VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Now for the circus, all who want to go for "the sake of the children."

For other locals, notes and comments, etc., see inside pages.

There was a good rat reception at Newberry college Friday night.

The new street sweeper and cleaner just put on by the city council seems to be a good thing.

There will be no picture show at the opera house Tuesday night, on account of the circus.

Mountville is to have a $75,000 school building. Mr. P. F. Baxter has been awarded the contract to build.

Governor Blease has appointed A. C. Sligh, Dyson, S. C., magistrate for Greenwood county, for the term provided by law.

Does it ever occur to you in this sense of the word, that the folks of Newberry county are mighty good folks?

Charley, the valuable family horse belonging to the Rev. D. P. Boyd, died Friday afternoon. Charley was a favorite and highly prized animal, and was valued at $200.

The newspapers are still having something to say about the Parr Shoals robbery. It strikes them all unanimously as being very strange and mysterious.

The "Pride of Dixie" minstrels, Al Rikard's new company of genuine negro comedians, etc., will give their first performance Friday night, at the Airdome.

This weather's spell began somewhere along about Monday morning a week ago at the dark hour of three o'clock. It was an ill spell. Figure for yourself the quantity of sunshine during that spell.

A group in the last issue of the Lutheran Church Visitor, page nine, under the heading of "Layman's Missionary movement," although it is from Gretna, Pa., looks as though made from Newberry people, so natural and familiar it seems.

Rev. A. J. Bowers, D. D., Newberry college, Newberry, S. C., has been appointed by the governor to act as one of four delegates from this State to the 7th annual convention of the National society for the Promotion of Industrial education to be held at Grand Rapids, Mich., October 22-25.

It is such a striking and pleasing contrast between the messages of "Send the paper on." "It is like a letter from home." "I can't do without it," on the one hand, and angry remarks because the paper is cut off on the other.

The boll worm has made its appearance in this section. They attack grown bolls by boring into them and eating the lint. If farmers would protect the birds instead of killing them, they would soon destroy this pest.—Wysacky cor. Bishopville Leader and Vindicator.

Besides a few little drunk and disorderly handled by Recorder Earhardt Monday morning, there was one case important enough to mention. James Leak was up for carrying concealed pistol and the recorder gave him $40 or 30 days. He accepted the days.

County Supervisor John Henry Chappell in town Saturday informed the reporter that up-to-date 179 tax delinquents had been warned to work the roads. Mr. Chappell figures that this in money amounts to in round numbers about a thousand dollars. The supervisor is lining them up, and he has efficient help in the work.

The temperature Monday morning was 42 as reported by Observer W. G. Peterson, who began his rounds that morning the first time he had been out since taking sick. He had made only three days in four weeks. Mr. Peterson's patrons on his rural delivery route are glad to see him back at work.

President Harms introduced the four new professors: Prof. G. P. Voigt, who was given a rousing cheer of welcome to the college after a year's absence; Prof. Wade Hampton Stemple of the department of science, Prof. Baxter C. Monroe, who will serve as principal of the preparatory department, and Coach R. L. Thomas, who is director of the gymnasium and athletics of the college and who has become most popular among the students already.—Part of the State's local correspondent's account of Newberry college opening.

The Passing of The Automobile.

New York, Sept. 10.—The horse is coming back. In all sections of New York, especially on Broadway and Fifth avenue the horse drawn vehicle, public and private, is coming into its own again. The novelty of the automobile is wearing off along with the price and people who ride for pleasure are turning back to man's tried and true equine friend.

With the horse the hansom cab is coming into favor again, and they may be seen now in large numbers before all the big hotels and at the public hack stand. Five times as many horses and cabs are in evidence now in New York as were used even such a short time as a year ago. Women shoppers especially seem to prefer them to automobiles, and pleasure drivers in Central park and on Riverside Drive now use horse vehicles more than formerly. There are not so many horses to be seen as before the days of the motor, of course, and there never will be again, but the automobile is a recreation vehicle and is steadily giving ground to the horse.

