THE PEOPLE WIN AGAIN

The United States senate last week confirmed the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to fill the vacancy on the supreme court bench, and thus ended a very bitter fight. President Wilson nominated this brilliant Boston lawyer without consulting with Wall street, and for more than three months a determined effort was made to prevent his confirmation by the senate, meanwhile the president stood firmly. Brandeis is not a corporation lawyer, and he refuses to become the tool of "big business." His confirmation brings new blood of the right kind into the supreme court of the land. He is the first Jew who ever sat on the supreme bench. Race prejudice had something to do with the fight against him, but the political prejudice had far more.

The man's ability has not been questioned. His legal talent is acknowledged, and he ranks as one of the foremost lawyers of the country. His confirmation is a victory for Wilson, but a greater one for the American people.

Savoyard, a splendid Washington writer, has the following to say of the investigation of the character of Brandeis:

"The most searching investigation has been had and the life of Louis D. Brandeis is now an open book that all may read, and any one of us who is not a fanatic or a jackass may sincerely congratulate him for an admirable character now firmly and indelibly established. Not many men, Jew or Gentile, could emerge from the ordeal as triumphant as has Louis D. Brandeis. Everything was scrutinized, great and small. The most uncharitable suspicions were advanced as charges, and all sorts of insinuations were made; but when an intelligent and unprejudiced mind passes on them Brandeis stands acquit of everything dishonorable or discreditable."

Hogs Run Mad

Patrick, June 4.—J. C. Wilks, living near Patrick, lost two fine hogs the early part of the week under peculiar circumstances. Sometime ago a small dog was found in the hog lot, fighting at the hogs, but as the dog showed no signs of being wrong in any way, nothing more was thought of it until a few days ago one of the hogs began having fits and fighting at everything in its way, biting and tearing off all the bushes in the lot. It died two days later. On Thursday another one was taken in the same way. It is supposed that the dog found in lot had hydrophobia and the hogs contracted it from being bitten by the dog.

Registration Books Open

Registration books will be open every first Monday at the Auditor's office until 30 days before the general election.

For Sale

77 1-2 Acres of Land, and Crop

I now offer my farm, crop, stock and farming tools for sale. I propose to sell what I have at a sacrifice, and if there is any one who wants a bargain, here is his chance. I am not able to farm, neither is my family.

This farm is 4 miles south-east of Pageland in the Evans mill section. There is a good 5-room house, good barn, good pasture, good well water, one cropper house, good young orchard, and a lot of saw timber. Nearly enough timber to pay for the place. Improvements on the place are worth half what I ask for the land. Adjoining land without improvements can't be bought for less than $30 to $40 an acre.

This is fine land, and a fine neighborhood. I am making this sacrifice because of my health.

Good school and churches nearby.

I have a 2-horse farm started nicely. I am crawling on my knees and doing my best to keep it worked. My crop is doing nicely. Come and see the land and the crop.

Don't miss this opportunity if you want a splendid farm at a very low figure. Price of all $4,050.

Now let the man with some cash come and get a bargain.
