

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Crooks have moved to Newberry from Columbia.

Mr. Robert Norris has returned from his business trip North.

Mrs. Lilla Kibler, of Monroe, N. C., is visiting Mrs. Lucy Young.

Mr. J. P. Cannon has changed from Columbia, S. C., to Washington, D. C.

Miss Corrie Lee Havird has returned from teaching the Barksdale school in Laurens county.

Mrs. E. T. Carlson has returned from Saluda, her mother being much improved.

Mrs. O. A. Jeffcoat, of Newberry, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. B. Crosby in Yorkville.—Yorkville Enquirer, 27th.

Mrs. D. K. Sturkey, of Columbia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Addy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. McCullough have returned from their bridal trip to Charleston.

Mrs. A. M. Chrietberg, of Columbia, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Robt. L. Tarrant.

Miss Josephine Dunbar arrived Thursday from Vaughanville, Hampton county.

Mrs. W. A. McDonald and little baby, of Hodges, are visiting her father, Mr. W. S. Melton, and family.

Miss Mary Lou Bowers, Lutheran deaconess, has returned from Baltimore.

Mrs. E. P. McClintock, of Newberry, S. C., is spending some weeks with friends in Due West.—A. R. Presbyterian, 29th.

Mr. Wm. E. Crooks, a student of the Medical college in Charleston, returned this week to Newberry and left on Thursday to visit in Union.

Mr. James Smith, of R. D. Smith & Son, is the latest addition to the Harley-Davidson brigade of motorcycle riders.

Mr. W. B. Valentine, superintendent of agencies in South Carolina for the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company, is in the city.

Messrs. W. S. Melton and B. I. Hodge are both making good as drivers of automobiles for hire by Magistrate J. C. Sample.

Probate Judge Schumpert has come out, but he is not strong enough to do much work. However he is gaining every day.

Miss Blanche Sonnenburg left Thursday for Baltimore to attend the University of Maryland commencement.

Mrs. E. D. Pearce, of Newberry, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chapman.—Anderson Intelligencer, 27th.

Mrs. J. W. Kibler, of Newberry, who has been visiting Mrs. H. E. Todd, returned home today.—Anderson Mail, 28th.

Mrs. Anna Pearsall has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Brown, in Newberry.—Saluda Standard, 29th.

Mrs. Queen Banks and daughter, Mrs. Tina Willis, have been in Newberry visiting relatives the past week.—Saluda Standard, 29th.

Miss Fannie Mae Carville, of Newberry, will arrive this afternoon to be the commencement guest of Miss Fleeta Steele.—Rock Hill Herald, 28th.

Dr. O. B. Mayer was at his office on Wednesday and in answer to the reporter's questions said that his daughter, Miss Harriett, was improving at the hospital.

Misses Mary Butler Fant, Myrtle Suber and Sue Porter are in the list of graduates at the commencement exercises of Columbia college, which will take place next Tuesday.

W. W. Devore, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Frank Devore, of Newberry, came up recently to visit their parents.—Ninety Six cor. Greenwood Journal, 28th.

Veteran Jno. W. Reagin wasn't well enough to leave for the reunion in general at Chattanooga. He expects to go to Gettysburg with a larger crowd than that going to Chattanooga.

Mr. C. R. D. Burns, while on a business trip to Columbia, stopped over in Newberry for a short visit to his relatives, the family of Dr. W. E. Lake.

Messrs. Hugh and Henry Long and Mr. Ham were here from Newberry last week seeing their relative, Mrs. G. W. Long.—Troy cor. Greenwood Index, 29th.

Miss Rosalyn Summer, of Newberry, will be at the Lutheran church next Sunday, June 1. She will speak to the young people at 8 o'clock in the afternoon. Be sure to hear her. The public is cordially invited. Services morning and afternoon.—Newberry, Waimala, Courier, 29th.

Miss Rosalyn Hipp returned to her home in Newberry, S. C., yesterday, after spending a week as the guest of Miss Laura Reiley at her home in Park avenue and a week with Miss Susie Wooley at Elizabeth college during commencement.—Charlotte Observer, 29th.

Our good friend and townsman, Rev. J. D. Bowles, who has been on the sick list for sometime does not improve much. His many friends hope for him a speedy return to health and strength and that he may be spared many years yet as a benediction to those around him.—Coronaca cor. Greenwood Journal, 28th.

Drs. C. D. Mills and H. B. Senn graduate in medicine at the Medical college in Charleston this year, commencement next Monday. In the order of merit, Dr. Mills is third and Dr. Senn eighth. This speaks well for the two young doctors from Newberry. It is noteworthy that two of the nine honor men entitled to hospital privileges should be from the same place, but not quite so strange that the place is Newberry.

