THE VAUGHN CASE ARGUED SUPREME COURT

VAUGHN NOW IN PENITENTIARY
UNDER SENTENCE.

Was Convicted of Numberless Outrage on Little Girl Orphans Under His Charge.

Special to The Herald and News.
Columbia, June 5.—The appeal of T. U. Vaughn, the former superintendent of the Odd Fellows Orphan home from the sentence of death passed on him by the lower court was argued before the supreme court today, McCullough and Martin, of Greenville, appearing for Vaughn and Sullivan, of Anderson, represented the State. Vaughn is confined in the penitentiary awaiting the outcome of his appeal. Vaughn was convicted of numberless outrages against the little girl orphans and sentenced to be electrocuted.

Mr. Nabers Weds Miss Whitehead.
A. R. Presbyterian, 4th.

M. Charles H. Nabers gave his friends in Due West a surprise. On last Monday he was quietly married at Shelby, N. C., to Miss Bessie Lee Whitehead. After spending a day or two in Anderson with his mother he returned to Due West last Saturday and they are taking in the commencement together. Mrs. Nabers was a student in Erskine and a most excellent young lady taking a worthy stand in college. Mr. Nabers is one of the promising members of the graduating class of the Seminary. He will fill Rev. J. W. Carson's pulpit in Newberry this summer. He has been elected to the pastorate of Prosperity and Cannons Creek churches and will take charge in the early fall. Heartily congratulations to these young people.

Col. Dickert Visits Union.
Union Progress, 3rd.

Col. D. A. Dickert, of Newberry, has been spending several days here with his son, Capt. J. R. Dickert. Col. Dickert said it had been ten years since he has visited Union and that he notes many changes and improvements in the town. Col. Dickert has written several articles and one of two works relative to war incidents, and he is indeed interesting and entertaining in his conversations.

Prof. Derrick at Saluda.

The issue of the Saluda Standard containing the following failed to reach this office on time, hence the lateness of its reproduction in these columns:

"The commencement of the Saluda High school was held in the auditorium Monday night before a crowded house, many being turned back at the doors. The exercises were among the best of any of such character that the school has ever held.

"Prof. S. J. Derrick, of Newberry, college, delivered the annual address. His lecture was full of humor and wit and wholesome advice to the young members of the graduating class. Prof. Derrick's lecture was along educational lines and took well with the large audience."

Married in North Carolina.

Accompanied by Messrs. Eugene H. Longshore and George D. Brown, Mr. William F. Ewart left on Monday for Wadesboro, N. C., where at 7.00 on Wednesday morning he and Miss Nancy Frontis Howard were married. Shortly after the wedding they left Wadesboro and reached Newberry the same afternoon over the Atlantic Coast Line at 3.20.

Mr. Ewart has a very large number of friends in his life long home city of Newberry, and since his return from Wadesboro he has been kept pretty busy shaking hands and receiving the congratulations of the people with their well wishes. No man ever returned with a bride to Newberry who was more warmly welcomed than Mr. Ewart and his North Carolina bride, and The Herald and News takes especial pleasure in joining in with this large throng to show the popular senior member of the Ewart-Perry company that he and Mrs. Ewart have the wishes of all for a life of happiness and prosperity, with none to want it otherwise.

The Literary Sorosis meets June 6th with Mrs. L. A. Black.

News of Excelsior.

Excelsior, June 5.—The weather has been fine for harvesting and the most of the grain has been gathered in good condition.

Miss Jessie Lorick of Columbia college, is home for vacation.

Supervisor Hill has done some good work on the road leading by Mr. J. A. C. Kiblers' home.

Cotton has come to a stand and the farmers are busy thinning it out now.

The writer and wife in company with Mr. J. H. Crosson, Mr. Berley Bedenbaugh and Mr. J. E. Long, spent Sunday in Leesville, going over in Mr. Long's nice new automobile, and we found the public road in fairly good condition for travel. We noticed the crops along the road from Prosperity on to Leesville was a very good stand, and in fairly good condition. We also noticed some fine fields of grain along the road and in fact Saluda county is noted for good grain crops. Leesville is a pretty town and continues to push forward.

