If you must get there, rather ride a blind mule that will carry you than a blooded horse that will throw you.

It is a historical fact that Lot's wife did not turn to salt until she turned to "rubber."

Friendship is one mind in two bodies. Ever hear now Bill Thompson managed when his pup got her head stuck in a pitcher? No? Well, there's a moral in it.

Bill cut off the pup's head to save the pitcher, then had to break the pitcher to get the pup's head out.

Now I ain'd got none I sells him for 25 cents. Dot makes me a rebutation for cheabness, and I don't loose nodding!" My German friend is a financial genius!-Jeweler's Circular.

Condemned Criminals. Letter to New York Times.

Apropos of the recent suggestion, commented on in your columns, that condemned criminals be used for medical research work, I submit the folowing which shows that the idea is not a

In the middle of the sixteenth century the first anatomical museum was founded in Wittenberg, Germany, by the talented Leonard Fox. In 1569 the faculty was given the power to dissect bodies of executed criminals. Over the door of the museum was this incription, which suggests itself to me as being a good motto for this new school of social therapeutics:

Qui vivi nocuere mali; post funera

Et petit ex ipsa commoda morte

Here wicked men are found at last in useful ways.

And here death shows us how lengthen out our days.

Early Humor.

Boston Transcript.

Gladstone, when a boy, was visiting in the country, and the farmer was showing him around. Coming to a field that contained a large black bull, the

"There's a fine, strong bull there, Master William, and it's only two-

"How do you tell its age?" queried * the boy.

"Why, by its borns," said the farmer. "By its horns?" Young Gladsione looked thoughtful a moment, then his face clared. "Ah, I see. Two hornstwo-years."

Expert in Handwriting. Popular Magazine.

Mother was fair, but she wished to be fairer still. Adorned by nature, she sought further beautification. Loveliness was her great goal.

Invited out to dinner, she stood before the mirror and, having made her yellow locks a trifle yellower, she proceeded to apply the pencil to her eyebrows. This it may be remarked, is an age of artificiality, and mother had reached the age.

The little daughtr stood by and won-

"Mother, what are you writing on your face for?"

Kamous Rhode Island.

Harper's Magazine. It was a geography lesson, and the teacher had been asking what some of the different States were noted for. Looking at one of the little girls, she

"Tell me, Florence, what Rhode Island is celebrated for."

For a moment the child was silent, then an inspiration apparently came

"Rhode Island?" repeated the little girl, "is celebrated for being the only one of the United States that is the

Her Ideal

Chicago Record-Herald.

Dr. Lyman Abbott tells a child story, both sweet and suggestive. Of a little girl who came to see him seeking church membership, he asked the us-

"Do you want to be like Christ?"

"I don't know,' was the child's innocent answer, "but I want to be like mother."

The Only Difference.

The other candidates spent much money and they differ from Mr. Whaley only in that they did not win.