Miss Mary Wright has been re-elected a teacher in the Ellore high school and the closing exercises for the past session having taken place she is enabled to return home. The Ellore correspondent of the News and Courier says: "The Ellore high school has closed one of the most successful years in its history, and the patrons are very much gratified at the good work done. Everything has run along smoothly, the teachers have labored faithfully and their untiring efforts have borne good fruit."

Mr. Frank Grenaker Wright, after a touring spell as a traveling salesman, has again taken up the work of an express agent, this time running between Atlanta and Washington. It is a big run, but Frank, although a young man not long having attained his majority, is an experienced hand at the business. It must be that, and it must also be that he has other qualifications of a high order to be able to get such a fine position whenever he wants them over older men who have been waiting years for the same places. Congratulations to Frank and also to the road and express company for having another reliable and competent agent.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Criminal court next Monday week.

Bear in mind the Sunday hours and mail regulations for Friday.

The barrel of flour as a prize from the old court house picture show was won by Mr. Thos. P. Johnson, holding the winning number.

The graded school commencement this week will whet the public's appetite for Newberry college commencement.

"Newspaper reporters," a man complains, "don't never git nuthin' right."—Wilmington, N. C., Morning Star. They do get lots of things wrong.

Henry Bluford, the wellknown barber, Jack Gilliam's right hand man, has recovered from his serious illness and is at the shop attending to business.

Mrs. Carrie Paysinger, who died in Saluda last week, was the stepmother of Mrs. M. K. Hutchason, of this city. She was the widow of the late Fred. S. Paysinger, of the county.

Recorder Earhardt had before him on Thursday morning for vagrancy two negroes, Charley Green and Tom Jackson, sentencing them each to $15 or 30 days.

Commencement begins at the graded schools, in high school auditorium, on Thursday at 8.30 p. m., tonight, with the joint meeting of the two high school literary societies. Admission 10 cents.

Mrs. Glymph, mother of W. N. Glymph, and G. C. Glymph, has been very critically ill for some time at her home in Newberry county. Mr. W. N. Glymph spent Sunday with her mother.—Union Progress, 27th.

The strawberry crop was very bad this year. And yet some people say that there is nothing in the old saying that '13 is an unlucky number.—

Greenville Piedmont. Lost interest in it down on this side of the patch.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Central Methodist church will meet on Monday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock at the church parlor. This is a very important meeting and all are urged to be present. Delegate will make report of the annual meeting.

Talking about your large onions from Florida, but Newberry won't let that pass. Mrs. W. T. Livingston has sent to this office two beautiful specimens of white onions weighing over two pounds each. They will be hard to beat.

In the American Magazine there is a running sketch on "The Friendly Road," by David Grayson, which is good. That is a beautiful and peaceful road which he calls "friendly." He couldn't write so well on the "Friendly" street in Newberry. Nothing here to inspire him or anyone else.

Funny. Called attention to ad. of M. Q. Chappell in Tuesday's Herald and News when said ad. was not in the paper. It was set up, laid aside and left out. But the omission was the means of having attention directed twice to the ad, which will serve a good purpose, as many more will read it now.

The West End sunbeam band celebrated on last Saturday at Willowbrook its first anniversary with a picnic which was attended by the large membership. Miss Mabel Woodward is president and Miss Julia Melton secretary and treasurer. They report a good time, plenty of everything to eat and lemonade. The president was happy over the success of the affair.

TO OBSERVE FLAG DAY.

Newberry Lodge, B. P. O. E., Will Observe Flag Day City Opera House June 13.

Newberry lodge, No. 1103, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will observe "Flag Day" in the city opera house on the evening of June 13th. The order of Elks is distinctively an American organization, and the members are required to pay proper tribute to the American flag. The "stars and stripes" was adopted by the congress of the United States as the national flag on the 14th day of June, 1777, and it is the 136th anniversary of that date that the Newberry Elks are preparing to celebrate. The exercises are to be had on the 13th because it happens that the 14th of June of this year falls on Saturday.

Quite an interesting and entertaining programme is being prepared for the flag day exercises. The committee in charge is composed of Messrs. J. Claude Dominick, Frank R. Hunter, J. C. Sample, Eugene S. Blease and Harry W. Dominick. The Elks wish all their friends to be present, and they especially desire the children of Newberry to attend. And the children should go, for they will learn much of the flag of their country.

THE LITERARY SOCIETIES

Of the High School Have Joint Debate High School Auditorium.

The Waverly and Athenaeon literary societies of the Newberry high school will have a joint meeting in the high school auditorium this (Thursday) evening at 8.30 o'clock. The interesting program will consist of music, essays, declamations, and a debate. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged, the proceeds of the entertainment to be used for the last payment on the piano. The amount still due is $27.00.