Our visit to Leesville on Sunday was pleasant and sad, pleasant to meet a good many of our old friends and sad for us to visit the cemetery and look at the grave of our dear mother and brother, who are sweetly sleeping there. This if nothing more makes us feel dear to Leesville. Mr. Long is a good driver with his automobile and he has our thanks for our visit to Leesville on Sunday.

TRIP BY AUTOMOBILE.

Mr. H. O. Long and Party Have Pleasant Trip Through Country to the Mountains.

Mr. H. O. Long went up to Greenville last Friday on business. He went in his Bergdoll car, taking with him his sister, Mrs. B. M. Havird, Miss Bessie Long, and Miss Julia Plexico. After concluding his business there they took a spin up the Blue Ridge. They visited Hendersonville, Asheville and Lake Toxaway.

While at Asheville, they drove over Biltmore, the northern millionaire's reservation of 180,000 acres. He has recently secured at an exorbitant price, a tract of four acres in the middle of his property, which had been owned by an old negro since slavery time. He has a dairy farm on this reservation where 400 cows are kept. They supply the city of Asheville with pure milk, butter and cream.

At this season of the year the mountain laurel is in full bloom. The mountain sides are literally covered with the delicate pink flowers, while the rhododendron is just beginning to bud.

There is a driveway up Sunset mountain, from which one can look down on the city of Asheville. It is especially beautiful to see the electric lights at night. They went from Hendersonville to Lake Toxaway on the train.

The Southern railroad follows the French Broad river to its source. The scenery is good along the route. The lake is a beautiful body of clear water several thousand feet above the sea level, and surrounded by mountains. The roads were in fine condition for the most part. The trip can be easily made in a car. They had a delightful trip, with not a single puncture or accident of any kind.

Snobs and Snubs.

Little Snob—I don't see any waiters. Why don't they wear uniforms? You can't tell who are gentlemen, and who are not, can you?

Superior Waiter (sarcastically)—We waiters find no difficulty, sir!—London Opinion.

TH ENEWS O POMARIA.

Bitten by Dog—No Rabbits—Aunt Viney Kibler Has Accident—Quiet Marriage—Tax O'vted.

Pomaria, June 4.—Mr. Eddie Wickler was very much excited one day last week by being bitten by his own dog and afterwards the dog began to act strangely and was killed. Dr. Pinner was sent for at once and decided it necessary to send the dog's head to the Pasteur Institute. An examination was made and found that the dog was not suffering from rabies. His many friends very much rejoice with him that the dog was not mad.

Aunt Viney Kibler had the misfortune to fall and break her thigh near the hip bone one day last week and is confined to her bed where she will be for some time. It seems as if she had gone to the old Jimmy Riser place and in an effort to gather some curants by the wayside fell and was taken up in the above named condition. Owing to her age and due to the shock she received she was not able to tell just how it happened.

Some painters are at work painting the depot pump house and water tank here for the Southern railway which will add to the looks of our town.

Mr. Lowman Ruff and Miss Claud Lominick were quietly married last Sunday evening June the 1st, at the St. Paul parsonage by Rev. Y. von A. Riser. Mr. Ruff is a son of Col. D. A. Ruff and is one of St. Phillips most prosperous farmers. Miss Lominick is the charming daughter of Mrs. Salie Lominick. We wish the young couple much happiness through life.

An election was held in this school district last Friday to vote on some extra mills for the support of the school. There was some objection to this, but it was easily carried by a vote of 21 to 10.

Nearly all of the girls have come to their respective homes from the various colleges. Among the latest to come home is Misses Ethel Seybt, Ida Mae Setzler, Julia Setzler, Kathleen Hentz, from Mont Amoen, N. C.; Misses Anne Hatton, Kate Wilson, Helen and Elizabeth Hentz, from Due West, and Miss Myrtle Epting, from Lander college. None of the boys have come in yet, but are expected next week.

