

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movements of many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mr. Roy Summer has returned from New York.

Mr. S. H. McLean of the Southern railway was in the city on Monday.

Mrs. E. P. Taylor of Prosperity is visiting in the home of Dr. E. P. Taylor.—Batesburg cor. State.

Mrs. Lillian Smith of Newberry has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Walker.—Johnstone cor. State.

Mrs. Poole of Newberry is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Davega, in York street.—Chester cor. Record.

Mr. William P. Houseal came up from Columbia to attend the laymen's missionary meeting in the Lutheran church on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. L. Seabrook of Westminster, Md., will arrive in Newberry Tuesday on a visit to Mrs. Jas. McIntosh and other friends.

Mrs. Sula Wilson of Longshore visited Mrs. C. S. Matthews last week.

Miss Ernestine Wicker of the Little Mountain school spent the week end in Newberry.

FARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

We have a sort of intuition that free tuition has been a little too free.

It's agin' the constitution, begad, and it can't be did!

After the rain it will be so nice to drag the roads. Try it.

It didn't rain Sunday, but it had the threatening attitude all the day long.

The peerless Vivian Martain in "The Little Mademoiselle," at the opera house Thursday, the 3rd.

Mr. W. G. Bullock had his wrist dislocated Thursday last while attempting to crank an automobile.

C. G. Gilliam, colored, had a hog foot that had five toes. This is not a usual sight.

The Anderson Dry Goods company is going to have a pretty front when the work is completed.

Marie Dow in "Morals of Marcus" will be the Paramount feature at the Arcade today (Monday).

Did you know "What Happened to Father," as acted by Frank Daniels, will be at the opera house Thursday?

The contributions to the Jewish relief fund in Newberry amounted to only $111.80.

The Paramount pictures, are fine. Large crowds saw them at the Arcade Monday and Friday.

Did you see that rubber tree down at Mower's garage. That's what they make Goodrich tires out of.

There will be a recital by the music pupils of the Little Mountain High school on Friday evening at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to attend.

A street preacher attracted a considerable crowd on Main street in front of J. H. Sumner & Co.'s clothing store Sunday afternoon.

Don't wait about that little subscription to The Herald and News. You might forget it and then you would lose fifty cents on the dollar.

The second episode of the "The Girl and the Game" will be shown at the Arcade Wednesday. If you missed the first start now.

Evidently some students who have been getting their tuition free, will have to drop the "r" in the word free. This will make a sight of difference.

In the recorder's court Jim Abrams was tried Monday morning and found guilty of public indecency. He was fined $5, which was paid.

Mary Pickford will again appear at the Arcade, Friday, February 4, in "Mistress Nell," Famous Players Paramount in 5 acts.

The members of the Newberry delegation spent Sunday at home in consequence of the regular adjourn over to Monday night of the legislature.

Manager Wells will show the V. S. L. E. feature presenting Frank Daniels, in "What Happened to Father," at the opera house Thursday matinee and night.

The weather remains springlike and the trees are beginning to bud. Some of the heaviest snow in this section fell in February, and we may yet have some winter.

"FIFI" at the opera house Monday and Tuesday nights this week. They say it is going to be good. It is being presented under the auspices of the Calvin Crozier chapter.

Mr. John C. Mills of the lower part of the county had a wagon load of peanuts on the market Friday. He was offering them at a dollar a bushel. These were left over after fattening his hogs.

Dock Knowles, a white man who was on the chain gang for being drunk and disorderly, made his escape one night last week. He has not been recaptured.

While free tuition is being agitated all over the state, Judge Player is undisturbed. He says there will be no free tuition at his institution. All lecture courses must be paid, either in cash or with days.

A. G. Wise, Prosperity, is offering for sale this week a carload of fine mules at a bargain. Some fine Tennessee mares and some scrubs in the lot. Must be sold this week. See him if you are in the market.

Treasurer Epps desires it stated that the bill to extend the time for the payment of taxes without penalty has not yet passed and neither has the one to extend the time for the payment of the commutation tax.

It would be nice if some of the other merchants along Main street could be induced to put in some modern fronts and show windows. It would help to display goods and make the stores have a more modern and up-to-date appearance.

The Carolina Casn company announces a cost sale for three days this week. They are now in the Copeland building recently vacated by Caldwell & Haltiwanger. See them for some bargains on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Can you beat it? Vivian Martain in "The Little Mademoiselle," on Wednesday and Frank Daniels, in "What Happened to Father," on Thursday at the opera house. Two of the leading film stars in two days, and each in a feature production. Well of Wells!

On Monday morning, in the recorder's court, Neil Nance was tried and found guilty of storing whiskey for unlawful purposes. He was given $50 or 30 days. He was trying to raise the amount of the fine, but last accounts was that he had not succeeded.

J. T. Mayes & Co. have a fine stand of oats growing in their plot in the store window. The oats are fine and if we had a few hundred acres like that and a good harvester we would not be so careful about all those 1915 boys paying that dollar right away.