The public is cordially invited.

Death of a Young Girl.

Miss Ruby Starling, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Starling, died on Monday evening at 6.30 o'clock, at Knowlton's hospital, after an operation for appendicitis and was brought to Newberry on the 1.29 train on Tuesday afternoon for interment at Cleland's burial ground, service by the Rev. D. P. Boyd. The bereaved parents in the gloom of their home in the Smyrna neighborhood, have the sympathy of all. The ending of a bright young life under such circumstances is among the very saddest of all sad deaths and calls for the deepest sympathy to the afflicted family.

Two Ministers are at the Convention. Greenville Daily Piedmont, 22nd. Two ministers of the gospel are in attendance upon the annual State convention of Elks now in session in the city. One is Rev. Kirkman G. Finlay, of Columbia, the beloved chaplain. The other is Rev. N. A. Hemrick, of Newberry. Each was called upon for a speech last night and each responded most appropriately.

A YOUTHFUL THIEF

LODGED IN LOCK-UP

BOY OF ELEVEN YEARS COMMITS SEVERAL ROBBERIES.

Visited Residences in Day Time and Took Jewelry and Money—Goods Found on Him.

Whether he is a victim of dime novel reading or simply suffering from total moral depravity, or what not, Frank Killian, a very young white boy, is in the hands of the law as a result of his evil deeds.

The father of the youthful thief is dead. His mother, sisters and brothers, (with the exception of a little older brother who is at the reformatory) are Oakland mill people, and the boy Frank, had stolen away from his work in the mill when he got into trouble. His mother and family say the boy is only 11 years old. He looks to be at least 13, but that may be due to his hard life.

But to start at the beginning of the robberies of which the lad is guilty. On Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock, Policeman J. C. Lee received a phone message from young Killian's brother at Oakland asking if they had Frank in the lockup as he was missing from the mill, having slipped away, and they feared he was in trouble. Mr. Lee informed Killian that he didn't have Frank in charge but was looking for him, as he, Lee, had been told that Frank had been seen in a hack that afternoon going towards the mill, and that he had a rifle with him. The officer furthermore advised Killian that he had better bring Frank in to police headquarters.

In the meantime Deputy Sheriff Thos. A. Berly was on the track of the little thief, and was proceeding on his way to arrest him, when the family brought him to the station house and with him they also brought some of the stolen property. So he was caught with the goods, which established his guilt, and he could not deny the theft.

After the mother and several members of the family had delivered the boy and the goods to the officer at the station house, Chief of Police W. H. Jernigan and Deputy Sheriff Berly went to the home of the boy and recovered more of the articles.

At this time the property has all been recovered except one chain to a gold locket which Chief Jernigan says he is confident he will get.

Before this latest robbery by the boy he stole about two months ago a pistol from Mr. Frank Halfacre at the stables. He claims he sold the pistol for $2 to some man he does not know. The chief made the boy acknowledge this in discussing his recent robberies, which he committed last week and this week.

He entered the residence of Col. E. H. Aull and stole several small articles.

The most of the stealing was done at Mr. C. W. Fant's residence, the boy making three different excursions to the house, where he ransacked the place, getting hold of trunk keys and unlooming trunks, pilfering articles belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Fant and her sister, Miss Marietta Langford, the things consisting of about $300 in jewelry, $10 in money, a little loose change in small money bank and a pistol about all that was missing. The house was entered on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the boy watching his chances of getting in while no one was in the house.

Altogether the stolen articles would amount to $300 or more. There were some very fine and valuable pieces of jewelry in the lot, among them belonging to Miss Marietta Langford, a lovely platinum necklace set with diamonds and pearls worth $200, a locket and necklace worth $35, gold glasses worth $10, and a ten dollar bill. Among the articles belonging to Mrs. Fant was a locket with diamonds and chain worth $50. Mr. Fant's pistol was worth $27.

The city authorities turned the youthful criminal over to Magistrate J. C. Sample who committed him to jail in default of $200 bail.

Chief Jernigan first caught on to the misdeeds of this boy when he learned that on Tuesday the boy had held up the negro keeper of Rosemont cemetery with Mr. Fant's pistol, or had attempted to hold him up, but didn't do much at it. The chief sent Policeman H. O. Stone to investigate this part of the proceedings, and after he saw the boy the chief was told by Mr. Fant that his house had been robbed. This leads up to where Policeman Lee got the phone message. These officers work quickly and promptly in their various capacities. It doesn't take them as long to do things as it does the Atlanta police force.

BACK INTO THE PAST.

