LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE

Examination of Books in the Secretary of States' Office Concluded.

Columbia, June 18.—For the past two weeks there has been in the secretary of state's office an examining committee, consisting of Senator Butler and Representatives Rainsford and Richard. This committee was authorized at the last session of the legislature to examine the books of this office, this being the first year that included it. Today the committee finished its work and in view of fact that there have been various reports out as to the finding made the following statement:

"The committee has carefully gone over the vouchers in the office and has nothing of a startling or sensational nature to report. No final report will be made until Mr. Gantt, who is now ill, can be seen and even then the committee will not make the report until the next session of the general assembly. This is required by law.

"So far as the general result of the examination is concerned we find that there has been no bookkeeping, and our expert, Mr. Hollis, of Gaffney, has gone over those in the office and carefully collected all of the vouchers, so that we now have a complete record of everything that has passed through the hands of the secretary of state.

"The books were checked up from January 23, 1903, when Mr. Gantt assumed the office, and although we went back no further, it is probable that those from 1896 to that date should also be gone over."

This statement of the committee was made to the newspaper men by request, and as yet no statement has been made to Mr. Gantt. He is now ill at his residence here and under the treatment of a physician for kidney trouble. When seen today he said as he had not yet seen any members of the committee and knew nothing of the matter officially, he, of course, could make no statement. The committee will probably notify him as soon as he is able to be out.

Many a man who imagines he could run the earth can't even manage a small garden successfully.

THE SLOCUM DISASTER.

The Bodies of 637 Victims Recovered Yesterday—575 Bodies Identified.

New York, June 20.—Seven bodies, three of them women and three girls and one boy, victims of the General Slocum disaster, were picked up in East river and Long Island sound shortly before 9 o'clock this morning.

This makes six hundred and thirty-seven bodies that have been recovered up to date.

Bodies are coming in here and at different points at every hour.

Five hundred and seventy-five of the bodies recovered have been identified, and nearly all of them have been buried.

Thirty funerals took place this morning.

The coroner's inquest, to determine who is responsible for the disaster and the loss of life, began this morning at the armory of the Second battery, in Bronx.

More than a hundred witnesses have been summoned.

New York, June 20.—The Federal grand jury now in session will in all probability begin an investigation into the cause of the burning of the steamer General Slocum, early next week.

It is learned that United States Assistant District Attorney Wise will attend the inquest, and if anything is brought out which shows that the disaster was caused by negligence or corruption on the part of the officials, by whom a certificate for the burned vessel was issued last month, an official investigation by the jury will follow.

A Big Yield.

Mr. D. L. Boozer, Sr., of Kinards, recently gathered eighty one and one-fourth bushels of wheat from three and a half bushels which he sowed. The wheat was of the Georgia Blue Stem variety and was sown on four acres. This was a very big yield.

On Second Thought.

"It's curious that women are never great poets or great musicians," said Mr. Meekton.

"What did you say?" asked his wife.
 "I was merely remarking that women are too sensible to squander their energies on poetry and music to the extent that some men do."

Never judge a man's knowledge of human nature by the opinion he has of himself.

RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR.

Appalling Russian Casualties At Battle of Telissu—Battle Near Kai Chou.

Tokio, June 20.—General Oku reports that after the battle of Telissu last week, the Japanese buried 1,516 Russians who were found dead on the field of battle. The burial of the dead, he says, has not yet been finished.

The natives, according to the report, state that the Russians buried, burned or carried off many other dead.

The Russian casualties were appalling.

Liao Yang, Manchuria, June 20.—Reports have been received here today of further fighting to the southward on a considerable scale.

The report says that a battle is raging near Kai Chou.

The first train of wounded men has passed through here going northward.

Kai Chou is about twenty miles south of Niu Chwang.

JUDGE SCORES JURY.

"It Is a Pity a Sickening Flirtation in Court Should Defeat Justice."

"Gentlemen of the jury, it is a pity that a sickening flirtation between jurors and the defendant in a criminal case has the power in this court to defeat the ends of justice."

This, says a St. Louis dispatch to the New York World, was a part of a severe lecture given by Judge Taylor to the jury which had just acquitted Maud Williams, a pretty brunette, of the charge of robbing Aldon Mather, a caller, of $204.

Judge Taylor said that he was "disgusted with such action by men sworn to give a fair and impartial verdict based upon the law and evidence." He dismissed the jurors and expressed the hope that none of them would ever again sit on a case in his court.

Assistant Circuit Attorney G. Orrick Bishop said: "Gentlemen of the jury, I thank you for your verdict in the name of all that is lawless and shameless. I thank you for the discriminating taste you have shown, for the high order of citizenship you have displayed in being influenced in your verdict by a pretty woman's winks and a glimpse at a bit of open work stocking. You are a credit to your class."

A Fine Opportunity for a Young Man.

The South Carolina College offers scholarships in the Normal Department to two young men from each county. Each scholarship is worth $40 dollars in money, besides remission of $40 tuition and $18 matriculation or "term" fee. The money is paid at the rate of $5 a month for eight months, to assist in meeting the necessary living expenses.

Examinations will be held Friday, July 8th, before the County Board of Education. Applicants should be at least 19 years of age, and preferably teachers. Write President Benjamin Sloan, South Carolina College, Columbia, S. C., for blank on which to apply before July 8.

A girl doesn't necessarily object to a young man's moustache because she sets her face against it.
