VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Tuesday will tell how it is.

Everybody is looking to Tuesday.

The speaking will close this week all around. "Ain't" you glad?

The total eclipse of the sun on Friday will not be visible in Newberry.

There will be communion at Colony church Sunday at the morning service.

Don't forget to see "The Perils of Pauline" Friday at the Arcade-Airdome.

Dr. Bowers will preach at the Church of the Redeemer Sunday morning.

After Tuesday there will be more than enough "I-tol-you-so" people in Newberry.

Newberry will be right here this time next year no matter who is elected. The world is not coming to an end yet.

At the opera house Monday night the episode in "The Adventures of Kathlyn" was fine, as witnessed by a large crowd.

Nobody is caring much about the little county papers this week. Everybody is looking forward to the election. Tuesday and the big war news.

This newspaper is published in the best town in the best county in the State.—Winnsboro News and Herald. That is a perfectly natural and legitimate remark.

The handsome new building by Contractor C. C. Davis for Dr. W. G. Mayes' drugstore is nearing completion. It adds to the looks of the city as well as to the success of Dr. Mayes.

The candidates for congress are to be at the barbecue by Counts and Ruff at Pomaria Saturday. That is also county campaign day at the court house.

Messrs. B. B. Sloan and B. E. Leitzsey appeared before Recorder John W. Earhardt Wednesday morning on the charge of fighting. Mr. Sloan was fined $3. The case against Mr. Leitzsey was dismissed.

Governor Blease's engagements for Saturday and Saturday night will take him respectively to Spartanburg, Greenville, and Anderson, and Mr. Dominick will be in Anderson Saturday night.

The county Democratic executive committee met again Thursday morning. Of the 13 names questioned only three were purged from the rolls, namely, Wilson Garner, Ward 4, under age; John W. Beauford and Lonnie Lee Powell, Mollohon club.

Those who saw the episode in "The Million Dollar Mystery" saw a good thing. Those who failed to see it missed a great treat. See the next episode in these interesting series of thrilling events next Wednesday at the Arcada-Airdome.

Fatal accidents by automobiles are getting to be more frequent and numerous in various places. There are bound to be several more in Newberry in the natural course of events. People everywhere are reckless.

The senatorial campaign closed at Sumter Thursday, the State rested for good at Greenville, the county party will break out again on Saturday at 10 o'clock in this city and close up Saturday night at Willowbrook.

We have just heard of a man in this county who married an angel and then kicked himself because he didn't marry a cook.—That happened in Fairfield county, according to the Winnsboro News and Herald. In Newberry lots of angels are good cooks.

It seems to be impossible to get some road overseers to have the loose rocks taken out of the road even the law requires this to be done. No road however well made, can be put in traveling condition unless this is done and also the open ditches across it be done away with.—Delmar cor. Leesville News.

The Newberry Herald and News says there are 40 candidates in the field in that county, and the Anderson Daily Mail says there are 53 vote seekers in that county. It is safe to say that there are more candidates in the State than ever before at one time.—Lowndesville cor. Abbeville Press and Banner.

The voting precinct for Ward 3 will be at Summer Bros. warehouse, next to the garage. This club has heretofore voted at The Herald and News office. The change is made on account of the crowded condition of the office, made so by the increase in the business of The Herald and News since the last election.

Several people saw a pretty sight the other night when the power house chimney caught on fire. First a dense shower of sparks, then the straight smoke and blaze high in the air. One man said it was the prettiest thing he ever saw. You missed it. Moral: keep your eyes open of nights. You might see an airship. Liable to see anything these times.

During the series of meetings held at Mt. Hebron Lutheran church (Delmar) this week, Rev. W. A. Dutton, of the St. Mark's pastorate preached on Sunday afternoon, and the Rev. J. J. Long, of Little Mountain, preached on Monday and Tuesday. The sermons delivered by the two eminent divines were forceful and were well received.—Leesville News, 19th.

Frank W. Shealy, a candidate for railroad commissioner, is well known by Mr. J. M. Ogilvie, foreman of the Medium office and he says he is all right. He is the Jack Perrin, of Lexington county, and you know he is hard to beat if that is true.—Abbeville Medium. This is reproduced here to be seen by the eyes of a certain fair citizen.

William M. Hamer, in reply to a heckler, said: "You call him Colie, but I tell you that he will be cold as hell."—That is what Mr. Hamer is reported by the daily papers as having said at the Anderson meeting Monday. This is the first time we have heard of hell spoken of as being in the frigid zone—thought it was in the torrid. Then it is such nice language coming from such a source.

If you are missing the fine moving picture programmes that are now being shown at Dreamland and Savoy theatres, you are certainly missing, in the vernacular of the streets, "half of life." Some one recently in Washington stated that Chester's pictures are far superior to any projected upon the national capital's screens.—Chester News. If you would see the finest of the fine drop in at Newberry. Wells and Leslie will show them to you.

Hon. R. A. Cooper has gained in popular favor more rapidly than any other man in the race for governor. The Herald and News of Newberry, a Blease paper, states that Cooper would do more to eliminate factional politics in the State than any other man in the race for governor, should he be elected, while a large part of the anti-Blease vote think the same way.—Winnsboro News and Herald. The Herald and News and the News and Herald are together here.

