VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

No editorials this issue, the editor is away the entire week. The schools had bracing breezes to open in. A strong man showed giant strength and a pretty lady sang well at the opera house last week. Number bales of cotton ginned to September 1, 1914, 103, against 39 for same time last year. The Ladies Aid society of the Church of the Redeemer will meet with Mrs. C. R. Wise Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Deputy Sheriff Wm. Dorroh arrested and jailed three negroes Sunday night for creating disturbance at the Helena colored Baptist church. Next Tuesday Kibler and Mower run for the house, to see which runs to the house with Chapman and Workman. The court of common pleas will not convene on Monday, but on Wednesday next. Judge Thos. S. Sease will open the fall term. People need not wait until Sunday, October 4, to pray for peace, but that is the day that has been set apart by the president for everybody to pray. By oversight in the last (as well as present) issue of The Herald and News the candidate card of B. V. Chapman appears instead of that of Arthur Kibler. Read the story beginning in The Herald and News today. The pictures will be shown by Manager H. B. Wells at the opera house soon. Watch for date. We have learned that there is a college in Georgia that has advertised that it will accept cotton for the tuition of its pupils.—Thornwell Messenger. Which is a good idea, worthy of imitation. Mr. J. C. Sample didn't exactly like the number 13—said to be unlucky—until he got home the night of the recount and found another future voter there in the form of a 10-pound boy, as a sample of good luck. Photographer Otwey Salter took a fine "view of the situation" on the public square Friday morning. It looks like old times with the wagon loads of cotton and produced a near-good feeling. Interest in the great "buy a bale" movement is sweeping with renewed vigor over the whole South, to judge from reports in southern newspapers and from telegrams received by The Atlanta press.—Atlanta Journal. The buy-a-bale waltz is good music. "We Episcopalians" are going to run the State now; so you Presbyterians, Methodists and Baptists will have to be good.—Rock Hill Record. Manning will not be the first Episcopalian in the chair of governor of South Carolina. The Anderson Mail says the average bridegroom cuts mighty little figure in a wedding but at the same time they couldn't have the wedding without him.—Spartanburg Journal. Seems if he never was intended to cut much of a figure. It is to be hoped that many of our readers are taking advantage of these fine nights to study some of the interesting things to be seen in the early evening sky.—Prof. W. E. Breaegal, formerly of Anderson, now of Rutgers college, New Brunswick, N. J., in New Brunswick News. We have a nice and pretty crowd of young lady teachers at the orphanage. If you don't believe it, come and see.—Thornwell Messenger, Clinton. We believe you, but the Thornwell orphanage is not the only place that has a nice and pretty crowd of teachers. If you don't believe it, come to Newberry and see. Even Hearst is sick of war. He is now trying to sing in tune with Wilson and says, "Let us have peace." Strange note this to come from Hearst, after all he said about Mexico.—Winston-Salem Journal. Such criticisms make us tired. Let us all join in with Hearst or let him join in with us to have peace, if we can. Between Laurens and Clinton one day Mr. Jack Taylor saw two old deer and a young deer.—Thornwell Messenger. That was not our Mr. Jack Taylor, but the one who hunted the deer "way back yonder," according to an account written for the Messenger by Mr. Thomas N. Workman, of Laurens. Capt. M. M. Buford will give all his hands 10 cents the pound for their cotton and if it brings more when sold on the market he will give them the surplus. This is a good deed on Capt. Buford's part and if followed generally would be of great benefit to the country at large as well as to the individuals directly concerned.

Card From Mr. Douglas.

Please allow me space in The Herald and News to express my thanks to the voters who gave me their support in the recent Democratic primaries. I shall always feel under obligations to my good friends for their untiring efforts in my behalf. I wish to assure them that whenever the opportunity presents itself I shall take great pleasure in reciprocating their kindness. I made the race strictly upon my own merits and the vote I received was entirely a voluntary expression of the people in my ability to serve them as a public official. Especially am I proud of the support given me in the wards in which I have lived, Nos. 1, 4 and 5—my home people—where I am known—having carried those boxes. Advo.— C. W. Douglas.

