

Not Simplified.

Tit-Bits.
John y—Father, how do you spell high?
Father—H-i-g-h—why do you wish to know?
Johnny—'Cause I'm writing a composition on the highena.

Across the Styx.

Louisville Courier-Journal.
"Here's a shade won't give his name," announced the imp who was registering guests.
"What does he say?" inquired Satan.
"Says to put him down as John Doe."
"A-all right, and just put him in the oven to bake."

There's a Time Limit.

Judge.
"While you were standing in the doorway, telling the sweet young thing good night, did it ever dawn upon you—"
"Oh, no! I never stayed that late."

Gives New Strength

If you find it a terrible task to do your daily duties—continually worried—losing flesh and no appetite—take Dike's Tonic Hypophosphites. It enriches the blood, purifies it and restores the tissues to their normal strength.

Dike's Tonic Hypophosphites Should Be Used in All Cases Where the System Is Weakened—Where There Is Lack of Vitality—Diminished Energy and Loss of Appetite.

It is best for convalescents, giving back the old strength and energy in place of the languor, weakness and listlessness so common after protracted illness.

One Dollar a Bottle.

We guarantee Dike Household Remedies. We know what they contain.

Service That Satisfies.

SOMEONE has aptly said that "the value of any business house to a community depends upon the character of service it renders." Our service means more than mere filling of orders. It includes everything that will contribute to the satisfaction and pleasure of our patrons.

For instance, we have Nunnally's Candies sent to us by express just to give better service while most of the other candies sold here are shipped by freight.
