FATHER SHOOTS SON.

Yesterday-Wounds Not Fatal.

Julian Hendrix, a young man about eighteen years of age, was shot three times by his father, Quincey Hendrix, in Saluda county yesterday morning. Tendered his resignation as pastor of It is not thought that the wounds are of a very serious nature.

The shooting occurred about onefourth of a mile from the lower steel bridge over Saluda river. It was difficult to obtain the details of the unfortunate affair or its cause. It was stated by some Saluda people who were in Prosperity yesterday that they had heard that Julian had drawn a shot gun on Quincey Hendrix, the father, when Quincey Hendrix fired upon his son with a pistol. One bullet pentrated the fleshy portion of the arm above the elbow, another struck the wrist and a third passed through the clothing and struck the skin but did not penetrate the body.

It was also stated by people from Saluda county, that there was present at the time another son of Quincev Hendrix, aged about sixteen years who shot at his father, as the father Mr. C. M. West has sold his house What brought about the difficulty in the first instance could not be learn-

He then called attention to the use of parables, describing the difference between a fable and a parable. A parable and a fable similar in many ways, there is something in each to teach a moral lesson. A fable always transcends the course of nature, a parable never. There are only two fables in the Bible, Judges 9:8; 2 Kings 14:9. The Bible is full of parables and each is a literary gem. In fables only maxims of worldly wisdom are to be found, in parables, divine truth, always marked by simplicity, directness, and though teaching the profoundest philosophy, always with wondrous clearness, the simplest parable marked by skill, care and tremendous literary power.
