

GOVERNOR BLEASE MAKES THANKSGIVING OFFERING

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

ed to 10 years imprisonment—five suspended by judge. Paroled, November 25, 1913.

Pardon granted, in order to restore citizens ip, November 25, 1914.

Knight, James, alias Isaac Knight, (colored), convicted at the February, 1911, term of court, for Charleston county, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary or upon the public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Lewis, Oscar, (white), convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for Anderson county, of violating the dispensary law, and sentenced to pay a fine $100.00 or to serve six months upon public works.

Paroled, during good behavior, and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve the sentence above mentioned.

Parole dated November 25, 1914.

McAlister, John, (white), convicted at the June, 1914, term of court for Pickens county, of manslaughter, and sentenced to two years imprisonment upon the public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

McGirt, James, (colored), convicted at the November, 1914, term of court for Kershaw county, of violation of the dispensary law, (two cases) and sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 or to serve four months on public works, in each case.

Paroled, during good behavior, and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve the sentences above mentioned. The fines above mentioned which have been levied and collected are hereby ordered returned to the said James McGirt by the proper officer of Kershaw county.

Wearior, R. C., (white), convicted at the November, 1914, term of court for Oconee county, of violation of the dispensary law, and sentenced to pay a fine of $300.00 or to serve six months on public works.

Paroled, during good behavior, and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve the sentence above mentioned.

Parole dated November 25, 1914.

Mimms, W. L., (white), convicted at the March, 1914, term of court for Barnwell county, of assault and battery with intent to kill, and sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 or to serve six months on public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Moseley, L. C., (white), convicted at the March, 1912, term of court for Oconee county of seduction, and sentenced to five years on public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Moore, Miles, convicted at the January, 1912, term of court for Greenville county of assault and battery with intent to kill, and sentenced to five years on public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Murphy, Ben, (colored), convicted at the February, 1914, term of court for Fairfield county of breach of trust, and sentenced to 18 months on public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Murphy, James, (colored), convicted at the February, 1914, term of court for Fairfield county, of breach of trust, and sentenced to 18 months on public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Nichols, George, (white), convicted at the November, 1910, term of court for Lexington county, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary, or upon the public works of Lexington county.

