

The Herald and News

E. H. AULL, EDITOR.

Entered at the Postoffice at Newberry, S. C., as 2nd class matter.

Tuesday, July 21, 1908.

Cleanliness is not only next to godliness, but it conduces to healthfulness. Better to apply a little bit of the preventive than to jeopardize the health and life of those near and dear to you. The streets need cleaning. The sidewalks need cleaning. The premises and allies need cleaning. In fact almost the entire city needs a cleaning and then needs to be kept clean.

If some curbing is not put along the sidewalks in many places the paved sidewalks will undermine from the washing rains. In many places this should have attention now.

What has become of the civic association? Get in behind the city council and the health authorities. Our streets and sidewalks are in a fearful condition as to neatness and cleanliness. Pretty paved sidewalks covered with dirt and clay are not as nice or comfortable as the old dirt sidewalks.

Senator B. R. Tillman was reelected as a member of the national democratic committee from this State at the national democratic convention at Denver last week.

Anderson has shipped her first car load of peaches to the northern markets. There is a section of country in the stone hills of No. 3 running along a ridge that rarely misses a peach crop and if some attention were given the industry the growing and shipping of peaches could be made profitable by the farmers of Newberry county.

Evidently the editor of the Pickens Sentinel-Journal is of the opinion that the people of Pickens are interested in his movements and business. He states with no uncertain emphasis why he is on a business trip to Ninety Six.

Mr. T. R. Waring, editor of the Charleston Post, was not nominated as the running mate of Mr. Bryan, but he is on the committee to notify Mr. Kern. Col. Thos. F. Brantley is on the committee to notify Mr. Bryan.

It will be remembered that some years ago a learned sanitarian in this town gave it as his professional opinion that, while cow-yards might be unpleasant, they were not unhealthy.

While this may be true of the cow and some satisfaction we would be pleased to have the professional opinion of the learned sanitarian on the subject of horse stables and horse lots.

When the convention failed to demand speeches from Senator Frank B. Gary and General Willie Jones, it missed the opportunities of its life.

"I am going to listen to the candidates when they come and vote for the best man." Thus spoke a very intelligent farmer yesterday. It may be the canvass is not doing much good and it is possible that a man may not be able to cover the whole ground in the time allotted. But the fact that the voters will be brought face to face with the candidates and that the opportunity is offered for the voters to see the men they vote for, is a concession.

That is the proper way to do. It is too often the case, however, that the voter considers the qualifications of the candidate as of the least importance and votes are cast for good men but many times men who are not fitted for the positions to which they aspire. In the campaign which begins in this county today the voters should examine the various candidates and when voting time comes cast their ballots for those who are best fitted for an intelligent and efficient discharge of the duties of the office to which they aspire.

THE NEWS OF POMARIA.

Barbecue Last Saturday—Another Next Saturday—Death of Infant.

Pomaria, July 20.—Mr. John S. Cromer and family, formerly of this county, but now of Anderson, spent last week very pleasantly with relatives and friends in this community. Miss Mary Setzler, of Whitnash, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Annie Hentz.

Mrs. R. H. Hipp, Miss Annie Hutton, Mrs. J. C. Hope and Mr. G. A. Hope went down to Tybee Saturday. Mr. John C. Aull and family, and Mr. G. B. Aull and family, will leave today for Stomp Spring where they expect to remain a week or ten days. Mrs. Kit Young and Mrs. Mattie Owens, of Clinton, visited Mrs. J. J. Hentz and Mrs. G. D. Young last week.

Miss Lottie Halfaere returned home yesterday after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. G. W. Setzler. Mr. Henry Chapman, of Selwood, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. W. Berley.

Miss Lucy Ligon went up to Newberry on Saturday to visit friends in the Smyrna section.

Mrs. Mackay and Mrs. Means, of Greenville, are expected in Pomaria today to remain a few days.

Miss Katie Counts paid a pleasant visit to Miss Ethel Seybt Saturday and yesterday.

There was a right large crowd at the barbecue at Bethel school house Saturday, but not very many of the candidates. There will be another barbecue at the same place next Saturday.

Master Albert Wilson was struck in the head Friday by a brick which fell from the scaffold at the Pomaria bank building. He was painfully, though not very seriously injured, the brick cutting a gash which necessitated several stitches.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Setzler were bereaved on last Monday by the death of their little son, George Chevis, aged just seven months. He was buried on Tuesday at Bethlehem church, the funeral exercises being conducted by the pastor, the Rev. J. J. Long. Little Marian Louise, the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Setzler, died just thirteen months, to the day, before that, at the age of seven months and a few days. The bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy of the whole community in their great sorrow.

News From Excelsior.

Excelsior, July 20.—The cotton in this section looks sorry since the rains. Corn looks all right if it gets rain from now on.