Mr. W. L. Bedenbaugh went out to Leesville Sunday to attend commencement at Summerland college returning home Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Sumner has returned from Norfolk, Va., where she has been on an extended visit for several months past.

Miss Dive Genann, of Georgia, a classmate of Miss Ethel Seybt, is visiting at Pomaria.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berley made a business trip to Columbia this week.

Miss Lucy Ligon went to Newberry to do some shopping on Tuesday, returning home on Wednesday.

Rev. J. A. Linn will preach here next Sunday p. m., his regular appointment, on the subject of Baptism. Rev. Linn is an able preacher and you can always expect to hear a good sermon. Service at 4.30 p. m.

Prof. E. B. Setzler, of Newberry college, and family spent Sunday in Pomaria visiting relatives.

Pomaria will be well represented at commencement next week as we can boast of first honor man, George Breaker Setzler. All are very anxious, too, to hear Mr. Walter Reiser who will be principal of our new school here.

Rural Policeman Turner and Policeman B. T. Richardson caught a large gang of negroes handling some "square bones" for which they will be tried Friday. They rounded up about fifteen.

Deputy Sheriff Berley Resigns.

Deputy Sheriff Thos. A. Berley has resigned his position under Sheriff Cannon G. Blease for a better job.

Sheriff Blease has not as yet appointed a successor to fill the vacancy.

Deputy Berley has made a good officer. There may be and doubtless are others in the county who can fill the office as well, but there is none who can fill it better than he.

DOCTORS FINISH COURSE.

Commencement Comes to the Medical College.—Mr. Weston's Address.

Charleston, June 2.—The commencement exercises of the Medical college took place tonight at the Academy of Music when 30 young men received diplomas in medicine and 17 in pharmacy and the interesting program which had been arranged for the occasion was closed with a formal and brief ceremony of turning over the institution from its individual corporate existence by Maj. Theodore G. Barker of the board of trustees to the governor of South Carolina, representing the new board of trustees, elected by the legislature.

The Rev. H. H. Lumpkin delivered the invocation and at the close of the exercises pronounced the benediction. The address of the dean, Dr. Robert Wilson, reviewed the work of the college and the prospects of the future, as a State institution, with reference to the recent successful campaign in raising more than $75,000 for a new college building to be erected on Lucas street opposite the Roper hospital.

Francis H. Weston, of Columbia delivered the annual address, speaking ably and eloquently to the graduates.

Diplomas went to the following graduates:

Clausen, Claussen; J. W. DuPre, Owings; Eugene Graham, Morrisville; R. M. Graham, Cowards; A. D. Gregg, Florence; J. P. Harrison, Greenville; J. M. Hobson, Pendleton; J. P. Jewell, Piedmont; P. J. Johnston, St. George; W. S. Judy, St. George; J. L. Marshall, Morrisville, C. D. Mills, Newberry; J. D. Moorhead, Columbia; A. T. Nelly, Rock Hill; I. M. Parker, Jr., Charleston; C. M. Scott, Kingstree; H. B. Senn, Newberry; W. C. Stone, Leesville; H. P. Wagener, Charleston; C. A. West, Camden; S. E. Wheeler, Parksville; A. M. Wilcox, Marion; I. R. Wilson, Charleston.

In Pharmacy—E. C. Blackwell, Union, A. Brock, Charlotte, N. C.; W. J. Bryant, Orangeburg; J. A. Gilberson, Charleston; P. C. Halford, Blackville; J. H. Hardwick, Conway; J. H. Hutchinson, Rock Hill; W. S. Nelson, Manning; C. J. Noble, Graham; W. L. Rogers, Fork; J. H. Sanders, Charleston; B. T. Smith, Bowman; C. L. Stover, Charleston; H. W. White, Marion; A. A. Wilkinson, Abbeville; T. C. Holman, Cameron; J. B. Morris, Lake City.

The first nine graduates in medicine have the refusal of positions as internes at the Roper hospital and the St. Francis Xavier infirmary, being as follows: Drs. Wagener, Barnwell, Mills, Hobson, Eugene Graham, Wilson, Beach, Senn and Judy.