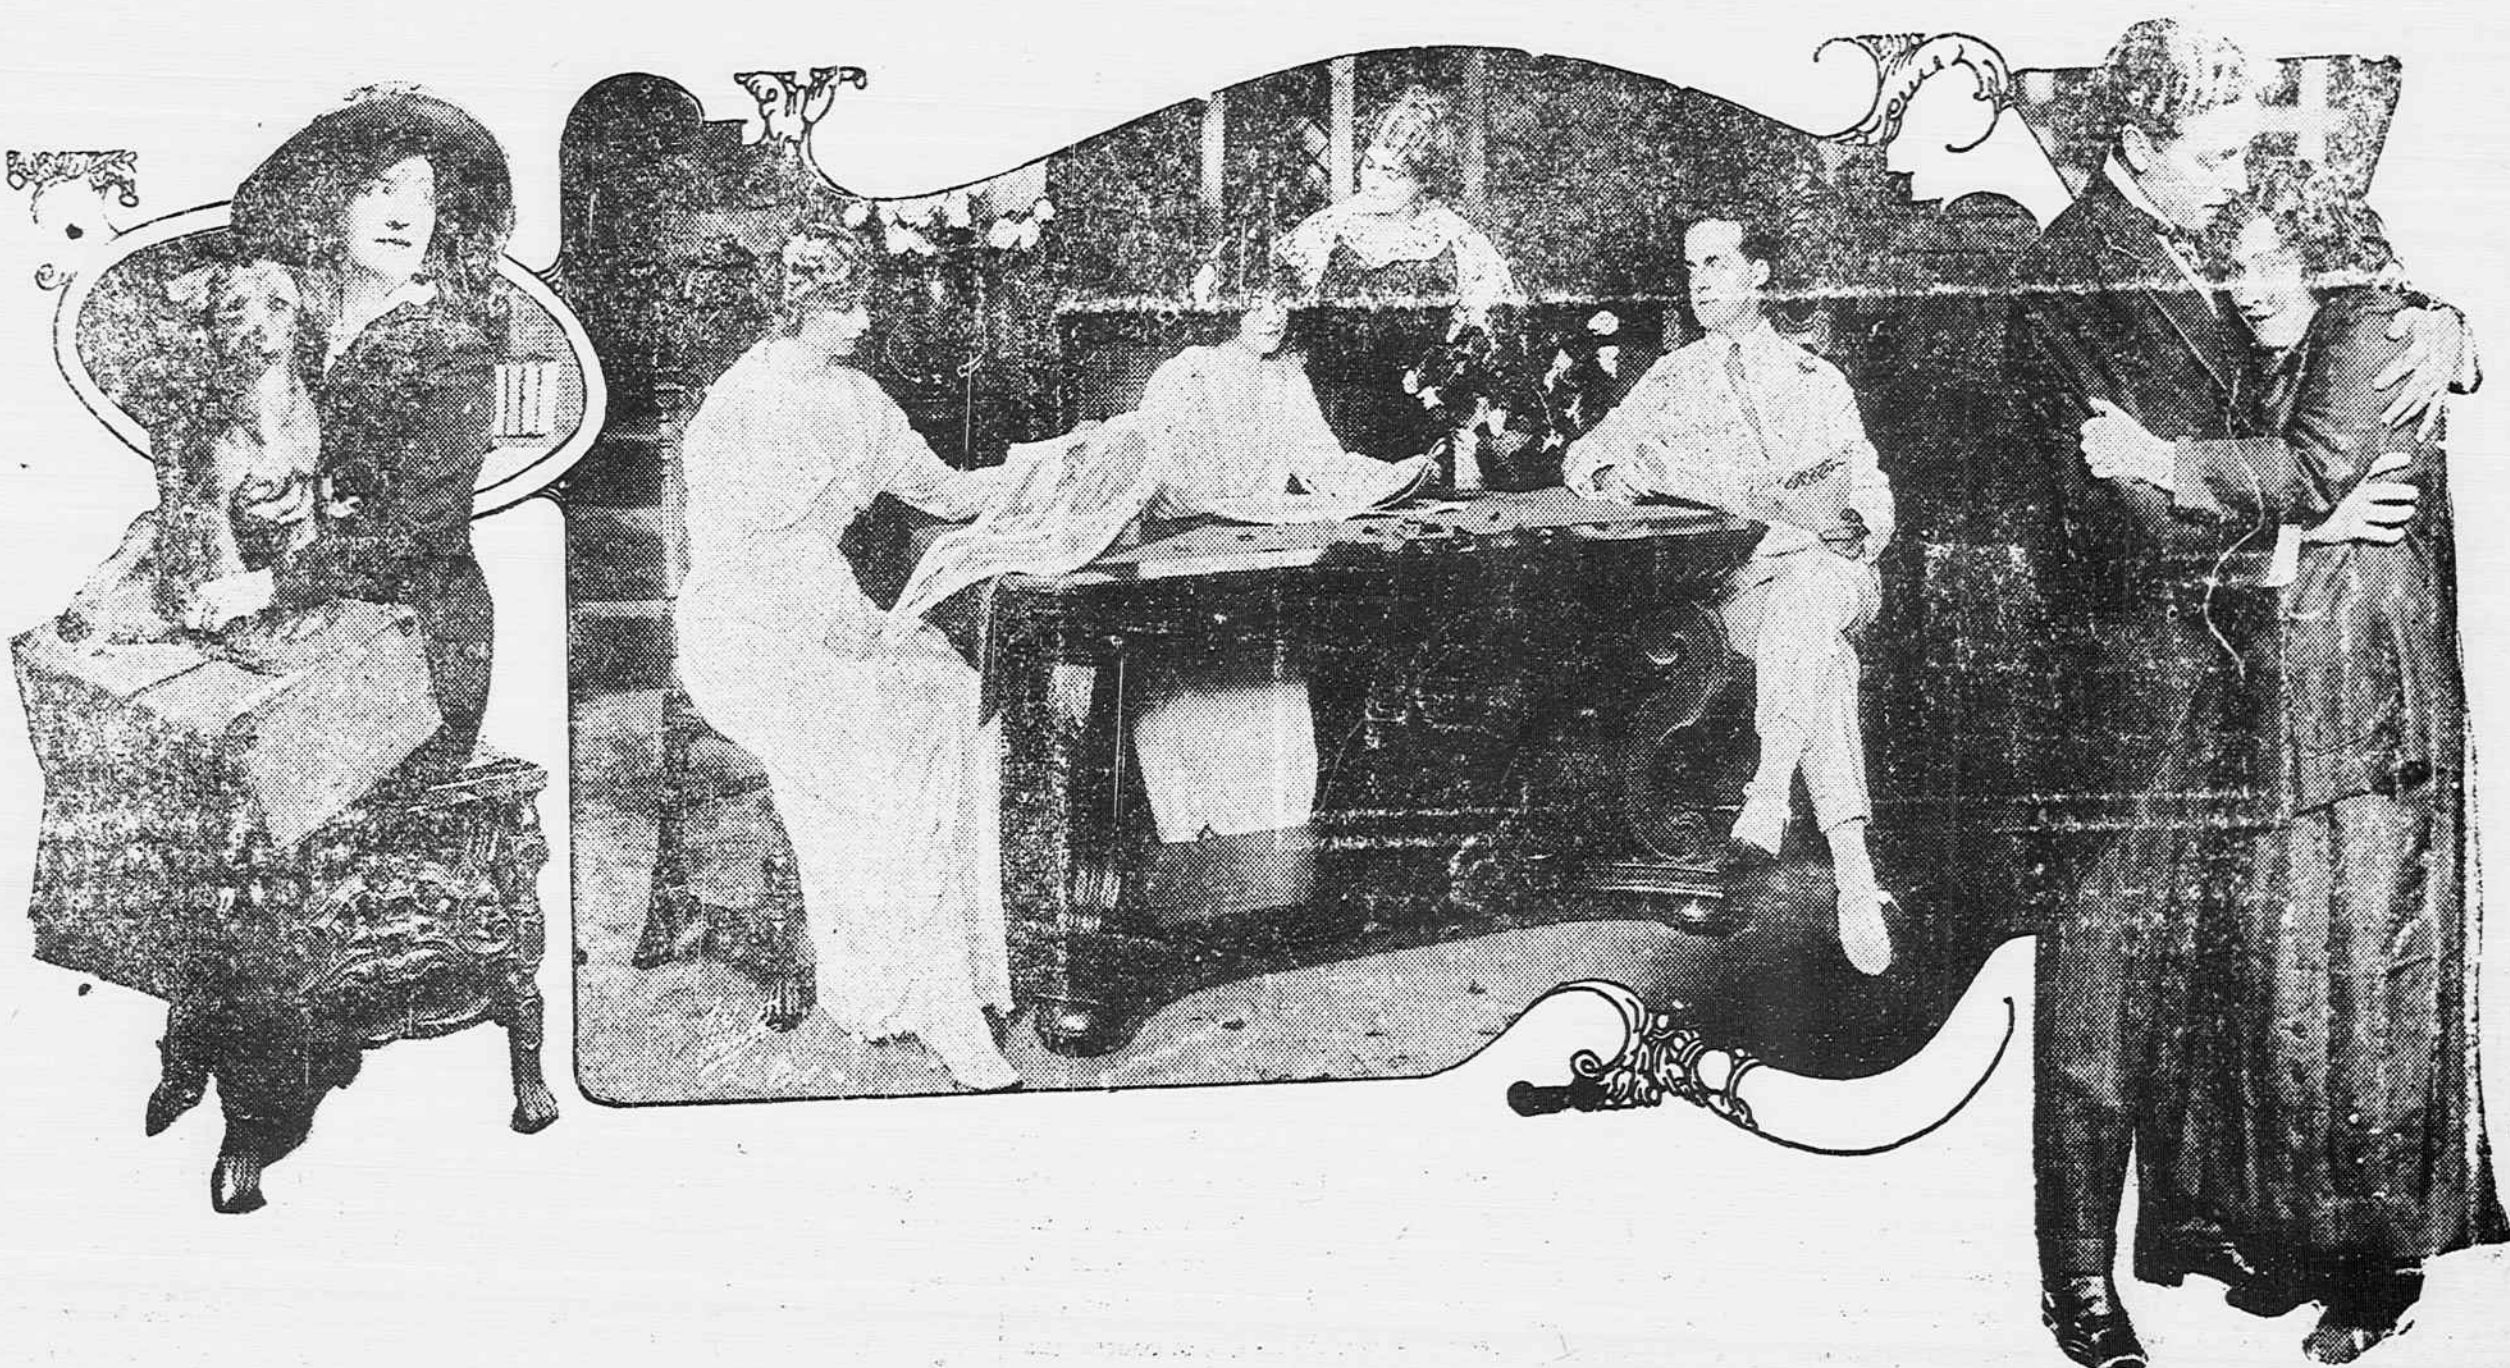

Paroled, upon the condition that he leave the State of South Carolina within 24 hours and never return. Should he ever return he shall be arrested and recommitted to serve the above sentence.

