Lecture For the Opening Night of Our Chautauqua

WILLIAM RAINEY BENNETT.

WILLIAM RAINEY BENNETT, who is to lecture here the opening day of Chautauqua week, is known in the Lyceum and Chautauqua world as "The Man Who Can." He has a lecture on this subject, the theme of which is that "he can who thinks he can," that in every brain there is a sleeping genius and that it can be awakened. The lecture which he gives helps young men and women to find themselves. It gives them health, poise and power. It is absolutely different from the ordinary lecture of this type. Every laugh comes in naturally. Nothing is forced. Other lectures which he gives are entitled "The Master Thought" and "Machines and Millionaires."

William Rainey Bennett was raised on a farm and, like so many successful men of the present day, has many a time warmed his bare feet on frosty mornings where the cows have lain. He worked his way through college. Starting in with $10, he graduated with money in his pocket, having paid his way by singing. Since then he has done postgraduate work in two universities. His sermon lectures have been published in full as features of some of the metropolitan newspapers.
