VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

November arrived yesterday on schedule time.

Ted Folk of Virginia is back at college.

The big cost sale continues unabated at the Ewart-Perry company.

Mr. Nat Gist was the winner of five prizes at the State fair on his horses.

The Calvin Crozier chapter, U. D. C., will meet with Miss Florence Bowman Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

It was Bobby Burns who said "When chill November's surly blast made fields and forests bare."

Copeland Bros. say they can fit you out from head to foot and they tell you all about it in another column.

October goes out with some of that beautiful blue October weather. Sunday was a fine day.

The auditor has about completed the books and the treasurer will soon be ready to receive your tax money.

Mrs. R. C. Boyleston and children of Blackville are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davidson.

The Drayton Rutherford Chapter, U. D. C., will meet at Mrs. J. H. West's Tuesday at 4 o'clock.

The Winthrop Daughters will meet with Miss Elizabeth Dominick Wednesday afternoon at 4:30.

Mr. Custis L. Lietzsey has been appointed letter carrier on route No. 2 out of Silverstreet. Mr. Lietzsey began service yesterday, Monday, the 1st.

Robert Porterfield, who had been summoned to appear in the recorder's court as a witness, failed to show up and was fined $1.00.

The county chain gang is claying the sandy stretch of road in front of Mrs. Sue Maybin's residence in the eastern suburbs of the city.

Mr. T. W. McCullough of the Mollohon section of Newberry county suffered a partial stroke of paralysis on Sunday, but was some improved on Monday.

Newberry has several fine pigeon farms. One by Mr. Julius Booser and one by Mr. Willie Wicker and one by Mr. H. H. Kinard, and they have some fine birds. And it is quite an industry. (The Wednesday pictures will be for the benefit of Boundary Street school and will be particularly good. Come out to see the pictures and help the school.

Sow oats and wheat. At least in sufficient quantity to give you plenty of bread and meat for the farm. It pays to raise what you need on the farm, even if cotton should go to 20 cents and seed one dollar a bushel.

The Herald and News is still selling at $1.31 for the paper alone for one year and for $1.49 for the paper and four magazines. Now is the time to renew your subscription or to start out new.

A large red apple received yesterday by Mr. C. A. Bowman from Miss Mabel Marshall of Logansport, Ind., is a thing of beauty. It weighs 14 ounces and measures 1 1/2 inches in circumference.

The Silverstreet Rural School Improvement association will give an oyster supper Friday night, November 5. Every one is invited to come, from 5 to 10 o'clock.

It is stated that the largest crowd ever assembled in South Carolina, was in Columbia Thursday—50,000. Maybe so, but it is estimated that there were 30,000 in the State of Newberry on circus day.

Joe Hutchison says meet your friends at Caldwell & Haltiwanger's for all the things you need in ready to wear and for notions and anything that a lady needs for the fall and winter.

"Hitch up and come quick" is the message Minnaugh sends out to his friends and all persons who are interested in fall suits for ladies and anything in his big store for the bargains are now offered.

Moseley Bros. of Prosperity, one of the oldest and most substantial firms of the county are going out of business. See their ad in another column. It will not seem like Prosperity without this old firm.

The ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church at Clinton will hold their annual bazaar and chrysanthemum show Wednesday and Thursday, November 10 and 11, serving turkey dinners both days.

Grady Reed and Sam Mills, white boys of the Mollohon mill village, had a scrimmage a few days ago and Monday morning they paid a visit to Magistrate Player's court and also paid $2 each for fighting.

Sam Dominick showed the show visitors a sho-nuff car when he led the band parade under the mammoth tent of the Hagenbeck-Wallace show Wednesday afternoon. He drove a new demonstrator Overland, which he is selling.

The ladies of the Aveleigh Presbyterian church will have their annual chrysanthemum fair this year on Thursday night. It will be held in the vacant store in the McCaughrin block. Supper will be served.

Mr. T. J. Hunter reports that 18,779 bales of cotton had been ginned in this county up to October 18 of this year, as against 15,064 to the same time last year. A greater proportion of the crop has been ginned this than time last year.

The only Newberry negro playing the game of pickpocket show day was John Glasgow of the Farmers oil mill. He was arrested and Monday morning he was brought before Magistrate Player, who gave him a preliminary hearing and bound him over to higher court.