BUY-A-BALE CLUB IS ORGANIZED

SEVERAL HAVE AGREED TO PURCHASE A BALE. Very Enthusiastic Meeting Held Friday Morning and Club Is Organized. In response to a call issued by a number of the citizens of the town a Buy-A-Bale club was organized in Newberry on Friday. It is to be known as the Newberry, S. C., Buy-A-Bale Club. Mr. W. A. Kinard was elected president and E. H. Aull secretary and treasurer. Mr. Kinard stated the object of the meeting to be to try and see if the price of cotton could not be kept up to 10 cents the pound. He said that a short time ago cotton was selling at 14 cents and no wit was only about 7 cents and he wanted to interest the people to buy a bale at 10 cents and hold it off the market. He said similar clubs had been organized elsewhere and he wanted to organize a club in Newberry. The movement he said was not local but looked to the east and the west and the north. Merchants and bankers could get their friends and correspondents in other sections to join in the movement and in this way we could keep a lot of the cotton off the market and keep the price up to a living figure. The watchword of the hour should be cooperation. If all the interests would get together the situation could be relieved. Fred Dominick said that he would be glad to cooperate in helping to relieve the situation. We all realize that there is a crisis confronting us and there was need for cooperation of all interests. He thought much good would come out of the movement to buy a bale. He congratulated the Commercial bank on the start that they had made in buying a bale for each of the officers and employees. But he was afraid that the result of taking only 7 of the 52 bales that were offered would be that the other 45 would be put on the market at a sacrifice. He thought they had better take time and look into the situation seriously and determine what is best to be done. He said that his law firm of Dominick & Workman would agree to take two bales at 10 cents and hold it off the market and if the price advanced give the farmer the advantage of the increase in price. Mr. Harry H. Blease said he was somewhat of a farmer himself. His farming was in wheat growing but he had some experience with a bumper crop and the ruinous results of forcing it on the market and putting the price down. He said that cooperation was what was needed. If the bankers and lenders and men who have claims against the farmer will only be lenient and let the farmers know that they could hold their cotton off the market it would go a long way in relieving the situation. Mr. J. E. Swearingen who was present said he was in hearty sympathy with the movement. He said there were at least 100,000 farmers who were expecting to receive 14 cents for their cotton and it would mean almost ruin if they were forced to sell at prevailing prices. He said the establishment of a fixed price was the main thing and he was willing to help all he could. He wanted to help the honest men to meet their obligations. On motion of Mr. H. H. Blease it was decided to organize. He made a subsequent motion which prevailed that the present officers, John M. Kinard and E. H. Aull be permanent officers of the organization as president and secretary and treasurer respectively, and that an executive committee in addition to the officers be appointed. The following committee was then named: John M. Suber, J. B. Derrick, G. Y. Hunter, J. A. Burton and H. L. Parr, who with the officers constitute the executive committee. The committee will be called to meet at once. This committee is to promulgate the plan and secure members. The following present agreed to buy a bale: Dominick and Workman two bales; Blease and Blease, two bales; C. G. Blease, one bale; Marion H. Blease, one bale. The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. Red Man Gave. American Red Man, Louisville, Ky. "His Excellency Governor Cole, L. Blease," sounds good doesn't it? Great is that title but greater is the title "Great Incolonee" and some do say that Bro. Blease would rather be known as Great Incolonee Blease than Governor Blease. He is some pumpkins in South Carolina and he is some pumpkins in redmanship. When he believes he is right he acts accordingly and does not care what the other fellow thinks.

COMMITTEE DECLARES SAMPLE SUPERVISOR

GIVES HIM MAJORITY OF 13 OVER BOOZER. Mr. S. L. Fellers Withdraws From Race—Hair Declared Nomininee. The county Democratic executive committee met Saturday according to adjournment. There was no quorum present, but Mr. Holloway stated that no question of a quorum would be raised until the committee reached the contests and then he thought there should be a quorum present. The minutes were read and approved. The secretary said he had received a phone message from Mr. S. L. Fellers that he had received no letter from the committee and unless they would give him further time to present evidence from the Little Mountain box that he would withdraw his contest. Some one stated that Mr. Fellers had not filed with the clerk of court an itemized statement of his expenses and that would preclude him from the nomination. Mr. B. B. Leitzsey then moved that Mr. B. B. Hair be declared the nominee for magistrate form No. 9 and the motion prevailed. The committee then took a recess until 11 o'clock. The roll was called and it was found that 24 members were present. The chairman asked if the special committee appointed to recount the votes in the supervisor's race was ready to report and Mr. J. B. O'Neill Holloway submitted the following report on the recount of the vote: To Honorable Jos. L. Keitt, County Chairman: We, the undersigned committee, appointed to examine the ballot boxes of the county as to supervisor's race in the late primary election held September 8, 1914, beg leave respectfully to report: The committee together with two expert accountants, W. W. Cromer and H. W. Dominick, examined the said boxes and ballots contained therein and find the following: Ballots counted for H. M. Boozer, 1482. Ballots counted for J. C. Sample, 1495. All of which is respectfully submitted, J. B. O'Neill Holloway, Chairman. J. R. Green, B. B. Leitzsey, J. M. K. Buzhardt, W. A. McSwain. The chairman then asked the chairman of the special committee to read the report as to changes at the different places in the vote, which was done. Mr. R. T. C. Hunter then moved that Mr. J. C. Sample be declared the nominee of the party for supervisor and the motion was unanimously adopted. The committee then adjourned. Attention Farmers Township No. 7. A meeting of the farmers of No. 7 township is hereby called to meet at the residence of J. S. Dominick Thursday afternoon, September 17, at 3 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a cotton congress and to sign pledges to reduce the cotton acreage in 1915. J. S. Dominick, Committeeman No. 7.
