Mr. T. E. Dean, brother of Mrs. A. T. Brown, died at a sanatorium in Asheville Monday morning at 5 o'clock, after a lingering illness of several years.
The body arrived in Newberry Tuesday at 9 a. m., and the funeral was conducted at 3.30 p. m., from the residence of Mrs. A. T. Brown in Harrington street, by the Rev. Dr. E. Pendleton Jones, with the following pall bearers: R. M. Werts, L. W. Floyd, C. B. Martin, W. G. Mayes, Dr. W. E. Pelham, Jr., and H. B. Wells.

A Tribute From Union.
Union Progress, 18th.
"Mr. Thomas E. Dean, for many years a resident of this city, died in Asheville yesterday at 5 a. m., and his remains passed through Union last night en route to Newberry for interment.
Several years ago Mr. Dean became ill and went to the mountains in hopes of being cured, but his health gradually declined and for the past year he has been in a most critical condition most of the time.
He was a young man of many sterling traits of character and was a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

Maybington, Nov. 12.—Mrs. J. C. Elson died here on the night of the 12th. She is survived by a husband, two sons, C. E. and W. B., and brothers, Alex Presley of Texas; L. M. Pressley, of Columbia; a sister, Mrs. T. E. Roebuck of Gainesville, Fla. Her death is a great loss here. She was a wife, a mother, a sister, a friend and neighbor, and above all a devout Christian lady and loved by all who knew her.
The interment was at Ebenezer cemetery. The burial services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. M. Friday, of Whitmire. The grave was banked with many floral tributes.

Lutheran Church Visitor.
While no pastor of any denomination has ever lived here, yet the people know well how to take care of a pastor. Indeed, it is doubtful if any small town has been more faithful. The pastor's family has been continually remembered with gifts and favors. The church is certainly prospering. The attendance on services is very good, and recently nineteen members were received—fourteen by letter and five by confirmation. Rev. S. P. Koon, the pastor, assumed active charge last July.

I will make a final settlement in Probate Court for Newberry county, on December 22nd, 1913, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon as administrator of the estate of S. M. Johnson, deceased and will immediately thereafter apply for discharge as administrator. Any person having claims against said estate will present them duly attested, on or before that day.

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years from now a bald head will be a rarity."

of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling out hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back.
