VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Plenty of spot cotton, but so far mighty little spotted cotton.

Newberry is a good town for conventions, and conventions are good for Newberry. Let us have more of them.

Rutherford academy opened its session last Monday with Prof. Murray Rikard as teacher.

Prof. L. W. Bedenbaugh, assisted by his wife, opened the Smyrna school last Monday week.

St. Luke's school opens the 18th inst., with Miss Barnett, principal.

There is only one thing that can't live and thrive in Newberry. Can you guess what this is? If you can not, we will tell you next week.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Klettner.

The parent-teachers' association of the Boundary Street school will meet at the school house on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Read all the advertisements in this issue of The Herald and News. They are fresh and good news and will tell you where to supply your wants in up-to-date merchandise.

The library association will meet Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the library. All members are urged to be present.

The Calendar society of the Central Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. T. B. Wicker.

The mother-teachers' association of the Speers Street school will meet at the school building Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Helping Hand society of Smyrna church will give an oyster supper next Friday, beginning at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, at Mrs. B. R. Guin's, at the Longshore place.

The Benevolent society of the Ave-leigh Presbyterian church will have a sale of house aprons and candy on Saturday, October 16, in the vacant storeroom next door to the Mower company.

All the members of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church who have not sent in their special offering for State missions will please do so at once, as the books close on October 15. Forward money to Mrs. A. T. Brown, treasurer.

Mr. W. G. Peterson, the voluntary observer, says his thermometer registered 42 on Saturday morning and that he himself saw frost that morning. It was the first frost of the season. There has been frost one or two mornings since, but not a killing frost.

Sam Nance, a respected colored man, died at the home of his son at Silverstreet on Sunday night and will be buried Tuesday at Helena. Sam Nance was for a long time in the employ of the late Mr. R. L. McCaughrin and was a faithful servant.

Mr. Jos. T. Hutchinson, manager of Caldwell & Haltiwanger's big dry goods store, regrets that he had not sufficient help on Saturday to serve the customers properly and desires to announce that he has made arrangements to avoid any such contingency in the future.

Dr. Young, father-in-law of Mrs. Thos. P. Wicker of this city, has a young son, Irvin T. Young, in the American navy, who was present and witnessed the raising of the ill-fated F-4 and the recovery of the bodies of the crew, in Honolulu harbor some weeks ago.

All the members of the Woman's society of the First Baptist church who have not sent in their special offering for State missions will please do so at once, as the books close on October 15. Forward the money to Mrs. A. T. Brown, treasurer.

Willie Caldwell's bicycle couldn't stand the muddy streets, so it pulled Willie up on the cement sidewalk and ran with him quite a distance before he could induce the obstreperous wheel to return to the street. When Willie walked out of the recorder's court his bank account was shy one dollar.

Newberry College Y. M. C. A. will be represented at the S. C. Y. M. C. A. student conference which will meet with Furman university, Greenville, S. C., Oct. 14-17, by the following men: Geo. S. Bowden, Geo. A. Clauss, Roy L. Ballentine, Geo. B. Derrick, Carroll D. Hipp, Ralph W. Sease, D. L. Haigler and Marion H. Blease.

Said one lady to another on the crowded streets Saturday: "Tell her I will meet her at the rest room." The reported caught this remark in passing and he could make a long story setting forth the advantages of the ladies' rest room, but it is not necessary. This incident is only one of many similar ones, and speaks for itself.

A Ford from the low country, Charleston, we think, came through on Saturday morning from Union and Whitmore over the Appalachian highway. It was pretty muddy and the driver said he came along all right except he had to call in the help of a couple of mules once or twice. The fresh worked road after the rain was bad, but we are told a good road has been made between Newberry and Whitmore.

Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Conrad are stopping at the Savoy hotel. Mr. Conrad is conducting a factory exhibition of pianos from the great Kimball plant in Chicago. The exhibition is at the Bushardt-Langford furniture store. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad will no doubt be pleasantly remembered by a large number of Newberry people, as they were here some seven years ago conducting a display of the same pianos.

Welch Wilbur got tired of waiting on the proper authorities to fix the road which leads through Helena out by his place, so one day last week he took his own mules and hands and, beginning at the corporate limits, he worked through Helena and out as far as his place, putting the road in fine shape. No road easers, or road smoothers could be sold to auto owners if there were enough men of this type in the county.

Death of Solomon Levin.

Solomon Levin, known in the lower part of the county, where he lived for many years, as King Solomon, died Sunday of malaria, on the place of Mr. Henry Counts, near Pomaria. He was attended by Dr. Pinner, but refused to take medicine. For many years he peddled goods, but of late years he had tried to farm on a small scale.

His people live in Pittsburg and have been notified. In case they fail to make disposition of the body, the Jews in Newberry will carry the body to Columbia, where the remains will be interred.

Death of Little Child.

The one-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of the St. Phillips community died Sunday and was buried at St. Phillips church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Y. von A. Riser.

