VOLUME LIII, NUMBER 93.

WILL YOU COOPERATE TO GET A CREAMERY?

Only four creameries in South Carolina. In 1913 Mr. W. W. Long, director of extension work in South Carolina conceived the idea of establishing cooperative creameries for the benefit of the farmers of the State. The first one was established at Clemson College that same year making only 500 lbs of butter the first month. This creamery has succeeded even beyond the dreams of the originators and it is now making and selling for its patrons 12,000 pounds of butter per month.

Small farmers near the creamery who once had to buy supplies on time with which to make a crop are now selling cream from 3 to 5 cows and getting a monthly check large enough to run his farm on a cash system besides he has the by-products, manure and skim milk to use at home. This of course requires some time and labor but does not curtail the production of field crops. Their yield in a few years will be increased because of the increased fertility of the soil from manure of the cows.

This creamery has demonstrated the fact that the creamery can be made a success in any part of South Carolina.

Spartanburg has the next largest in the State from the point of production, producing 8,000 pounds per month.

Darlington and Rock Hill each have one, producing not quite so much as Spartanburg.

But the point I wish to make is this: If a creamery is a good thing for other sections of the State, would it not be a good thing for the people of Newberry county also? If it enables the poor farmer in other sections of the State to run his business on a cash basis would it not do the same thing for the poor farmer of Newberry county? If it enables farmers of good circumstance in other sections of the State to make money would it not do the same thing for this class of farmers in Newberry county? It will also enable the business man when he wants a pound of butter for his table to get the best right at his own home.

I, as demonstration agent am in a position to know the people of Newberry county, possibly better than any one else in the county. I know that we have as good people in Newberry county as any where in the State and I feel that the best is not too good for them. I feel that we need a creamery in Newberry county and we need the cooperation of bankers, merchants and farmers in this matter.

It will require about a $4,000 capital stock to put up a first class creamery. It will require at least 400 cows making from 15 to 30 pounds of butter each per month to begin with. Now I am going to ask that every man in Newberry county or nearby in adjoining counties who is interested in selling cream take a census of the number of cows available, and either come or send representatives to Prosperity on November the 16th and take up the matter with W. W. Long, who will at that time explain exactly how the thing can be done. There will be only 2 or 3 more creameries established in the State direct by this department and I am very anxious to get one of these in Newberry county. If all will cooperate we will get the creamery.

Will you do it?
T. M. MILLS,
County Agent.

Saturday was another big day. The streets were crowded until late in the afternoon and partly extending into the night. It was a busy day and business seemed to be brisk. In point of number of persons it was a success, although the sales of cotton were about 200 less than on the previous Saturday.

COOPERATIVE CREAMERY TO BE ESTABLISHED AT PROSPERITY

Members Grace Congregation Invited to Wedding of Pastor Shealy—A Surprise Marriage—Pastor Leslie on Visit.

Prosperity, November 6.—All parties who are interested in the establishment of a cooperative creamery at Prosperity will meet at the Town Hall Saturday, November 11th at 3 p. m. Dr. G. Y. Hunter, president of the State Live Stock association will preside at the meeting and will explain fully the working of a cooperative creamery and tell the benefits that Prosperity and its community will derive from such. You are wanted at this meeting. It will mean dollars to you now and much more so when the boll weevil infects this community.

An invitation is extended to Grace congregation to attend the wedding of their pastor, Rev. C. J. Healy to Miss Elizabeth Voigt of Columbia, S. C. Grace congregation will receive Mr. Shealy and his bride with a very cordial welcome. Miss Voigt is the charming daughter of Dr. Voigt, president of the Lutheran Seminary in Columbia.

The Rev. Mr. E. W. Leslie, former pastor of the Grace church stopped over Friday night on his way to his new home in Lone Star after attending synod in Walhalla. While here Mr. Leslie was the guest at the home of Mr. L. S. Bowers. The many friends of Mr. Leslie were indeed glad to see him again.

