

VAUGHN HAS CONFESSED; WAS SENTENCED TO DIE

realize that now. I did not at the time realize just what I was doing. I do now. I did it under circumstances about which I would not care to go into details here. At the very point I thought myself the strongest, I found myself the weakest, I found that the devil had attacked me with a more subtle and powerful temptation in the very place I thought I could not be tempted. I can not now go into the details of the circumstances surrounding me when I fell, and I now assume full responsibility and ask God to save that girl.

"Now, as to the treatment of the children out there; of course, I whipped them, but I never did wish to be cruel. I did not abuse them, and had no desire to do so. But as hellish as this weight of sin has been, and despite the suffering of my body and soul, it has brought an entirely new viewpoint of life. I am not speaking of this for sympathy; I am simply stating it to make my position clear, and I want to say this, that if it took all of this to save, to bring me to where I stand, and in spite of all this prosecution, of all this shame and suffering, if it has taken all of this to redeem my soul and save me from hell, I am thankful for it today.

"I now have a better conception of God and of man. With that fact in view, realizing the cheapness of life, I can be of better service to God and to man. I feel that if you will give me another opportunity, after pleading guilty to this charge, and let me have another chance, I can be of more service to God than ever before. I feel that I can live a life of sublime service and consecration to God. As dark as it may seem, as disgusting as it may seem to you, as hellish as it appears, I feel that in the depths of my heart I can go forward in better service, and I make this plea to you.

"What is life? It is a very small thing. It is a very short time here and I do not regard it as much. So far as my suffering it would soon be over and I would be dead. Then it is a matter of eternity. But my present plea is that I have sinned, that I have suffered the tortures of the damned, that if I am given another opportunity, that the hold I now have on God, with the strength of the new faith I have in Him from out of this awful sin, I believe that I can go out into the dives of sin in this State and be of service to my State and my God in reclaiming the evil-doers, in saving the State great expense and in redeeming them of their crimes and sins.

"I believe truly that I can be of great service to my God and my fellow man. I love my life, it is true, but I simply feel that in view of this new-conception, life is a very small matter. Life is not eternal; it is a mere temporary existence. That which comes from God, to God must return. So far as death is concerned it is very small; it is the greater something which comes after."

In closing his confession Vaughn made a plea that he be allowed to live in order to prove to his wife that he could reform and be a good man.

Vaughn Taken to Columbia.

Greenville, Oct. 26.—Immediately on leaving the court house tonight officers in custody of T. U. Vaughn boarded an automobile going to Spartanburg, where they caught a train for Columbia, where the condemned man will be put in the penitentiary for safekeeping. This was done as a precautionary measure it was said at the sheriff's office tonight.

Arrives at Penitentiary.

Columbia, Oct. 26.—Sheriff Poole reached Columbia after midnight with T. U. Vaughn and landed him safely behind the walls of the State penitentiary. The trip from Greenville to Columbia was made without incident and Vaughn is now safe within the penitentiary.

Bleese Orders Removal.

Columbia, Oct. 26.—Governor Bleese tonight instructed the sheriff of Greenville county to bring T. U. Vaughn to the penitentiary as soon as sentence is pronounced on him. His telegram to Sheriff Poole reads as follows: "Bring Vaughn to penitentiary on first train after sentence has been passed on him. Allow no delay. See acts, 1912, page 702."

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at W. E. Peibam's.

Bridges Time and Space

IT WAS A QUESTION of life or death and the victim's life hung by a slender thread. A difficult operation was necessary. To be successful the operation must be performed at once. The services of a specialist were required, but he was in a distant city.

The specialist was reached over the Long Distance Bell Telephone, the case described and the operation arranged for.

The sufferer's life was saved through the ability of the Universal Bell Telephone Service to bridge time and space.

By the way, have you a Bell Telephone?
