COUNTY, DALTON, GA., August 26th, 1854. Mr. CHARLES DELORME, Dear Sir: For several years past I have been severely afflicted with sick headache, and after trying every thing I could think of, and receiving no benefit whatever, I at last gave myself up as a confirmed dyspeptic. Not hearing of your preparation, "The Balsam of Life," I concluded to give it a trial also, and procured two bottles from your Agent Dr. T. A. Dargan, of Darlington, S. C., and from the time I began to take it, I have not had a single attack of headache, and now feel in hopes that even the two bottles have made a cure of me. But fearing that I may have a relapse, I have determined to continue it longer, and I enclose you $10.00 for which you will please send me as many bottles as is customary for that amount. By Rail Road. Respectfully yours, JOHN J. GREEN. P. S.--Please forward by express train Sept. 6, 1854