The first six honor men in pharmacy are Messrs. Noble, Sanders, Smith, Blackwell, Nelson and Bryant.

Marriage of Rev. Mr. McKittrick.

The Rev. J. R. McKittrick, of Dyson, was in the city Wednesday and procured a marriage license, leaving the same day for Fort Mill on his pleasant mission, the sequel of which is found in the following from the Fort Mill Times of Thursday:

"An event of interest to a large number of Fort Mill people will be the marriage this afternoon at 4.30 o'clock of Miss Carrie Parris, daughter of Mr. W. H. Parks, and Rev. James R. McKittrick, of Saluda. The marriage will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Culp, in this city, the ceremony to be performed by the Rev. S. P. Hair of the local Baptist church. Rev. Mr. McKittrick and bride will leave Fort Mill on the afternoon train for Saluda, their future home."

The Rev. Mr. McKittrick is well known here and has many friends who congratulate him and wish him and his bride many of his choice blessings of this life.

If you would measure a man by his own standard, listen to what he has to say about his neighbors.

PROGRESS IS MADE IN TRIAL OF LONG

Many Witnesses Give Testimony in Aiken Case.—Defendant To Testify.

Aiken, June 4.—"If Hugh Long is elected to the legislature, I will kill the ——— and stamp him in the dust!"

M. T. Holley, a well known Aiken county farmer living a few miles from Aiken, and who was himself a candidate for the State senate in the political campaign which last summer led up to the killing of Pickens N. Gunter by Hugh Long, testified at Long's trial this morning that Pickens Gunter uttered this threat the Monday evening before the second primary was held.

"I told him," said Mr. Holley, on the stand, "that he could get in more trouble in a minute than he could get out of in a lifetime, and that if he talked that way, Long might kill him."

Mr. Holley's testimony was the climax of the morning's proceedings. The defense began to combat the case the prosecution yesterday made out against the legislator, and this morning produced some strong testimony to establish the plea of self-defense.

"I saw Pickens Gunter in Aiken on the night of August 27 last year, the night of the first primary election," said Mr. Holley. "I was at the bulletin board looking at the returns as they came in, interested as I was for the reason that I was a candidate for the State senate. Gunter, who was my friend, came up. He was drinking, I saw he was mad. He said he wanted to talk to me. We walked out of the crowd and into a park in the street. Then he wanted to know 'what in hell' we gave Hugh Long such a large vote here in Aiken for. I told him I had nothing to do with it. He said, 'If you'll go in that crowd and get Long and bring him out here I'll show you how quick I can kill him.' I told him if he wanted to shoot Long to go hunt him himself."

The threat, the witness declares, Pickens Gunter made against Long's life, was made at Wagener. "I came back to Aiken and seeing Mr. Long I advised him not to go back to Wagener. I told him what Gunter had threatened," continued Mr. Holley. "He replied that he thought the whole thing would blow over after the election and that he didn't think Gunter would hurt him."

Laurens' Song Birds.

Laurens Advertiser.

We have never been able to understand just what is meant by an "all-day-singing."—Greenwood Journal.

Ask the Laurens people. They know more about it than anybody else. At least they have more of it.—Newberry Herald & News.

An all-day singing is just what the word implies, an all-day singing, something like the old time preaching in the country, where people came from long distances, to have services in the morning, dinner on the lawn around the house of worship and services again in the afternoon. At the all-day singing, the people come from miles around, bringing "well filled baskets" prepared to stay all day. A song service is held in the morning, followed by the midday meal. After dinner the singing is resumed until the time comes to go home. The singing is under the direction of a regularly elected choir leader who possibly will sing a solo or prepare a program of solos, duets, quartets, etc. The music consists entirely of sacred songs, sung in the good old-fashioned way with the spirit and religious fervor characteristic of fervid, devout people. While the custom might not be peculiar to this section, it seems to be more common here than elsewhere, possibly because of the unusually sociable inclination of the people and their natural love for music derived from the cultivation of the musical instinct since the early settlement of the country.

I have seen gleams in the faces of men that let me look into a higher country.—Carlyle.
