

SHOALS TO BE DEVELOPED.

Southern Power Company to Resume Plans—Fifth in the System.

Chester, Jan. 6.—Much interest was manifested in business circles here today when it was learned that the Southern Power company had decided to go ahead with the development at Lookout shoals and not to develop the Fishing creek site in Chester county. For a great many months the company was held up in its proposed development there by the high price demanded for one or two tracts that were necessary to its purposes, but recently the company and the landowners have come to terms and the company now holds the deeds to all the land it wants. This would indicate that the development of the water power at that place will now proceed. The Lookout shoals will be second to the dam at Ninety-Nine islands in point of storage capacity and larger than the dam at Great Falls. The dam will have a height of 80 feet and sufficient land has been bought to protect the company from back-water troubles and law suits.

This will make the fifth dam in the system operated by the Southern Power company. The first was the initial venture of a native of Chester, who later achieved fame in New York city as a surgeon, Dr. W. Gill Wylie, in the Catawba gorge near Rock Hill and which is now in the pigmy class of the list. At the time the Rock Hill plant was erected it was a question with the engineers whether the electric current could be sent profitably as far as Charlotte, 18 miles, on account of the probable loss by leakage. That was in the early days of electrical power development, when the entire business was problematic. A man touching his fingers, it is said, to the end of a wire 100 miles long, will be likely to find the current there about as strong as it is at the generator in the power house.

Dispensary Auditor Mitchum Makes Estimate on 1913 Business.

Columbia, January 6.—Close on to three million dollars' worth of whiskey, beer and wines were sold by the county dispensaries in South Carolina during the year 1913, according to an estimate prepared today by State Dispensary Auditor Harvey W. Mitchum.

Mr. Mitchum estimates that the dispensaries disposed of $2,863,731.65 worth of alcoholic beverages during the year. The amount sold was $62,029.27, for the year 1912.

If the estimate is taken as approximately correct last year's sales out-distanced those of 1912 by $201,702.38.

The estimate by Auditor Mitchum was unofficial. It is impossible to get the exact figures yet, owing to the fact that reports from all the counties having dispensaries are not in for the month of December.

There are twelve counties that are now operating under the dispensary system, with Orangeburg, in addition, just having commenced with the New Year. Lexington's dispensary is tied up in the Courts.

PALMER MCMASTER ELECTED.

Will Fill Vacancy in House Caused by Rembert's Death.

Columbia, January 6.—Palmer McMaster was elected over six opponents to the vacancy in the House of Representatives from this county today, caused by the death of George R. Rembert. An exceedingly light vote was cast, there being less than 600 out of a voting strength of 6,000.

MANY DASHED TO DEATH.

Seventy-five Laborers Swept to Doom on Angry Current.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 6.—Dashed to death on the rocks in the Frazer River, British Columbia, or swept to their doom by the swift current, was the fate of 75 laborers employed by the Grand Trunk, Pacific Railroad, according to Angelo Pugliese to-day, one of the twenty-five who managed to escape when the flat boat in which they were being transported across the river was wrecked and on a rock.

Report Doubtful.

Vancouver, B. C., January 6.—Reports from Winnipeg that seventy-five workmen on the Grand Trunk Pacific perished in a drowning accident in Northern British Columbia in November is doubted here.

Reports of disasters, which never occurred have been attributed to the Industrial Workers of the World by their opponents in several strikes that have taken place in British Columbia.

Sprained Ankle

"As a user of your Liniment for the last 15 years, I can say it is one of the best on the market. Fifteen years ago I sprained my ankle and had to use crutches, and the doctors said I would always be lame. A friend advised me to try your Liniment and after using it night and morning for three months I could walk without a cane and run as good as any of the other fellows in my department. I have never been without a bottle since that time."—Mr. William H. Driscoll, Central Islip, N. Y.

Is Opinion Expressed by Two of His Custodians at Public Hearing.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 7.—The release of Harry K. Thaw, fugitive from New York's state hospital for the criminal insane, would not menace public safety, is the opinion expressed by two of his custodians today at a public hearing before the commission appointed by the federal court to pass upon the matter of Thaw's mental condition and its relation to his liberation under bond. Holman A. Drew, sheriff of Coos county, and Clark D. Stevens of the local police force, who have had Thaw in charge since September, favored his admission to bail.

The train stopped at a small station and the impatient traveler stuck his head out of a window to investigate the cause.

"Hey!" he called to an idler on the platform. "What's the blooming train stopped for now?"

"Why, consarn ye," retorted the native, indignantly, "this is Boostburg!" "So I see," said the traveler, glancing at the signboard; "but that isn't answering my question."

CORN CLUB WORK WORTH MILLIONS

South Entering New Era of Agricultural Production, Declares
H. G. Hastings.

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—That the Boys' Corn Club movement means a great deal more to the South than the average citizen has ever dreamed, is the conclusion presented in an interesting interview by H. G. Hastings of Atlanta, chairman of the agricultural committee of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and manager of the Georgia State Corn Show, which is presented annually in the state capitol building.

"We are facing," says Mr. Hastings, "an era of agricultural production such as the world has never before witnessed. Every year since the first corn club was organized, the movement has seen more than remarkable growth. One year's record has become insignificant when that of the next year doubled it; and by that, I mean that many more boys have gone into the work and have vastly increased results not only by their own efforts, but through inspiration to fathers, brothers and neighbors until millions of dollars have already been added to corn production in the South. "And yet this is but a forecast of what is to come. There are now being organized as an outgrowth of the corn club work, Three and Four-Crop Clubs. The boys will plant oats and cowpeas on their former corn acre, thus diversifying their crops and renewing the soil, while a new acre will be taken for corn cultivation. In some sections cotton has been added to the list, on a third acre, and the four-Crop Club boys have already gone to work."

"Another outgrowth of the corn club is the Pig Club. Southern boys have learned the truth of the story of the unsuccessful farmer who sent to a more prosperous neighbor to buy a shoat, but with it presented him a sack of corn. 'You have got the shoat under your arm,' he told the farmer, 'but I want you to remember that the hog is in the sack.'"