Minnaugh's The Man.

And Minnaugh's the place. The millinery opening there last week was grand. That is what people say, and what so many people say is always or generally correct. At any rate, the great display last week gave promise of a most brilliant season in augurated by Minnaugh, the chief, and all you have to do to be convinced that there is no exaggeration about Minnaugh as to the fine quality of his goods is to go to this store and make personal inspection and examination. One visit will show you.

The Bishop's Visitation.

The Right Rev. William Alexander Guerry, bishop of the diocese of South Carolina, visited this parish and preached at St. Luke's Episcopal church Sunday night, to a good congregation. Taking up the cross was the bishop's subject and he handled it in his usual masterful manner. Bishop Guerry is popular in Newberry, where he is regarded as one of the brainiest men in the State. The bishop is a profound thinker as well as fine orator, who always holds the undivided attention of his audience, and the congregation Sunday night was no exception to the rule, giving the closest attention to the great truth so strongly and vividly portrayed. The bishop's central idea was that the cross was hard; it was never intended to be easy. The sermon was a truly remarkable presentation of stern, cold facts, and made a deep impression.

The music was excellent and the congregation enjoyed it to the fullest. Members of other denominations helped in the choir, which was as follows: James C. Kinard, organist; Mrs. P. E. Scott, Mrs. D. F. Pifer, Miss Mabel Williamson, Mrs. and Mr. S. B. Jones, and Mr. R. E. Allen, the latter having recently come from Greenville to accept the position of bookkeeper at the Savings bank. Mr. Allen is a valuable acquisition to the singing fraternity of Newberry.

A pleasant feature of the occasion was the mentioning by Bishop Guerry of the fact that this was the 20th anniversary of the rectorship in Newberry of the Rev. W. S. Holmes at St. Luke's church.

The bishop was assisted in the services by the rector, Rev. S. R. Guignard.

During Bishop Guerry's visit he was the guest of Mrs. O. McR. Holmes.

Important Notice.

Owing to the weather and small attendance on the Reedy River association, at Whitmire, Friday Sept. 19th, the association adjourned to meet with the First Baptist church, Newberry, S. C., on Tuesday, September 30th, 1913 at 11 a. m.

It is earnestly requested that every church be represented at the opening hour.

Please notify Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, the pastor, as soon as possible if you expect to attend.

E. Pendleton Jones,
Clerk-Protem.

Coins in Rural Mail Boxes.

Picking up loose money has grown to be such a hardship for the over-worked rural free delivery carrier that the postoffice department issued an order warning reckless citizens against leaving loose coins lying around. Coins must be tied in bundles or enclosed in envelopes whenever the patron of rural routes want stamps from a carrier and leaves the necessary amount in the wayside box.

Millinery Opening

We take pleasure in announcing that on September 25 and 26, we will present our first collection of fall pattern hats, representing advanced ideas and valuable information as to the tendency of fall millinery fashions. We are conveniently placing for your inspection a strictly high-class line of original and exclusive designs. The Digitalis, Tango, Canary (very effective with black and blue hats), Castor, Peacock, Catawba and Leather are leading shapes, which are used in various combinations to make the season's designs unusually attractive. Both small and medium shapes are popular. The flexible designs are generally becoming, while the Tango, Cubist, and Magdalen effects are the newest developments in shapes. Plush, velvet and beaver cloth are used in unique and effective models, while fancy and odd feathers, moray and fancy ribbons and flowers are used to introduce exceptionally smart designs. Large hats for afternoon and evening wear are popular. The entire selection portrays a clever and late creation superb in conception.

Our selections of misses and children's hats is large and complete.

We have been unusually fortunate in again securing the services of miss Virginia Beall as designer and trimmer. She with her assistants will take personal interest in filling your wants and will assist you with the latest ideas.

We open the season with new stocks complete in every detail. We want and will appreciate your business, and your orders will be given our prompt and careful attention.