Quite a surprise marriage took place Saturday afternoon when Miss Georgie Hair, one of the Prosperity high school girls ran away and was married to Mr. Gary Boozer of the St. Lukes section. Mrs. Boozer is the daughter of Judge B. B. Hair. Mr. Boozer is a prosperous young farmer and their friends wish them well.

Mr. and Mrs. Lois Dominick spent the week-end in Newberry.

Miss Annie Singley of Excelsior has been visiting Miss Liza Bell Curlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hunter of the St. Lukes section were guests Sunday of Mrs. A. H. Hawkins.

Mrs. J. P. Wheeler has gone to Greenville to visit her daughter, Mrs. Granville Wyche.

The William Lester chapter, U. D. C. meets Tuesday afternoon at 4 with Miss Effie Hawkins.

Dr. and Mrs. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Portee of Saluda spent Sunday with Mrs. B. B. Schumpert.

Mr. John Sease spent the week-end in Chapin.

FIRST WEEK JURORS COMMON PLEAS

On Friday County Treasurer C. C. Schumpert, Auditor J. B. Halfacre and Clerk of Court Jno. C. Goggans, jury commissioners, drew the following names in the panel from which the juries will be selected during the first week of the court of common pleas, which convenes here on the third Monday of this month:

J. W. Sligh, M. B. Chalmers, J. B. McCrackin, J. C. Craps, J. M. Counts, M. J. Smith, John A. Nichols, C. M. West, D. S. Teague, N. E. Bowers, Geo. Martin, H. C. Bouknight, J. W. Long, G. Ridgell Bowers, Leo Hamilton, R. C. Neel, E. B. Abrams, G. F. Stockman, Jno. S. Floyd, Jr., L. F. Gallman, Oscar Burton, M. E. Dawkins, G. J. Kinard, L. H. Folk, B. B. Schumpert, J. M. Johnstone, E. A. Lake, A. M. Conwill, J. M. Bouknight, H. C. Wilson, J. H. Campsen, D. O. Chapman, J. G. Morse, J. H. Willingham, E. T. Mayer, B. S. Counts.

Houseal-Goggans.

An exceedingly beautiful and impressive wedding was solemnized Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. Z. F. Wright, where his niece, Miss Sara Houseal, became the bride of Mr. John Carville Goggans.

The guests were met at the door by Misses Eva Goggans and Mary Wright and were entertained preceding the ceremony with a musical programme lasting for half an hour, Miss Pauline Gilder singing "The Bacarelle" from "The Tales of Hoffman," followed by Miss Blanche Simmons, who sang "At Dawning" and "Because." Miss Mazie Dominick presided at the piano, accompanied by Mr. Earle Hipp, at the violin.

At the appointed hour to the strains of "Lohengrins" wedding march, rendered by Miss Pauline Gilder and Mr. Hipp, the bridal party descended the broad stairs to an improvised altar formed of white pedestals twined with smilax and crowned with cathedral candelabras holding seven tall tapers. The background was of ferns with an altar rail on which burned seven cathedral candles. First came two small ribbon bearers, Mary Alice McConnell, who wore a lovely white French organ'di accordion pleated and Thomas Pope both holding large yellow chrysanthemums tied with wide yellow satin ribbon, the corresponding ends being held by Misses Francis Houseal and Mary Frances Cannon. The soft white tulle dresses with yellow bodies added to the girlish beauty of Misses Houseal and Cannon.

Next entered the maid of honor, Miss Agnes Houseal, who was charmingly gowned in changeable yellow gros de londres with tulle draperies and sequin bodice. From her hair she wore yellow tulle en train caught with rhinestones. She carried a lovely bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. Then came the little flower girl, Laura Nance McCaughrin, scattering showers of yellow petals in the path of the bride, who descended the stairway on the arm of her father, Dr. W. G. Houseal, passing through the bridal aisle to the altar where they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. James Goggans. The ring ceremony was performed by the bride's great-uncle, Dr. A. J. Bowers.

