CORN AND TOMATO CLUBS

Boys and Girls Will Have an Exhibit at Newberry Saturday—Several Speakers.

The Boys' Corn club and the Girls' Tomato club will have a demonstration in Newberry on Saturday of this week. The exhibits will be in the vacant store room next door to the Mower company. The Boys' Corn club will be under the direction of Mr. T. M. Mills and tomato girls will be in charge of Miss Willie Mae Wise.

A list of the prizes in the Boys' Corn club has already been printed. The exhibits which will be at Newberry will be taken to the State fair. Mr. Mills has arranged with Mr. L. L. Baker, State agent for the boys' club work, and Mr. C. S. Patrick, county agent for Saluda county, to make talks to the boys and others who may be interested. The addresses will be made in the court house between 11 and 12 o'clock. It is expected that Mr. B. L. Chapman and Mr. Geo. D. Brown will also speak at that time.

Miss Wise expects to have some one interested in the tomato club work to make talks to the girls and others who may be interested, but she could not announce the names.

This is an important and helpful work and the people should be interested and come out to see what the boys and girls have done and give them encouragement.

Assistant Teacher Elected.

Miss Marietta Langford of Newberry has been elected assistant teacher in Cleveland school. Miss Langford comes well endorsed, and with Miss Mary Fleming as principal, this school, known as the blue ribbon school of the county, will be expected to maintain its high standard of efficiency. "The Red Rose."

"The Red Rose" will appear at the Newberry opera house next Wednesday evening. Manager Wells is enabled to secure this high class company simply because they had an aff date, and the people of Newberry should manifest their appreciation by giving him a full house.

The following comment on the play is from The State after the performance in Columbia and not a stock notice of the performance:

"The Red Rose," a musical comedy of Paris, with book and lyrics by Harry B. and Robert B. Smith, and music by Robert Hood Bowers, pleased a fair sized audience at the Columbia theater last night. It was the second appearance of the piece in the city and it was rather extraordinary to find that this year's company is much superior to the one that first presented it here.

The members of the chorus are well trained and their voices are strong and good. The work of the chorus is a feature of the show.

Donald Archer played the part of the Hon. Lionel Talboys, who couldn't check his love. Mr. Archer made a whole lot out of his role, proving himself the best fun maker of the company. The principal part, which is that of Lola, the artist's model, was done by Miss Marguerite DeVon, a dashing, enthusiastic girl, who sings well and dances ever better.

In costumes and scenery the manager has not been stingy. He has fitted out the production with taste and each detail is entirely becoming. The best way to tell whether the audience thinks it is getting its money's worth is by the applause. The theater patrons last night called freely for encores, especially during the last act, which would go to say that "The Red Rose" made a hit.

SCRUBS VS. VARSITY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Another game has been arranged between the scrubs and varsity for Friday afternoon.

The first game of this kind was played last Saturday afternoon and the scrubs showed unusual strength against the heavier varsity line.

In view of the fact that the scrubs are to meet the Clemson reserves on next Wednesday at the Belton fair, they have gone through a week of grilling practice under the supervision of Assistant Coach McLean, and from all indications tomorrow's game promises to be a hard fought battle.

From the rumors which are floating around, many seem to give the second team the odds in tomorrow's game. While the scrubs have shown much improvement through this week's practice, the varsity has been considerably strengthened by the return of R. Baker, who has been out of the game, suffering a broken arm.

These games are being played in order that the enthusiasts of the town may have an opportunity of seeing the teams work out.

The management is glad to announce that the game which was to have been played in Columbia on Wednesday, October 27, with Wofford, will be played on the local gridiron on Tuesday, October 26.

The game tomorrow will be called at 4 o'clock and an admission of 5 cents and 10 cents will be charged. Ladies will be admitted free.

The following line-up will start the game:

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Fulewider, Pastor.) Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

- 10:15 A. M.—Sunday school. Teachers and classes for all who attend. 11:15 A. M.—The morning service. The subject of the sermon will be "The Type Men;" texts, Luke 20:29, "And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig tree and all the trees;" Matt. 12:33, "For the tree is known by its fruit."

Jesus was fond of using the trees to express some of the most profound and beautiful lessons of His gospel. In the sermon at least four kinds of trees will be used to represent four types of people. An interesting and profitable question to those who hear the sermon will be, "Where do I belong?" The sermon will be exceedingly practical, and so simple that the child will understand it.

7:30 P. M.—The evening service of song and prayer. The pastor will preach a sermon on the subject, "Three Kinds of Christians; Their Power and Influence." These will be presented under the titles, "Tired," "Retired" and "Tireless." Each class is largely represented in the world.

There will be good music at all the services. The public is cordially invited.

Would you judge of the lawfulness or the unlawfulness of pleasure; take this rule. Whatever weakens your reason, impairs the tenderness of your conscience, obscures your sense of God or takes off the relish of spiritual things; whatever increases the authority of your body over your mind—that thing, to you, is sin.—Except from a letter to John Wasley by his mother.

Can so much gall find place in godly souls?—Bolleau.
