

NEWS OF SILVERSTREET.

Opening of the School—Crops Fine—Business Good—Officers of Missionary Society.

Silverstreet, Sept. 9.—The Silver-street High school will open next Monday morning, September 13th. This promises to be a very prosperous cholastic year.

The superintendent is Prof. S. P.
Koon. The intermediate department will be taught by Miss Dollie Mae Senn and the primary department by Miss Jerna Summer of Columbia. All pupils are urged to be present the first day. The patrons and friends will be welcome also. Superintendent Chas.
P. Barre is expected to give an address.

Miss Tena Wise of Prosperity visited Miss Elizabeth Fant the past week.
Misses Alice Cannon and Rose Nichols of Utopia spent the past week-end with Miss Helen Nichols.

Miss Bessie Zimmerman has returned to her home in Donald, after an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. H. B.
Senn.

Miss Helen Nichols will return on Tuesday to Summerland college.

Mrs. B. M. Havird and children and Mrs. D. L. Hamm spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. P. Wheeler at Prosperity.

Mr. J. M. Nichols carried a crowd to conference at Little Mountain in his car last Friday. They had a very enjoyable trip. Those who went were Mesdames J. M. Nichols, D. L. Hamm, R. S. Boozer and Miss Rose Hamm.

Rev. S. P. Koon attended conference at Little Mountain last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. George C. Blair went to Columbia Tuesday to see his wife, who is in the hospital for treatment.

The members of the Women's Missionary society met last Monday in the Lutheran church and held their annual election of officers, resulting as follows. President, Mrs. R. S. Boozer; first vice president, Mrs. S. P. Koon; second vice president, Mrs. J. M. Nichols; recording secretary, Mrs. D. L.
Hamm; corresponding secretary, Mrs.
S. H. Paysinger; treasurer, Mrs. B. M.
Havird.

Mr. D. L. Hamm has a very tempting looking pea patch. So much so that he can hardly keep the colored laborers from it. There were only thirty-five or forty who wanted to grab peas last Monday morning.

Everything seems to be booming.
The crops are fine. The gin has opened up for business again.

The house on the Pitts place, near Silverstreet (owned by Mrs. Sudie Miller of Columbia), is being remodeled by Mr. Thomas Bein and son Raymond.
It will be much improved.

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Fulenwider, Pastor.) Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

10:15 A. M.—The Sunday school meets. The vacation season is over, and parents and children are urged to be in their places in the school.

11:15 A. M.—The regular morning service. The pastor will preach a special sermon on the subject "Why Did Jesus Go to Church?" Text, Luke 4:16, "As his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day." Jesus was constantly found in the synagogue on the Sabbath day. It was "his custom" to be there. We would construe this to mean that Jesus considered the matter of church attendance of serious importance. In this, as in so many other things, Jesus set us a beautiful example. The subject is of more serious importance than many people think. It is a good habit, but like all good habits it is very easy to neglect, and once neglected it is hard to take it up again. There are thousands of good people today who are not attending their churches, not because they do not like the church or the pastor, but because they have gotten out of the good habit of going. If any such may read the subject of this sermon, and will attend service Sunday morning we feel sure something will be said to encourage them to take this important matter seriously to heart.

5 P. M.—The Young Men's Mission band meets in the church, and the members are requested to be present.

8 P. M.—An evening service of song and prayer, with a short sermon by the pastor on the subject, "Childish-ness in Religion Unmanly." Text, I Cor., 13:11, "When I became a man, I put away childish things." The sermon will be practical.

There will be good music at all the services. The public is cordially invited.

Mimnaugh Returns.

Mr. James A. Mimnaugh returned last Saturday from the Northern markets, where he made his fall and winter purchases. He says that money is plentiful in the East and at a low rate of interest if you have the right sort of paper, or credit. He anticipates a good season and expects business to brighten up very soon.

He has a full line in all departments of his large store and of the latest patterns and designs, and is prepared to serve his customers better than ever.

Miss Smith, who has been with him for the past two seasons, will be in charge of the millinery department again this season. She is an expert in her line and is well known to the ladies of Newberry, and they will be pleased to know that she is to be in charge of the millinery department again this season.

What Did Dick See?

Anderson Farmers' Tribune.

The local editor of The Newberry Herald and News, in his "Various and About" column, says that "We shall see September morn approaching in her fall costume. Soon she will be knocking at the gate of the city." What Dick saw was not September morn in her fall costume. It was only one of Newberry's fashionable girls who got between him and the sun which caused the thought of September Morn.

Do Not Sacrifice
Your Cotton

With the facilities offered us through the Federal Reserve System, we are now prepared to loan every farmer in Newberry County enough money to prevent a sacrifice of his 1915 Cotton Crop. If the price of cotton continues below the cost of production, we feel sure that no intelligent farmer will voluntarily throw his crop on the market. With this idea in view we have prepared ourselves to help you.

If you wish to avail yourself of our services, confer with some of the officers of our bank at your convenience.
