Knows the Newspaper Business.

One of the most interested visitors in the press galleries of the Capitol during the past week was Mr. Elbert H. Aull, editor of the Newberry Herald and Nows, Whole-souled, genial and full of the milk of human kindness, Mr. Aull is good company. He was here during two or three days of the time Senator LaFollette was speaking on the Aldrich currency bill was saving.

Mr. Aull is firmly convinced that Newberry should have a public building like those being creeted in some of the other progressive towns in the State for the transaction of its pos tal business. He says that Newberry's confinercial growth has reached such a point and its population is increasing so rapidly that new and better quarters for the postoffice will soon be necessary.-Washington cor. THE NEWS OF POMARIA.

New Steel Bridge-Need of Road Improvement-Permanent Road Work.

Pomaria, March 23.-Miss Annie Mae Bedenbaugh, of Kibler's Bridge, spent couple days very pleasantly in Pomaria last week.

Dr. G. A. Setzler returned on Thursday night from a week's visit to his daughter, Mrs. M. Hayne Folk, near Newberry.

Prof. Wideman Ligon, of the Presoyterian college at Clinton, came down and spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. R. C. Ligon.

Mr. V. L. Smith, book-keeper of the Pomaria oil mill returned yesterday from a business trip to Greenville.

Mr. J. H. Hopkins, of Simpsonville, isited friends in Pomaria Saturday and yesterday.

Mr. Willie Hatton, who is attending Newberry college, came down Friday to spend the week-end at home.

The chain gang, under the efficient direction of Messrs, Oxner and Miltogether and with a loving plan for ler, has put in position the new steel the salvation of mankind, said: "Go bridge over Cannon's creek, near ye into all the world and preach" to Bothlehem church. The approach to the bridge on both sides has also been put in excel oneldititonne. .t put in excellent condition, and with proper care from road overseers this crossing ought not to give any trouble

Unfortunately, it is too often the case that after the chain gang has put a bad piece of read in good condition, the local overseer will persistently neglect to keep it in repair, although this could be done with very little labor and in a few years rne road is in a worse condition than ever before.

The position of road overseer is a very important one, so far as the interests of the people are concerned and yet it is a thankless job. If the overseer does his duty and keeps his courage Christians still to pray, say, road in god condition, he probably wins the ill-will of some of those who have to work the road at a time when it does not suit them, if he fails to keep the road in good fix, he fails to keep the road in good fix, he is blamed by everyone who is inconvenienced by this neglect of his duty. Crosses of Honor,

The Drayton Rutherford Chapter, 152, U. D. C., Newberry, S. C., this, 25th day of February, 1908, begins the three months advertising required to precede the bestowal of crosses upon the decendants of veterans.

Rule 1. Sec. 2. The oldest living lineal decendant of veterans who have not received a cross may secure it, provided that notices for three consecutive months be published in the city and county newspapers calling upon veterans to send in certificates for crosses. If, at the expiration of three months no veterans have applied, the bestowal of crosses upon decendants and widows may begin.

The chapter urges the veterans to be prompt in sending in their certificates for two reasons. First of all, because it is the purpose of the chapter to honor every veteran with a cross and, second, to give to such decendants as described in the rule above, the opportunity to secure their