Of all the many nearfires lately the fire (?) one Wednesday afternoon was the least. At 1 o'clock the loud screech sounded the boys to arms—fire arms. Nothing doing. No fire. Someone at Mr. O. M. Buzhardt's, in Friend street, imagined fire and sent in the alarm. No harm done, as it is better to be careful than to have a fire and although it is hard to break your neck in such hot weather running to no fire, still it is best to find none after you get there than to see a conflagration.

It was stated in these columns Tuesday that Mag Bird was convicted in recorder's court of having hit an 80-year-old woman in the back with an axe handle, and had to pay $10 for it. There was an error in the details of the case. She did not hit the old woman with an axe handle or a barrel stave or anything. She kicked her. But the part Mag Bird didn't like recorded was that she had stolen some clothes from the old woman. There seems to have been a mistake there. Mag Bird was not convicted of stealing, therefore, in this instance, she is clear of the charge of being a thief, which no one likes to be called. The reporter wishes to do Mag Bird justice.

Engagement Announced.

On Thursday morning at her home in East Main street, Miss Ruby Giggans entertained with a porch party the following young ladies: Misses Butler Fant, Elizabeth Deaver, Rosalyn Hipp, Eleanor Martin, Mary Frances Pool, Ripper, Emma Roger, Bess Kibler, Katharin Wright, and Florence Bowman and Mrs. P. E. Way, friends of the guest of honor, Miss Mabel Williamson.

After games at miscellaneous progression and preceding the serving of refreshments little Miss Mary Elizabeth Goggans, representing Dan Cupid, gave each guest a memento announcing the approaching marriage in October of Miss Mabel Williamson to Mr. Edmund Jahnz, of Charleston.

Special Service.

The Sunday school of the St. Matthews congregation, Bethlehem pastorate, will hold a special service on Saturday, August 22, in the interest of Sunday school work. Addresses, recitations and music will be the main feature. Appropriate selections will be rendered by a male quartette.

Miss Gertrude Simpson, of Prosperity, a returned missionary to Africa, will address the Sunday school. The address of welcome will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. R. Homer Anderson. Mr. Jno. C. Goggans, clerk of court, Newberry, will deliver an address, as will also Mr. Thomas Suber, and Mr. Robert Folk.

Dinner will be served at the church. There will be a morning and afternoon programme. All friends of Sunday school work are cordially invited to be present at 10:30 a. m.

TWO BALES NEW COTTON.

Offered Only Nine Cents and No Sale Was Made—Put in Warehouse.

Two bales of new cotton were brought in on Thursday morning by Messrs. Jno. C. Hipp and Jno. A. Senn. This is the first new cotton for Newberry, 1914.

Up to press hour neither bale had been sold, as only 9 cents was offered.

Notice.

There will be an all day service at Beth Eden church on the 5th Sunday in this month. The Rev. Z. W. Bedenbaugh will preach for us in the morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Bedenbaugh has many friends in that community as he was for several years the efficient as well as the beloved pastor of Beth Eden. There will be speaking in the afternoon. We extend a hearty invitation to one and all to be present on that occasion. Come and bring with you well filled baskets and receptive hearts so that we shall be able to feed both the body and the soul.

P. E. Shealy,
Pastor.

T. J. Wilson,
Vice President.

Services at Colony.

The pastor having returned home after a month's vacation, which he much enjoyed, will preach at Colony on next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sunday school promptly at 10 o'clock. Let us all resume our work with renewed interest. Make it a point to be at church every Sunday in time for Sunday school and do not come in when the hour is half over. Serve the Lord faithfully and he will bless us.

Pastor.

Safe and Pleasant.

From a very interesting sketch of Newberry college, by President J. Henry Harms, in the State of Thursday, 20th instant we clip the following gratifying paragraph:

Student life at Newberry is safeguarded by thoughtful plans for their conduct and comfort. The Newberry College club, an organization of graduates and ex-students in the town of Newberry, of which Col. W. H. Hunt is president is laying special plans for the coming session to receive the young men into the homes of the town. Perhaps there is no college where the students and professors live on terms of greater friendliness than at Newberry and nowhere are the citizens more genuinely interested in the affairs of the institution. The students find it a good place to live in, and friends are proud to call Newberry a safe college for anybody's boy.

RURAL GRADED SCHOOL.

St. Phillips Community Vote Four Mills Tax—Will Get State Aid.

The St. Phillips school district has voted a four mills tax and will erect a new building and establish a rural graded school. With 50 children enrolled the district will get $200 State aid for the maintenance of the school and will have two teachers instead of one. This is one of the districts where we had intended to put in a two teacher rural graded school a year ago. It is needed and the good people of the district are taking the right step. The thing to do now is to put up the right kind of building.

Commercial Bank, Newberry, S. C.

Southern Banker for August. Deposits of the Commercial Bank, Newberry, S. C. are getting nearer to the half million dollar mark every day. They are now $427,612. The institution has been on the "Roll of Honor" for some time. Surplus and profits are $76,155 with $50,000 capital. Total resources are $588,500. Jno. M. Kinard, prominent in banking circles of the State, is president and J. Y. McFall, cashier. The Commercial is a State, county and city depository.