Mr. John D. Dominick, convicted at the last term of the court for forgery and who has been on the chain gang, has been transferred to the state penitentiary. Supervisor Sample had information that he aided Dock Knowles to escape and for that reason the transfer was made.

There is a state law against the barbed wire fence along side a public road unless there is a guard rail on the top. That law would scarcely apply to cities, as we notice along side of some of the sidewalks enclosing yards and gardens that such a wire is used and no guard rail on top. It is a dangerous proposition.

Remember that if you want The Herald and News now is the time to get it a whole year for only a dollar. After the first of March this offer is positively withdrawn. This is good for old subscribers and whether in arrears or in advance. No subscription taken for less than one year or more than two years at this rate. The same price to all.

Mr. Charlie Ruff returned to Newberry Thursday with his bride. On Wednesday evening Mr. Ruff and Miss Mary Stevenson of Winnsboro were happily married at the Presbyterian parsonage in Winnsboro by the Rev. G. G. Mayes. At present they are at the home of Mr. Ruff's father in the country, but will later locate in the city. The happy couple are receiving their many friends.

This divorce and scholarship and free tuition agitation is nerve racking. To have the suspense all over with and be done, give us the medicine and let us swallow it and quit looking at it and making faces over it. There ain't any more freedom anyway, so give us the compulsory cradle roll, first 2 years of our slave-ridden lives, then compulsory kindergarten 4 years, then compulsory school attendance 10 years, then compulsory college education (free tuition) 4 years, then compulsory military service 5 years, then compulsory marriage laws (good-bye free speech), and then, at death, if the Presbyterians are right about predestination, compulsory roasting in the fire works, or compulsory residence in glory.

Notice to Colored Teachers.

All teachers in the public schools of Newberry county are hereby notified to have your annual report properly filled out and signed by the clerk of board of trustees at the close of the school term. Also in presenting your last claim bring in industrial work from your school. No claim will be approved by county superintendent of education until this is done.

By order of county superintendent of education.

U. S. Gallman, Col. Supervisor.

SERIOUS SHOOTING AFFAIR

Mr. Ira O. Burton and Mr. David A. Langford Have Words on Street—Latter Seriously Shot.

A serious shooting affair took place in front of Minnaugh's, on Main street, last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Mr. Ira O. Burton shot Mr. David A. Langford. It was not observed that the two men were quarreling until a pistol shot was heard. It all happened in a moment, and before any one could interfere to prevent the difficulty.

The ball struck a cuff button and was deflected, entering the abdomen and perforating the intestines in two places.

The shooting was at short range, being only about a foot distant.

The usual Saturday afternoon crowd was on the streets and the sound of the shot attracted a large number of people to the scene of the trouble.

Mr. Langford, assisted by friends, walked to the drug store of Gilder & Weeks, nearly a block distant. While Mr. Burton turned and walked into Mayes' drug store, nearby, with the pistol, a 38 calibre Smith & Wesson special, in his hand.

An examination of the wounded man revealed the fact that he was seriously hurt and preparations were made at once to carry him to a hospital in Columbia for an operation. It was at the hospital that Mr. Langford was found to be desperately wounded and chances for his recovery slight.

A representative of The Herald and News called on Mr. Burton at the Newberry jail Sunday afternoon and asked if he had any statement to make. He replied that he acted in self-defense and had retained counsel. Other than this he had nothing to say just at this time.

Mr. Burton is 43 years of age and has a family. Mr. Langford also has a family and is about 27 years of age.

Mr. Langford was attended by Drs. Gilder and Kibler. Dr. Gilder accompanied him to the hospital.

Reports from Columbia Monday afternoon were to the effect that Mr. Langford was slightly better, and though in a serious condition, there was hope of his recovery. His brothers, J. J. and W. S. Langford, are in Columbia.

MUCH INTEREST MANIFEST

In Laymen's Missionary Movement—Enthusiastic Meeting Sunday—Special Newberry Train.

The Laymen's missionary movement is taking shape in Newberry. A very enthusiastic meeting was held in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Sunday afternoon presided over by Mr. John M. Kinard, chairman of this county, and inspiring and encouraging addresses were made by several prominent laymen. The meeting was well attended and much interest manifest. It is expected that at least 300 laymen will attend the state convention in Columbia from Newberry county.

Dr. G. Y. Hunter has agreed to take up the movement in the town of Prosperity and have a canvass of the community made to interest the men in this great movement.

If as many as 200 will go from Newberry the Southern railway will operate a special Newberry train leaving Newberry about 7:30 a. m. and returning the same night after the evening program in Columbia.

A central committee has been appointed which will appoint sub-committees to make a whirlwind campaign to ascertain how many will go from Newberry. This central committee is composed of John H. Wicker, J. B. Hunter, W. A. McSwain, I. H. Hunt and C. D. Weeks. This committee will appoint the sub-committees, who will go to work at once to interest the town and county in this work. Chairman Kinard said he would like for any laymen in the county to communicate with any member of this committee at once, so that it may be known how many will attend the convention in Columbia. The round trip fare on the railroad is only $1.55 and provision is being made to have the delegates cared for in Columbia at a reasonable price.