Preaching and Sunday school next Sunday afternoon at the usual time. Excelsior school reopened Monday morning with good attendance of pupils.

Miss Mary Stone has been spending a few days with Mr. D. B. Cook's family.

Our farmers are about through with their work. Miss Nannie Wheeler has been spending several days with relatives and friends in Columbia.

Our school building is now completed with the paint brush. We almost feel like saying Excelsior church now instead of Excelsior school house. The building is beautiful, large and roomy.

The annual picnic will be held at Mt. Pilgrim church next Friday, 24th. Public cordially invited.

Messrs. E. M. Cook and Arthur Lee Wheeler spent a few days in Columbia last week.

Mr. Willie Blanton and family, of Graniteville, are visiting her father's family, Mr. A. A. Nates.

Mrs. Setzler's friends in this section were sorry to learn of her death a few days ago. She had a fall, breaking her leg, which caused her death. Mrs. Setzler was about 93 years of age, was a good talker and had experienced many ups and downs in this life. Peace to her ashes.

There is talk of putting up a phone line from Mr. S. T. Kinards home in Bachman Chapel section out to Prosperity. The line will pass Mr. J. A. C. Kibler's home and out to Columbia road on to town. Phones can be put in homes along the line. This line will in all probability go up this summer or early fall. These lines are very convenient and we hope to see it go up.

We spent Sunday at Little Mountain. We notice the town has made improvements since our last visit there amongst which is the nice new bank building made of bricks. We attended the Sunday school in the afternoon which was large and Superintendent by Mr. A. N. Boland.

Mrs. Bessie Cannon, nee Haltiwanger, wife of Mr. J. P. Cannon, died at her home in Jolly Street section Friday morning after a few days illness with fever. Her remains were laid to rest Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Prosperity cemetery. Mrs. Cannon leaves a husband and three children besides a number of relatives and friends to mourn her death. The youngest child only four weeks old. Mrs. Cannon was about 35 years of age. Signa.

SERVING LUNCHEES IN NEW COURT HOUSE

"Veteran" Is Filled With Mortification—Lets Sentiment Run Away With Judgment.

Mr. Editor: Many read the following editorial in The Herald and News with surprise, regret and mortification:

"It seems to us that the new court house should not be used for serving lunches or for public gatherings. The old court house could be used for these political meetings. We have a nice building and should not have it abused."

The ladies of Newberry refused the use of the new court house! Is there anything too new, too nice, too costly, too beautiful to lay at the feet of our women? We say not. Our homes, our churches, are clean and nice, and, instead of soiling the court house, their presence there would have cleansed and purified it.

Let us look at these two pictures: We might have seen the citizens of the county assembled in this handsome new building, an orderly crowd of white men with the ladies in one room furnishing refreshments, in their laudable effort to raise money for a monument to the greatest general of the South. The aroma of their presence would have floated through the whole building and left on our hearts a memory to carry into the future as to how pleasant the building did look once.

Another picture. Before many days the court erier will announce that court is to be held, and those halls will be thronged with a motley crowd; many an unwashed son of Ham will be there—the walls, the floors, marked with tobacco juice, apple cores, pindar bulls, and will need a cleaning sure.

I prefer the first picture as the less desecration of the two.

I differ from my friend the editor of The Herald and News as to refusing the ladies the use of the court house. It was, to say the least of it, a bad mistake.

It may be some sentiment connected with the past that influences the Confederate soldier. But the effort of the ladies to raise a fund for a monument to General Lee meets their cordial approval, and that their request should have been pleasantly granted and not refused is the opinion of more than one. Veteran.

The above is from last issue of the Observer. We do not know who "Veteran" is. He could have had his say in The Herald and News if he had desired or asked for it.

We regret he is "mortified." We had nothing to do with refusing the ladies the use of the court house. In fact we understand they had secured it. We have no doubt done as much as "Veteran" in comparison with our ability to do, to assist the ladies of Newberry in all the laudable things in which they have been engaged. We are ready to continue in that work.

We do not think the court house should be used for serving lunches, or dinners. We said so. We are still of that opinion. We believe the ladies will agree with us. As to its being abused by the negroes and those who "chaw" tobacco is another matter but should not be permitted and if it is somebody is to blame.

Headache Helps. When I feel a headache coming on, says a writer in the April Designer. I look around for the cause. Usually I loosen my hair. It is not generally known that hair done up tightly and pinned close to the head will cause headache. Try letting the hair fall loose, or braid or pin it loosely in a different style. Sometimes it is my collar which is too tight, and when I take it off my headache disappears. Again it is caused by tight or uncomfortable shoes, or by high-heeled shoes, which may feel comfortable but which will cause the trouble.