The bride's brunette beauty and charm were enhanced by an exquisite creation of Duchess satin, with real point lace and court train; the foundation of silver cloth having beautiful overdraperies of filmy tulle. The veil was arranged court fashion with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried orchids showered with valley lilies. Her only ornament was the groom's wedding gift, a handsome diamond lavalliere, set in platinum.

The bride's mother wore veined charmeuse with gold lace. Assisting the bride's parents in entertaining were Mrs. R. B. Parks, who wore orchid taffeta with metal lace trimming; Mrs. Herman Wright, who wore white taffeta with tulle and sequin embroidery, and Mr. Z. F. Wright.

The colonial halls and rooms of the lower floor were thrown en suite, a profusion of yellow and white chrysanthemums being used to carry out the color scheme.

After congratulations and good wishes had been extended the happy couple, the guests were asked into the dining room. The bride's table was beautiful, having as a centerpiece a huge basket of yellow chrysanthemums. From the chandelier also were showers of small yellow chrysanthemums and the tulle reaching in streamers to four silver candlesticks on the table. A delicious salad course was served. Those assisting in the dining room were Mesdames C. H. Cannon, L. G. Eskridge, S. B. Jones, Frank Wilson and Misses Fannie McCaughrin, Daisy Cannon, Lavinia Kinard, Sara Davis, Nancy Fox, Harriet Mayer, Kathryn Harms and Woody Bowman. Misses Frances Houseal and Mary Frances Cannon pinned the favors.

From the dining room the guests were invited to the front parlors where coffee and fruit cake were served by Misses Lucile Wilson, Mrs. J. N. McCaughrin and Miss Lucy McCaughrin and Mrs. J. H. Harms.

Messrs. W. G. Houseal, Jr. and O. B. Mayer, Jr., acted as ushers.

In the spacious halls on the second floor were displayed numerous and handsome gifts which attested the popularity of the young couple.

The bride's traveling suit was of navy velvet with Hudson Bay beaver hat and accessories to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Goggans motored to Columbia where they took the Seaboard train for points south.

The out of town guests were: Miss Blanche Simmons, Greenwood, S. C.; Mrs. T. N. McConnell and Mary Alice McConnell, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. J. Q. Wertz, Salisbury, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Houseal, Misses Houseal, Columbia, S. C.; Mrs. R. B. Parks, Miss Agnes Houseal, Oedartown, Ga.; Mr. Jas. Goggans, Mrs. J. T. Sloan, Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. P. Bailey, Miss Annie Bailey, Mr. Arthur Little, Clinton, S. C.; Mrs. Z. W. Bedenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Bedenbaugh, Mr. and

STATE AID FOR NEWBERRY HIGH SCHOOL

Dr. Kinard, superintendent of the city schools, has a letter from State Superintendent Swearingen, announcing the fact that State aid to the amount of $500 has been appropriated to the Newberry high school, with a probability of getting $200 more if the appropriation holds out.

At a meeting of the Newberry board of trustees held last Thursday afternoon this aid was formally accepted.

The board and the superintendent are to be congratulated on securing this money for the Newberry high school. It will be of material benefit to the people of Newberry county for it means that the people of the county and of adjoining counties can send their children to the high school without paying tuition. It will help Newberry by bringing about a closer bond of union between the county and the city. It is hoped that the high school will be able to offer next year a good business course.

FIRST OF THE FIVE TABLES TO BE GIVEN BENEFIT BOUNDARY AND SPEERS STREET SCHOOLS

One of the most attractive entertainments that has ever been given in Newberry will be the "Feast of the Five Tables" which will take place Friday, November 10th, in the vacant store next door to Copeland Brothers. This entertainment is unique and will be something that will appeal to everybody and promises to be a charming affair in every way. There will be a committee to receive the crowds and to see to it that each one will enjoy the evening. Everybody should be interested in the schools and be on hand to help in the good cause. Great pleasure and genuine enjoyment is promised to those who attend, and a most cordial invitation is extended to the people of Newberry. The proceeds of this entertainment will go for improvements to the two schools uniting in this work.

