

TILLMAN'S WARNING TO S. C. DEMOCRATS

SAYS THERE IS DANGER TO PRESERVATION OF PARTY.

He Hits Roosevelt—Says He Gave South Carolina Crum—Danger of Political Corruption.

Senator B. R. Tillman issued the following open letter to Democrats from his home in Trenton, S. C., yesterday:

As South Carolina's representative on the National Democratic committee, I feel it my duty to issue a warning to the people of the State. The Democratic party redeemed the State from radical and negro rule and it has been in full possession of all branches of the State government since 1876.

The new constitution adopted in 1895 insures white supremacy which every sensible man recognizes as necessary for a continuance of good government. For just so sure as the sun rises and sets every day the mixing of the negro in our politics again will bring demoralization and inaugurate an era of extravagance and waste and dishonesty in governmental affairs.

I am led to speak thus because the papers are more or less full of the sophistries and falsehoods of so-called Democrats who are trying to bamboozle and deceive the people into voting for Roosevelt of the Bull Moose party with the plea that their participation in the last Democratic primary does not bind them to support the Democratic presidential electors.

BLEASE PAROLES POPE HAVIRD.

Saluda Man Under 5-Year Sentence Gets Liberty.

Columbia, Oct. 26.—Pope B. Havird, of Saluda county, serving a five-year term for assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, was today paroled by the governor during good behavior and upon the further condition that "if he violates any of the criminal laws of this State and be convicted therefor thereafter that he shall be returned to the State penitentiary to serve the remainder of the sentence in the case for which this parole is granted."

Havird, a prominent white planter, of Saluda, was charged with having attempted to run down in the public road Miss Mitchell, a young school teacher, about twenty years of age. Havird, according to testimony at the trial, was driving a mule when he came upon Miss Mitchell and attempted to run her down, so frightening her that she had to remain away from school for several days. It was said that the trouble arose over Miss Mitchell having attempted to discipline a child of Havird's at school.

In passing sentence on Havird at the time of his conviction Judge Sease sentenced him to five years and told him he would suspend it at the end of two years. However, it has been decided that a judge can not suspend sentence and Judge Sease joined in asking the governor to extend clemency to Havird. Records in the governor's office show that a strong and numerous petition was filed in behalf of Havird by the people of Saluda. Havird has only one arm.

Offence Charged Against Havird.

Saluda, Oct. 26.—Pope B. Havird, paroled today by the governor, was convicted of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature at the March term, 1911, court of Saluda county, and sentenced by Judge Sease to five years on the county chain-gang. The particular charge for which Havird was convicted was an effort to drive his mule and buggy over Miss Carrie Mitchell, a young lady teacher. Havird being incensed because she had whipped one of his children. The trial excited considerable attention, and some parts of the testimony was sensational. Havird's attorney endeavored to get a change of venue to Edgefield county, contending an impartial trial could not be had in Saluda county. Upon the showing made Judge Sease promptly refused the motion. The action of the governor in granting a parole will probably meet with general approval in this county, as those who know Havird best believe the lesson he has learned will prove a valuable one for him.

THE HAIRS OF YOUR HEAD ARE NUMBERED

There is a great deal of truth in the old saying, "Roots die, vitality gives out. The hair begins to turn grey." This is particularly unfortunate as we are all living in an age when to LOOK young means to fill the YOUNG and IMPORTANT positions. Old fogies go to the background.