Governor Blease Runs Across Jury Tickets Preserved For Some Thirty Years.

Special to The Herald and News.

Columbia, May 29.—While looking through an old book belonging to his father, Governor Cole. L. Blease ran across six slips of paper on which were written the names of six Newberrians of two decades and more ago, the six slips evidently forming the jury list in a case in the court of Magistrate Henry H. Blease, the governor's father. The handwriting was that of Mr. P. F. Baxter, who was at one time constable for Magistrate Blease.

As is generally known, in magistrate's courts, in selecting a jury, the names of eighteen men are selected, and six of these drawn compose the jury. Evidently these six had been drawn from the eighteen.

Of the six men, five have passed into another world, only one surviving. Each ticket bears the number, and by a strange coincidence the number of the survivor was 13. The gentleman whose number was 13 is Mr. Campbell L. Havird, probably the only merchant in Newberry today who was in the mercantile business at that time.

The six tickets were as follows:

B. H. Lovelace, 8.
J. O. Peoples, 1.
J. P. Fant, 3.
J. F. Glenn, 16.
C. L. Havird, 13.
Columbus McWhirter, 9.

Some idea of how long ago it was that this jury was empaneled may be gleaned from the fact that this writer, who has lived in Newberry all his life, recalls in the flesh only two of those who have passed away, though the names of all of them are familiar to him as the names of men identified with the city. Governor Blease forwarded the slips to Mr. P. F. Baxter, knowing that they would be valued by him as souvenirs of a past of which happy memories linger, though tinged with the sadness, which time can not efface, of the passing of the comrades and friends of yesterday.

Such things as this carry those who were connected with them back into other days, and it is always profitable, in the right kind of spirit, to go back to by-gone days. This incident will carry the editor of The Herald and News back to the days of his young manhood, for he at one time was Magistrate Blease's assistant in the magistrate's office, and there began a friendship which has descended.

Had it not been for the fire of the spring of 1907, which destroyed the papers of the late lamented Magistrate Blease, it would be possible to trace this jury to the case which it was selected to try.

Possibly the survivor of the six gentlemen who composed the jury may recall the case, though it is hardly probable after the lapse of some thirty years, unless it was a case which especially imprinted itself upon his memory.

Death of Mr. G. M. Shealy.

Mr. George M. Shealy, more generally known as "Guinea" Shealy, died at his home in the eastern suburbs of the city, near Mollohon, on Tuesday morning at 9.30 o'clock, after a stroke of apoplexy on Saturday, and was buried on Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock at Mt. Tabor Lutheran church, near Little Mountain, service by the Revs. Edw. Fulenwider and E. W. Leslie.

Mr. Shealy was 69 years old, a Confederate Veteran and useful citizen. He was a farmer but most of his time was given to the saw mill industry. Mr. Shealy's wife was a Shealy before marriage. She survives him with four daughters and three sons. The sons are: Messrs. J. Wesley Shealy and Thos. A. Shealy, of near Little Mountain, and C. D. Shealy, of Pomaria. The daughters are: Mrs. Joseph Boland, of Pomaria; Mrs. James Dowd, of near Slighs, and Mrs. S. L. Shealy, of Newberry. The deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shealy, of near Little Mountain, are still living, the father 94 and the mother 92 years old. The deceased has also three surviving brothers near Little Mountain, Messrs. L. D. J. A. and T. L. Shealy, 29 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and other relatives.

Another useful citizen, from strong and prominent family connections, after a successful life in war and peace has gone to his reward and another Veteran has joined the great camp on the other shore.

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Fulenwider, pastor.) Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

11 a. m. The regular morning service. The pastor will preach the fifth in the series of special sermons. The subject of the sermon will be, "Does God Care?" Text 1 Pet. 5:7, "Casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you." The section of Scripture to be studied is Matt. 6:25-24. Is God interested in men and affairs? Is a question that has engaged the serious thought of men for ages. Jesus Christ Himself considered the question of great importance and devotes considerable time to it in His sermon. He gives us the most complete, convincing and satisfactory answer that can be found. The illustrations He uses are remarkable for their simplicity and power. Some things will be discussed in the sermon that will encourage and help men and women in their struggles, toils and temptations. The musical program at this service will be as follows:

Organ—Selection from Beethoven. Opening Anthem—"Ladies Chorus."—Cary B. Adams. Quartette—"Let the People Praise Thee."—From Oratorio "Eli" by Costa. 5 p. m. The Sunday school meets. The public is cordially invited to all the services.

At the Theatro, Old Court House. A rocking chair will be given to the lucky number on Tuesday night, June 3rd at about 9 o'clock. The lucky number must be in the house at time of drawing.—Adv.