Odom, Bart, (white), convicted at the April, 1914, term of court for Spartanburg county, of manslaughter, and sentenced to three years on the public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Owens, John T., (white), convicted at the September, 1906, term of court for Berkeley county, of manslaughter, and sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the State penitentiary. Commenced serving sentence, March 4, 1908, paroled during good behavior, and upon the further condition that he do not drink any intoxicating liquors or beverages, January 15, 1914.

Pardon granted November 25, 1914.

"PEG O' MY HEART." "There's nothing succeeds like success", finds an echo in the wonderful success attained by Oliver Morosco's delightful "PEG O' MY HEART", which will be seen at the CITY OPERA HOUSE on MONDAY NIGHT NEXT. Coming as it does with the stamp of approval of playgoers everywhere, this charming comedy of youth, could present no greater endorsement than its record run of 604 consecutive performances at the Cort Theatre, New York, and that local patrons want no better recommendation, is attested by the current comment and personal view, by those who have been fortunate enough to witness the famous "Manners" play. The author, with a view of giving the public what they want, has interwoven a delicate love story with an abundance of clever wit, in so unique a manner as to make it absolutely original. It is one of the prettiest and cleanest comedies seen on the stage in many years. Rea Martin will be seen in the title role, surrounded by a notable cast of players which includes Frederick Meads, Harry Calver, George Mendelssohn, Raymond Branley, Clara Sidrov, Helen Haskell, George Claire and Kittie O'Connor, comes as a welcome relief after the "sameness" a season always brings in the way of plays. No theatrical offering in the past twenty years has left such a lasting impression upon our playgoing public, as has Oliver Morosco's fortune-making success. This delicate little comedy with its mixture of fun and pathos, presents life in its true lights, with a deeper motive than can be attributed to any of the other plays Mr. Manners has given to the stage. No more distinguished company has ever visited Newberry and the complete Southern city production is announced.

Page, Willie, (colored), convicted at the June, 1898, term of court for Aiken county, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary or upon the public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Patrick, Henry, (white), convicted at the November, 1903, term of court for Marlboro county, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary. Paroled, during good behavior, December 31, 1913.

Pardon, in order to restore citizenship, November 25, 1914.

Phelps, Henry, (colored), convicted at the September, 1914, term of court for Laurens county, of manslaughter, and sentenced to two years on public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Pressley, Henry, (colored), convicted at the April, 1912, term of court for Anderson county, of manslaughter, and sentenced to 10 years imprisonment upon the public works.

Paroled during good behavior, November 25, 1914.

Richey, R. A., (white), convicted at the spring, 1910, term of court for Abbeville county, of statutory rape, and sentenced to ten years imprisonment in State penitentiary. Paroled under certain condition, said conditions being set out in the parole, December 12, 1912.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Roberts, Isaac M., (white), convicted at the October, 1914, term of court for Georgetown county, of manslaughter, and sentenced to three years on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Sheppard, Daniel, (colored), convicted at the September, 1911, term of court for Beaufort county, of attempt to poison, and sentenced to four years imprisonment in the State reformatory. (penitentiary.)

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Small, Chris, (colored), convicted at the November, 1899, term of court for Charleston county, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary, or on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Smith, H. L. (white), convicted at the October, 1914, term of court for Cherokee county, of violation of the dispensary law, and sentenced to pay a fine of $200.00 or to serve six months on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Paroled, during good behavior, and upon further condition that should he ever be convicted of violating the dispensary law he shall be required to serve the sentence above mentioned.

Parole dated November 25, 1914.

Stancil, E. S., (white), convicted at the March, 1914, term of court for Oconee county, of assault and battery with intent to kill, and sentenced to eight years on public works.