The chairman of all committee will please meet the chairman of the executive committee Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Buzhardt-Langford Co's. store. The ward committees will please have their full reports for this meeting and bring them in person if possible.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, relict of William Johnson, died at the home of her son, Mr. William Johnson, in this city, on Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, at the remarkable old age of 93 years, about 26 years after the death of her husband. The funeral services were held at Central Methodist church Monday afternoon at 3:30, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. E. E. Dibble, assisted by the Rev. Edw. Fulenwider of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. Interment in Rosemont cemetery, the following citizens acting as pallbearers: R. T. Caldwell, B. F. Goggans, E. C. Jones, E. P. Bradley, W. Y. Fair and J. G. Rikard.

Mrs. Johnson was the oldest resident of the city and the last surviving mother who gave a son to the confederacy. For seventy-nine years she was a devoted member of the Methodist church. This is a proud and distinguished record to carry through a long and eventful life to the grave and an honor to those who are to follow.

Besides the son with whom she lived she is survived by a daughter, Miss C. C. Johnson, three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; also by a half-sister, Mrs. Jane Havird, of Silverstreet, who, although 82 years old, attended the funeral, as did also the granddaughter, Mrs. R. B. Wallace and four children of Columbia.

Do it Now is Best Tip During The Second Period

Clubbing Offers Will Not Continue Long and the Campaign Manager Urges Candidates to Improve Opportunity—Second Vote Period Expires Saturday Night.

Owing to lack of space, it was impossible to publish the list of candidates and their standing in today's issue. The list will appear in next issue.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES.

100,000 extra votes for each club of $12.00, consisting of classes of subscriptions, no limit to the number of clubs any candidate may turn in. This offer begins Nov. 6th, and expires Saturday, Nov. 18th. During this offer Prize Ballots will be awarded candidates sending in the largest amount of subscriptions between the dates named as follows:

- 400,000 to the one turning in the largest amount, 300,000 to the second, 200,000 to the third, 100,000 to the fourth and 50,000 to the fifth.

Positively the last club offer made.

Up to date the manager of The Herald and News Circulation Campaign has not heard of any of the candidates getting arrested, although for the past week or so quite a number of them have "Rested" periodically of their own accord. But, however, every active candidate is to be congratulated on the co-operation their friends have been giving them during the past few weeks, and the Campaign Manager wishes to take this opportunity of calling their attention to the expiration of the second vote period which will expire on next Saturday night, November 11th, after which time the voting schedule will decrease and candidates should get every subscription they possibly can during the week.

We also call your attention to the final club offer of extra votes on clubs of $12.00 in subscriptions which is positively the last offer that will be made during the Campaign. This offer began Monday, November 6th and will expire Saturday, Nov. 18th.

From this time forth, and every day and every minute during this final club offer, and in fact, during the remainder of the campaign the manager wishes to impress upon every candidate the importance to the "Do it Now Spirit." The man or woman, who coined that little phrase as a business maxim knew that it embodied the wisdom of centuries; that it was the very bed rock upon which every success rested; and without its application no great or small object was ever obtained.

And that is what the Campaign Manager wants every candidate to understand. No moment should be allowed to slip by unimproved during this great offer, and in fact, during the remaining weeks of the Campaign. Right now you have the greatest opportunity of securing a number of extra votes than you will ever have again. If you have not already secured a number of subscriptions, do not wait any longer but start at once and see those who have promised to help you later on.

THE ELECTION NEWS TO BE RECEIVED AT HOME

The commissioners of Public Works have arranged to give the stay-at-homes on Tuesday night the result of the presidential election at different stages of the game, by flashing house lights. The flashes will be distinct, and will begin immediately upon the receipt of returns of any consequence. They will continue at intervals until the final result is declared.

The following code will be used.

- 1 Flash—Wilson leads.
- 2 Flashes—Hughes leads.
- 3 Flashes—Wilson elected.
- 4 Flashes—Hughes elected.
- 5 Flashes—Result in doubt. Good-night.