Hard Fight at Belgrade.

Paris, Oct. 1.—Three-quarters of the city of Belgrade has been destroyed by six thousand Austro-German shells and the fighting continues, according to an Athens dispatch to the Matin. Telephone communication between Belgrade and Nish has been cut.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FEDERATION

An Interesting and Instructive Meeting—Next Convention in Greenville.

The fifth annual convention of the Young People's Federation of South Carolina convened October 8, at 8 p. m., in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Pastor Fulenwider, after which Mr. Chas. P. Barre of Newberry welcomed the delegates and friends to the convention. Response to his address was made by Miss Elizabeth Voigt of Columbia. She assured the good people of Newberry the hearty appreciation and thanks for their welcome and hospitality.

A telegram from Prof. G. P. Voigt, ex-president of the federation, was read expressing his regrets for his absence.

Greetings from South Carolina synod were extended through its president, Rev. P. E. Monroe. In his remarks he said that the synod was proud of the federation, and looked upon it as one of the chief organizations of the Lutheran church.

Mrs. M. O. J. Kreps of Columbia spoke on behalf of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies. Mrs. Kreps said she believed the federation to be the "missing link" between the children's and women's societies.

Rev. H. A. McCullough of Columbia spoke in behalf of the Home Mission board. He expressed his hearty cooperation and thanks for their past support to the home board and urged them to continue their good work in building up the kingdom of our Master.

Rev. R. C. Holland, D. D., president of the Foreign Mission board of the United Synod of the South, spoke in behalf of the foreign board. He paid beautiful tribute to our beloved missionaries and commended their good work. He expressed the hope that some of those present would also join them in the future.

Announcements were made by Acting President C. E. Norman of Columbia, regarding the session for Saturday, and the registration and assignment of delegates.

The session was brought to a close by the singing of a hymn and benediction by President J. H. Harms of Newberry college.

After the session the delegates and friends were tendered a reception by the local societies. A delightful course of cream was served in corners.

Saturday sessions were strictly business, reports were made by various officers and committees. The conference adjourned at 4:15 in order to attend a football game between the varsity and scrubs of Newberry college.

Saturday night Dr. J. C. Seegers of Columbia addressed the federation. His subject was "Thy Kingdom Come." On Saturday morning Rev. W. H. Greener, D. D., of Columbia, addressed the convention and congregation on "The Work, the Master, and the Worker."

There were short talks made on Sunday night by members of the federation, which closed the annual session.

The next session of the federation will be held in the First Lutheran church of Greenville, beginning the first Friday in October, 1916. C. E. Norman was elected a delegate from the federation to the Woman's Missionary convention to be held at Ehrhardt. Robert F. Bowe was elected a delegate to the South Carolina synod, which is to meet in Newberry in November.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: C. E. Norman of the Lutheran Theological seminary, president; C. H. Kreps of Columbia, vice president; J. B. Ballentine of Gibson, N. C., recording secretary; Miss Rosalyn Hipp of Newberry, corresponding secretary; J. Ira Haltiwanger of Columbia, treasurer; Miss Rosalyn Summer of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., literary secretary; Miss Carolyn Voigt of Columbia, archivist.

Wilson Approves Note.

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Wilson today approved finally the new note to Great Britain protesting against interferences with neutral trade. It will go to London at once. Arrangements for publication will be made later. The note is very long and goes into details of some cases of which American protests are founded.

Death of a Little Girl.

Frances Erlene, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Setzler, died at her home in Pomaria Thursday afternoon after a brief illness of only a few days, and was buried at Bethlehem on Friday, at 4 o'clock, services by Rev. S. C. Ballentine.

Erlene was a very bright and affectionate child, having endeared herself to all those who knew her.

We wish to extend to Mr. and Mrs. Setzler our heart felt sympathy in the loss of their dear one.

FARMERS' EXCHANGE.

Cotton is now selling for a fair price, and it is a good time to keep it selling at a fair price. Put in a large acreage to wheat and oats, raise your bread and meat at home. This will not only help next year's cotton market, but will materially aid in maintaining a good price this fall. The farmer, by reducing acreage this year has brought about better prices, and has the situation completely under control now and it is truly hoped that he will further improve the situation by seeding largely to grain and plant small acreage to cotton next year. You can sell cotton at 12 to 15 cents in 1916, or 7 to 10 cents. What will you do?

Treat seed oats with formalin to prevent smut. One pound or pint will treat 25 or 30 bushels.

Select cotton seed for planting next year that is free from disease. If you have cotton badly affected with antraknose (boll rot), plant something else on land next year and get healthy seed for planting elsewhere.

Clothes and the Man

A man's success, like that of a store, depends much on the kind of publicity he gets.

Perhaps in no other way is he so consistently and persistently advertised as by the very clothes on his back. The man who shows good judgment generally is apt to show it in Michaels-Stern clothes.

He finds in them a horse-sense combination of the USEFUL and the ORNAMENTAL.