Stroud, Burroughs, (white), convicted at the February, 1914, term of court for Horry County, of manslaughter, and sentenced to five years on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Thompson, C. C., (white), convicted at the March, 1912, term of court for Cherokee county, of forgery, and sentenced to 12 months on public works.

Pardon, in order to restore citizenship, he having served the sentence imposed upon him. Pardon dated November 25, 1914.

Thornton, J. M., (white), convicted at the September, 1914, term of court for Richland county, of assault and battery with intent to kill, and sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 or to serve one year on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Thornton, P. H., (white), convicted at the September, 1914, term of court for Richland county, of assault and battery with intent to kill, and sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 or to serve one year on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Tobe, John Henry, (colored), convicted at the September, 1914, term of court for Lexington county, of assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons, and sentenced, 18 months first case, 30 days second case, on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Tyner, W. T., (white), convicted at the March, 1914, term of court for Oconee county, of assault and battery with intent to kill, and sentenced to eight years on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Washington, General, (colored), convicted at the June, 1910, term of court for Florence county, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary or upon the public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

White, Will, (white), convicted at the September, 1913, term of court for Marlboro county, of involuntary manslaughter, and sentenced to two years on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Williams, Alonzo, (colored), convicted at the March, 1906, term of court for Lee county, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

Commuted to 20 years on public works, January 30, 1914.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Wilson, Jack, (white), convicted at the November, 1913, term of court for Colleton county, of larceny of live stock, and sentenced to 18 months upon the public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Wrighting, Tom, (white), convicted at the August, 1914, term of court for Spartanburg county, of violation of the dispensary law, and sentenced to pay a fine of $300.00 or to serve six months on public works.

Paroled, during good behavior, and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve the remainder of the sentence above mentioned. Parole dated November 25, 1914.

Spencer, Samuel, (white), convicted February 13, 1914, before judge of probate for Richland county, of house-breaking and larceny, and sentenced to confinement in the South Carolina Industrial school, at Florence, S. C., until he becomes 21 years of age.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Wilson, Lizzie, (colored), convicted at the January, 1912, term of court for Greenville county, of manslaughter, and sentenced to five years.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Jackson, R. T., (white), convicted at the March, 1914, term of court for Marlboro county, of assault and battery of high and aggravated nature, sentenced six months.

Sentence commuted to a fine of $50 or six months on public works.

Paroled during good behavior November 25, 1914.

Pope, J. D., (white), convicted at the March, 1914, term of court for Marlboro county, for assault and battery of high and aggravated nature, sentence to six months on public works.

Sentence commuted to $50 or six months.

Help the Orphans.

Chappells, S. C., Nov. 24, 1914.

Editor The Herald and News:

Will you please state in your paper that the pastor of Saluda and Cross Roads Baptist churches has made arrangements with the Southern Railway to ship free, all boxes of canned goods, also sweet potatoes, to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, Greenwood, S. C.

So all who can spare anything in this line, if they will bring it to Chappells, and leave in depot by the first of December, it will be packed together and shipped promptly.

We have done little in dollars and cents; can't we do something in this way?

Yours truly,

Pastor.

Land Sale
Notice

For sale on easy terms, all lands belonging to the estate of Mrs. H. C. Moseley, wife of the late H. C. Moseley.

Tract No. 1. Containing 55 acres, known as the Young Grave Place.

Tract No. 2. Containing 67½ acres, known as the Pink Brown Tract, will sell in 10 acre lots, or a whole. Part of the tract lies within the corporate limits of the town of Prosperity.

Tract No. 3. Fair Place containing 132½ acres.

Tract No. 4. The Atkins place, containing 190 acres.

Tract No. 5. The Hair Woods tract, containing 135 acres.

Tract No. 6. The H. C. Moseley home place.

Will sell, if party so desires, the H. C. Moseley dwelling with 10 acres of land, or as much land as party may wish.

For information write

T. D. COPELAND, Clinton, S. C.

or call on

W. A. MOSELEY, Prosperity, S. C.

Beth Eden Pastorate.

There will be divine service at St. James church 5th Sunday a. m., at 11 o'clock, and at Beth Eden at 3 o'clock p. m. There was no service held in either of the above churches on the third Sunday on account of the rough weather.

P. E. Shealy.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of H. W. GROVE, 25c.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly. The only standard general strengthening tonic. GROVE'S TASTELESS chill tonic, drives out malaria, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children. 25c.