Mr. Clarence Dobbins of Kinards, while on his way to Newberry Wednesday on his motorcycle, ran into a rough place in the road near the Jalapa school and was thrown violently to the ground. He was considerably bruised, but will be O. K. again in a few days.

The newest thing in town is C. H. Dudley's motor truck, which was put on the streets last Friday. In addition to hauling trunks, freight and other stuff he also hauls passengers anywhere in the city for 10 cents. This may be the beginning of the jitney bus system which is so popular in some other cities.

Mrs. S. M. Duncan met with a painful accident last Thursday, when the horse she was driving shied at some object by the roadside near Mr. W. H. Suber's residence just out of town. The buggy was overturned and Mrs. Duncan thrown out. She was painfully though not seriously injured and is improving.

Don't fail to renew your subscription to The Herald and News before November 20. The price now is $1.31. Just think of it. A good newspaper, a real newspaper, for the small sum of $1.31 for twelve months. It's so cheap that you can't afford to borrow the paper and you know you must read it. And we are glad you do like to read it.

The Rural School Improvement association of the Kinards school will have an oyster supper at the residence of Mr. Will Gary on Thursday evening. The Kinards people know how to prepare and serve oysters and to make the guest within their midst have a good time and those who go may expect to enjoy themselves and at the same time help a good cause.

On Saturday about noon three wagons, with a total of thirty-five bales of cotton, drove into town with the old-fashioned bells on the mules of the front wagon. And the mules looked as if they had come from a farm that raised its own corn and that they had been fed on home-raised corn. The teams belonged to Summer Brothers company and came from the Gary place, which has been managed the present year by Mr. Rufus M. Werts, who is a successful farmer. We were told that there was another wagon on behind.

Death of Child.

Little W. T. Tarrant, 6-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tarrant of South Glenn street, died Wednesday and was buried at Rosemont cemetery Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. F. E. Dibble conducting the funeral services.

IN THE RECORDER'S COURT

A Big Show Down the Day After the Show—Pickpockets, Vagrants, Drunk and Disorderly.

If Wednesday was show day in Newberry, then Thursday was show-down day in the city recorder's court. There were no entrance fees, but several exit fees were charged.

When the clerk had finished calling the roll the following students of easy living were standing in a double row class, each one ready to recite a perfectly prepared lesson when his turn came:

At the head of the class, the position of honor, stood Richard Jackson and the rest in order, Clarence Jones, John Williams, Will Jackson, Ed Jackson, Tom Allen, Mary Jones, Lilly Martin and Joy McDaniel. For once joy was at the foot of the class.

"You are charged with vagrancy," announced the clerk. "You have no visible means of support." Ed Jackson's little legs trembled—the truth hurts.

"Yo' honah, 's a workin' man," said John Williams. "Look at the corns in mah hands."

"That's nothing," quoth the recorder, "you may have 'em on your ankles, too."

Tom Allen pleaded a long residence in Columbia in extenuation of his offense. "Who is the mayor of Columbia?" asked the recorder.

"De mare ob Columbia," repeated Tom, as a look of alarm crept over his face. "I don't know, boss; I works hard and don't pay no 'tention to sich things."

Joy McDaniel gave out the information that he was the greatest living cotton picker in Laurens county.

"You are here and not out of a job," said the recorder; "$25 or 30 days."

Since these negroes were evidently show followers and pickpockets, the evidence being strong against them on this charge, they were immediately turned over to Sheriff Blease's deputies to await trial in the court of general sessions.

Ben Dominick, colored, on show day desired to get rich quick and snatched a pocketbook from a negro girl. Evidently it was a paying proposition, for Ben paid the town $5.

On the same eventful day Fred Anderson celebrated the coming of the elephants and the monkeys by getting drunk. His exit ticket at the recorder's court cost Fred $3 on Friday, his case having been carried over from Wednesday.

On the self-same day Jim Golden became extravagant in the use of blasphemous language. He paid $5 for a lesson on the proper use and choice of words. Jim had also imbibed too freely and his lesson on the use and abuse of spirits cost him $15.

Lilly Bell Davis got on the war horse and her performance netted the town $5.
