

Azrael--The Angel of Death.

John Bailey Adger Mullally.

Oh, the awe—the horror that grips the heart
As the woeful tale is told—
Empress of Ireland! the thought of you, like a poisoned dart,
Pierces;—one's blood runs cold!

The agony too, of those who faint
At the fearful fate of their loved
Is past all power of pen to paint,
'Tis in Death's darkest colors imbued!

But ah! there's one lesson that we may learn
Of the many this dire tale bears:
Why do our sympathies never turn
To the thousands who daily are gasping for breath—

Are dying a hideous, lingering death
Of want and of awe—with no way to earn
The bare means of life—the chance in the strife
To ward off their premature taking away—to cheat Azrael of his untimely prey?

Oh, my brother, my sister, look today
At our country's squalid slaves—
Come to the hovels—come to the slums—
Count the little graves

That are filled by thousands who loved to live
But never lived at all
And went to a death of horror too
Of wasting and want and of ruthless rue—
Does it never sadden and sicken you?
Does it never appal?

The unbidden tear in the eye today
As we hear the last cry of the lost
And the wail of the living mourning them
Perchance may be worth the cost

If while our hearts are tender and sore
We turn to those dying for bread
And give of our love and give of our store
To our living dead!

Pleasure and Protection

"One of the best reasons why I would not be without telephone service," writes a Georgia farmer, "is the pleasure it gives my wife and the knowledge that while I am away, she has the protection that the telephone gives."

On the farm the telephone dispels loneliness and is the means of bringing help in any emergency that may arise.

If you haven't a telephone on your farm see the nearest Bell Telephone Manager or write for our free booklet and learn how little this service costs.

IN PROSPERITY.

Statements of Prosperity Citizens Are Always of Interest to Our Readers.

To many of our readers the streets of Prosperity are almost as familiar as those of our own town, and we are naturally interested to read of happenings there. The following report from a well-known and respected resident will be helpful to numbers of men and women here in Newberry.

John W. Boozer, R. F. D. No. 2, Prosperity, S. C., says: "I had kidney trouble for two years. I had pains in my back and twinges when stooping or lifting. My back ached at night and I was lame in the morning. I tired easily, was languid and nervous and had headaches and dizzy spells. My sight blurred. The kidney secretions contained sediment, were too frequent in passage and I had to get up often at night. I staid in bed 15 months. I tried doctors and other remedies, but quit them and began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Newberry Drug Company's store. They greatly relieved me in every way."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Boozer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
