

PURELY PERSONAL.

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mr. G. Frank Wearn returned Saturday from his tour of Florida.

Ex-Governor D. C. Heyward spent Sunday with Col. W. H. Hunt.

Mr. Alan Johnston, Jr., of Columbia, spent the week-end in Newberry.

Rev. J. D. Kinard returned from Newberry today.

Mrs. Julian Cooper, of Columbia, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. B. E. Julian, at Helena.

Miss Carolyn Cromer, of Newberry, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. C. Moise.—Sumter Item, 24th.

Mrs. W. H. Zeigler had to be returned to the Sumter hospital Sunday.

Mrs. J. G. Brown and Little Dessa are in Newberry arranging to go to the State fair before moving to Union.

Manager J. J. Roach of the telephone, had to do about in Batesburg and Leesville last week.

Agent J. W. Denning, of the C. N. & L., made a trip to Savannah and Charleston last week on business.

Mrs. J. L. Wellings, and children, of Darlington, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Wells while Mr. Wellings takes in the State fair.

Mr. W. F. Lindler, a progressive farmer of Chapin, was here Monday on business and called into see us.—Lexington Dispatch, 22nd.

Mr. J. W. Stuck, one of Peak's substantial farmers, while intown Saturday, gave us a pleasant call.—Lexington Dispatch, 22nd.

Mrs. A. H. Summerfield and son, of Baltimore, and Mrs. H. S. Price and two sons, of Spartanburg, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mann.

Miss McClintock's position exceptional, she enjoys the distinction of being the only woman in South Carolina at the head of a College.—Columbia Record.

Mr. Geo. E. Cromer, of the Broad river section, got a marriage license Saturday. He will be married on Wednesday to Miss Eva Sanders at her home in Spartanburg county.

Miss Nina Caldwell has gone to take up her school duties in Newberry county. She taught this school near Newberry last year.—Winnsboro News and Herald, 23rd.

Dr. I. E. Crimm, of Atlanta, Ga., has arrived in Union and will be here for two weeks on profession business.—Union Times, 24th. Dr. Crimm is "gravitating" around towards Newberry.

Governor Blease was in the city Monday owing to the critical illness of his stepmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Blease, who was stricken with paralysis Sunday night. The governor returned to Columbia Monday afternoon, Mrs. Blease being somewhat better.

Among the reservations at hotels in Columbia for the State fair are: Jefferson, E. H. Aull; Imperial, E. H. Bowman, Miss Bowman, Miss Vaughn, Mrs. J. P. Neel, of Newberry; J. O. Taylor and F. L. Eargle, Little Mountain.

Miss Edna Baldwin passed through Union Saturday on her way to her school at Little Mountain, Newberry county, where she will teach this year. Miss Baldwin is considered one of the best teachers in the State.—Union Times, 24th.

Rev. J. D. Bowles, of this place left Monday for Columbia to attend the South Carolina synod of the Lutheran church of the South. He will be absent about a week. Rev. Bowles is 82 years of age, has been in the ministry for over half a century and we doubt if he has missed one of these annual meetings in all these years.—Greenwood Index, 23rd.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. W. F. Hiers and little daughter, Dorothy, of Florence, and Mrs. Black, of Prosperity. The bride is a popular young lady, who has many friends here, and the groom is a fine business man.—Ehrhardt cor. Bamberg Herald, 23rd, account of recent wedding Mr. J. Ben Ehrhardt and Miss Ruth Groseclose, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Groseclose.

Quarterly Meeting.

The fourth quarterly meeting for the Newberry circuit will be held at Lebanon church Saturday and Sunday, November 1-2.

Otis A. Jeffcoat.

Somebody's going to wear "a diamond ring with a dreamy smile" after The Herald and News' Prize Voting Contest is over.

The Grand prize in The Herald and News' prize voting contest will soon be heard "pealing forth those mysterious rags."

First Prize Week in The Herald and News' Great Prize Voting Contest—Announcement

As a Special Inducement to the One Turning in the First One Year Subscriber We Will Award Ten Thousand Extra Votes. Step Lively.

The Herald and News prize voting contest is beginning to look interesting. As you will notice from "list of nominees" quite a number of new entries have been made. The contest promises to be a lively one as a great deal of interest and enthusiasm is beginning to be manifested among the ladies of Newberry county, and for the benefit of whom this Prize Voting Contest is being put on.

First Subscription Turned In.
To the lady turning in the first one-year new subscription will be given "ten thousand extra votes," making a total of 11,500 votes for "a one-year subscription" when ordinarily she would only receive 1,500 for the subscription—but we want to see who the first one will be. This "offer expires Wednesday at noon."

First Two Weekly Prizes.
Beginning with this issue of The Herald and News and closing Saturday, October the first—"two special prizes" will be awarded as follows:
To the contestant turning in "fifteen one year subscription," makes no difference whether they be new, or renewals, Messrs. Wheeler & Langford, the furniture house of "best quality for least money" will award "a handsome willow rocking chair," something that "will grace any little home that's a nice little home."

To the contestant coming second, Messrs. Gilder & Weeks—"the classiest drug store on the most prominent corner in Newberry" will award "a beautiful comb and brush set," something that milady's dressing table is incomplete without, and if "it comes from Gilder & Weeks" "Nuf sed."

Now if this doesn't look interesting and make you sit up and take on, we don't know what will. The above two "special prizes will be found on display at "Wheeler & Langford's" and "Gilder and Weeks". The time to get busy is "right now," and "don't have one-half way doin's about it." "Get busy, be busy and stay on the job till the contest closes, and then see "if you won't wear the smile that don't rub off."

The prizes to be awarded at the close of the contest will all be on display by the end of the coming week, and, in Thursday's issue will be announced the business houses where they may be seen on display.