At the meeting Sunday afternoon Mr. W. P. Houseal came from Columbia and made an address and speeches were made by J. B. Hunter, E. C. Jones, J. C. Swindler, J. C. Kinard, J. F. Epling and W. H. Hunt.

If you can attend the Columbia meeting on February 6 to 9 let the committee know at once, so that the arrangements may be made for the special Newberry train. Greenwood and Greenville are to have special trains.

KILLED HIS WIFE

Tom Byrd Accused by Coroner's Jury With the Killing—No Eye Witnesses—Tom in Jail.

Saturday night about 10 o'clock the sheriff's office was notified by 'phone of a killing near Kinards. Deputy Dorron and Rural Policeman Melton went immediately to the scene of the killing and returned with Tom Byrd, Jr., and lodged him in jail, charged with murder.

Tom Byrd and his wife, Maria Byrd, colored, had been separated, but had gone back together. They continued, however, to have domestic troubles and on Saturday night about 9 o'clock Tom appeared in the yard with a single-barrel shotgun loaded with No. 4 shot. He called Maria to the door and when she appeared he blazed away and shot her in the head and face. She died almost immediately.

The parties lived on H. H. Kinard's place about three miles to the right of Kinards.

Coroner Lindsay was notified of the killing and held an inquest Sunday afternoon, the verdict of the jury being that Maria Byrd came to her death by a gunshot wound inflicted by the hands of Tom Byrd.

There were no eyewitnesses to the homicide, but the circumstances pointed to the husband as the one who committed the deed and the jury found as above stated.

ANOTHER NATIVE BORN SERVED AS CHIEF OF POLICE

The addition of the name of the late W. H. Harris to Newberrians to the "manner born" who have filled the office of chief of police in the town still needs mention of another Newberrian in the same connection.

The record of the town will show that John Irving Houseal, as chief of police, performed one of the bravest deeds in preserving the peace which has ever been witnessed in the town.

Reference to the newspapers of the town of November, 1874, will give the details of the riot which occurred on circus day on west Main street, at the corner of McKibben street. The storehouse on the northwest corner of these two streets was then occupied by Webb, Jones & Parker. The writer has forgotten the occupants of the first floor of the building next to the corner. The second floor, however, was the office of the Progressive Age.

The chief of police soon found his force unable to quell the riot, and without consulting any one he went to the commander of the federal garrison, then stationed in the Nance house, between O'Neill and Boundary streets, and requested aid of the troops in quelling the riot.

The riot was quelled, but not until one policeman, Henry Bluford, a negro Democrat, had been killed and one citizen, J. Pinckney Hardy, badly injured by an attack upon him by the mob. Mr. Hardy was rescued by Capt. W. H. Webb, who dragged him into the left doorway, which then lead into the cellar.

The fusillade of firearms was directed from the southeast side of the street and the occupants of the Age office especially had some hair-breadth escapes, as well as the crowd on the sidewalks on the same side of the street.

John I. Houseal was given deserved praise for his promptness in summoning the federal troops to the rescue.

Mr. Houseal removed from Newberry the following spring to Vicksburg, Miss., and after locating at Meridian, removed to Memphis, where he died in November, 1903.

Ex-Newberrian.

The man who is entirely satisfied is usually a tiresome companion.

DEPUTY W. M. DORROH

ARRESTS W. O. STEVENSON

Some time ago requisition papers were issued by Governor Manning for the arrest and return of W. O. Stevenson from Nevada upon the warrant sworn out by his wife charging desertion and non-support. The papers were held up and finally Governor Manning recalled them or declined to have them executed. Sheriff Blease had Stevenson arrested, but of course when the papers were refused by Governor Manning Stevenson was released. Governor Manning and Sheriff Blease have had some very interesting correspondence in regard to the case.

The case took a new turn last week when Stevenson wired his wife, who lives at Little Mountain, to meet him at Greenwood. Sheriff Blease was put wise and he sent Deputy Dorroh along with Mrs. Stevenson, or at least on the same train. Stevenson met his wife at Mountville and before the arrival of the train at Greenwood Dorroh had placed Stevenson under arrest.

This was on Friday afternoon and Stevenson was brought back to Newberry by the officer. He gave bond in the sum of $600 for his appearance at the next term of the court.

It is supposed that the purpose Stevenson had in wiring his wife to meet him was to see if some compromise and settlement could not be agreed upon. That, it seems, would be the best thing for all parties concerned.

Brandeis For Supreme Court Bench.

Louise D. Brandeis of Boston was nominated by President Wilson on Friday for the Place on the supreme court bench made vacant by the death of Associate Justice Lamar.

The senate received the nomination with unconcealed surprise. Some senator announced to the colleagues they were opposed to the nomination, but declined to be quoted to that effect.

Mr. Brandeis has been devoting practically all his time of late to the Zionist movement in this country which has for its object the repatriation of the Jews to a nation of their own in Palestine. If confirmed he would be the first Jew to sit on the supreme court bench.
